

Seattle Captures Coast Loop Flag; Bevos Nab Final Frays

By PETER HAYES
United Press Sports Writer

Manager Fred Hutchinson today hailed his Seattle Rainiers as "a tough, game" team that hung on to win the Pacific Coast league pennant despite crippling injuries.

The Rainiers beat Los Angeles, 3-1, Saturday night to clinch the championship for Hutch in his first year as manager of his home-town club.

"This is a tough, game bunch of men," the ex-Detroit pitcher and manager said at a champagne celebration after the game.

"We were pretty well beat up and kind of rocky at times, but when we had to have it they were able to reach back and get that little extra."

With the pressure off, Hutch sprinkled his lineup with seven rookies Sunday as the Rainiers divided with the Angels, winning the opener, 4-3, and bowing, 9-0, in the second game.

San Diego Second

San Diego's defending champions salvaged second place by grabbing the second game with Hollywood, 6-5, after the Stars won the 10-inning opener, 7-6.

Hollywood and Los Angeles wound up tied for third place one game behind San Diego and four behind Seattle.

The fifth place Portland Beavers swept a twin-bill from seventh place Oakland, 6-5 and 5-2, while San Francisco nailed down sixth by splitting with tail-end Sacramento. The seals won the first game, 6-5, and the Sacs took the nightcap, 9-4.

A Sick's Stadium crowd of 10,874 jubilantly showered the field with cushions Saturday night after the Rainiers sewed up their sixth pennant and first since 1951 when Rogers Hornsby guided the team to the top.

Hutch, who won 25 games for Seattle as a high school phenom in 1938, went all out to win the game and clinch the pennant. With Lefty Joe Hatten starting

Women's Golf

In the point play for ladies' day last week at Rogue Valley Country club, Mrs. C. B. Collins won in the A group with a total of 20 points. In the B group Mrs. Warren Lesseg was high with 11 points. C group winner was Mrs. Al Hart with 6 points and in the D group Mrs. Lee Baummann won with 14 points. In the nine-hole D group Mrs. Owen Middlekauff was victor with 8 points.

Qualifying for the fall handicap will begin September 13 and last through September 20. All 18-hole lady golfers are asked to enter and make the handicap a grand finale to summer play.

September 15 through October 6, all nine-hole players may play at any time on the 36-hole Segessenman medal trophy.

Women are to declare themselves at the pro shop when they plan to play on this trophy. Each person entering must play two front nines and two back nines—a total of 36 holes. Entrants may play at any time and on either nine. They are to mark their score cards and enter their nine-hole score on the large sheet which is posted in the pro shop.

On Thursday, September 15, play for the day is medal and is the fifth Rogue Valley Women's Golf trophy play.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

for the Angels, the Seattle manager started a lineup of eight righthanded batters including Vern Stephens and Jerry Pridy, both hampered by leg injuries.

Righthanded Stars
Shortstop Leo Righetti drove in all of Seattle's three runs with a pair of singles in the early innings and the Angels had been blanked until the eighth by Lou Kretlow (14-3) whose sale to Kansas City was announced earlier in the evening.

In Sunday's games, two youngsters making their first PCL appearance, Gene Hayden and Cal Humphries, pitched for Seattle in the first game with Hayden getting credit for the win.

Bubba Church tossed a four-hit shutout in the abbreviated closer and his mates raked three Seattle hurriers for 12 hits, including a homer by Buzz Clarkson. Bob Fesler, former softball pitcher, started for the Rainiers and was reached for six hits and four runs in four innings.

Oaks Go North
In Portland, a couple of PCL eras ended with the Beaver sweep. It was the last baseball to be played at the 54-year-old Vaughn Street ballpark. The Beavers move to Multnomah stadium next year. Also, the Oakland Oaks were almost a certainty to be playing in Vancouver, B.C., next year.

Ed Mickelson drove in the tie-breaking run in the ninth inning of the first game to give Red Adams his 12th win. The Beavers chased over five runs in the fifth inning of the nightcap as Bill Werle tossed an eight-hitter.

Rogue River Tops Oakland Eleven 15-12

Rogue River — A first period safety and the conversion after a second period touchdown gave Rogue River high its margin in a 15 to 12 football decision over Oakland at Oakland on Saturday.

The safety came when Bill Weaver tackled Rice of Oakland in the home club's end zone. Rogue River got its second stanza touchdown on a 12-yard jaunt by Bilbee Lane. It was Lane who also added the extra.

Rice crossed the Rogue River goal from three yards out in the second quarter and went over from the five in the third panel for the Oakland TD's.

Lane ran nine yards for the Chiefs' fourth period goal which sewed up the victory.

Scores Nullified
Infractions and violations erased three other Chief TD thrusts. A 25-yard sprint by Bill Hedrick was called back in the first quarter because of a clipping penalty. Lane passed 12 yards to Bob Wilson in the second chucker but Wilson was out of the end zone nullifying a score.

In the concluding quarter Hedricks passed 10 yards to Wilson who lateralled to Gary Phillips. The latter went the remaining 35 yards to pay dirt but it was ruled that an offensive lineman had been downfield before the ball was thrown.

Rogue River netted 222 yards from scrimmage to 79 by Oakland.

Hedricks suffered a slight concussion late in the fourth quarter but is expected to be able to go in the Merrill game at Rogue River this Friday.

Whites Win In SOC Drill

Ashland — Tackling and the running of backs Ted Tenney and Don Korn were highlights Saturday as the White team defeated the Big Reds 13 to 0 in a Southern Oregon college intersquad football scrimmage Saturday.

Coach Al Akins expressed pleasure with the spirit and the tackling but said that blocking and timing will need attention before the Linfield college game here Saturday night. He indicated that positions on the team are still wide open.

Ralph Clarno on a short buck and Dick Prevelle on a 15-yard blast scored the White touchdowns and Dick Smith booted the extra point.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—NINE

Ems Ahead In Play-Off

Salem, Ore. — (U.P.) — The Eugene Emeralds were out in front of the Salem Senators three games to two today as the clubs got ready for the sixth of a possible seven games in the Northwest league baseball championship playoff here tonight.

The Emeralds won yesterday, 3-2, to move out in front after Salem won Saturday night's game, 4-2. A Eugene win tonight would end the playoff and give the league pennant to the Emeralds. If Salem wins, the seventh game will be played at Eugene tomorrow.

The Sunday playoff game went into the 12th inning before Bill Girdley of Eugene bounced a single over the shortstop with the bases full to drive in a winning run. The score had been tied since the seventh inning.

In Saturday night's game at Eugene, Jack Steinagel slammed out a bases-loaded triple to spark a first inning rally that gave Salem its four runs for the win.

Monza, Italy — (U.P.) — Juan Manuel Fangio of Argentina clinched the 1955 auto racing championship Sunday by driving his Mercedes to victory in the Grand Prix of Italy. John Fitch of Stamford, Conn., driving a Maserati, finished ninth.

Two Teams Tie In Tahoe Pro-Am

Lake Tahoe, Calif. — (U.P.) — Two par-busting teams from Salt Lake City and the San Francisco Bay area tied for championship honors in the Northern California-Tahoe Pro-Amateur Golf tournament yesterday with 18-under-par best ball scores of 120.

The victory was worth $700 each to professionals George Schneider of Salt Lake City and Ken Towns of San Francisco, but was worth far more to some of the amateurs who bought themselves in the Calcutta pool. Schneider is a former national PGA tournament director and Towns is a former National Public Links champion.

Each team had a best ball of 120 for the 36-holes over the Brockway and Tahoe City courses. Par was 138.

With Schneider were Lorin Monch and Steve Dunford, both of Salt Lake City. Towns partners were Charles Leider of Burlingame and Charles Bangell of Alameda.

New York — (U.P.) — Isaac Logart, speedy Cuban welterweight, is favored at 8½ to 5 to beat lanky Al Wilson of Edgewood, N.J., tonight in their television 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.
