Freeway Meeting Friday in Salem

Three Medford city officials will meet with State Highway Engineer R. H. Baldock in Salem Friday afternoon in an attempt to get a commitment on location of a proposed Highway 99 freeway through or bypassing the city.

Mayor Earl Miller, City Manager Robert A. Duff and Public Works Director Vernon Thorpe will meet with Baldock. The session was arranged by Duff at the authorization of the city council.

Mayor Miller has pointed out that uncertainties as to location of the freeway have delayed planned sewer and water line and street improvements.

There have been three official proposals for the route. One is an elevated to run along Bear creek. Another outlined route is along Genesee, Tripp and Cottage sts., and a third would bypass the city in the vicinity of Foothills rd.

They completed their summer NROTC training at the Little Creek Naval Amphibious base near Norfolk, Va.

John Roland Conlon, son of Mrs. Etta Conlon, 16 Tripp st., recently was reassigned to duty in the U.S. Navy post office in Yokohama, Japan, according to his mother. He is a teleman-seaman, and his prior duty was aboard a destroyer escort. He arrived in Japan about three weeks ago.

John A. Beare, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Beare, Ashland, recently was promoted to specialist third class at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex. He is a clerk typist in the Brooke Army Medical center's field service school.

He entered the service in May, 1954, and completed basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif. He is a 1949 graduate of Ashland High school, and attended Seattle Pacific college.

Pfc. Tom L. Miller, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Miller, 3210 North Pacific highway, Medford, is visiting his parents and friends while on a 30-day leave from the marine base at Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii. Pfc. Miller enlisted in the marines in January, 1954, and has served one year overseas.

Members of Jackson county chapter 4, Chin Up club, will meet at Girls Community Club, 229 North Bartlett st., Friday at 8 p.m. All members are urged to be present since important business matters are to be discussed, according to Mrs. Gordon Bowman, president.

A beginner's class in square dancing will start Thursday, Sept. 15, at 8 p.m. at Kershaw square. The dance is sponsored by the clubs using the square and Gordon Kershaw will be the instructor. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ken Howe, 2-9603.

From Trip—Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr and son, Tommy, 14 Almond st., and Mrs. Kerr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Powell, Ashland, arrived home over the week end from a trip to coastal points including several days at Seaside. They also visited in Portland and attended the Oregon State fair Saturday at Salem.

Valley Pear Picking Switches to Anjous
Picking in Rogue valley orchards has switched almost entirely from bartlett to anjou pears this week, according to C. B. Cordy, county horticultural agent. Comice and bosc picking will follow later this month.

Cordy advised that hormone sprays can now be applied where they have not yet been applied in bosc and comice varieties to reduce pre-harvest drop.

To reduce storage rot in bosc and anjou pears, Cordy recommended spraying with ziram immediately.

Sen. Neuberger Urges GSA Office in Oregon

Portland—(U.P.)—Establishment of a district office in Portland was urged on the General Services Administration today by Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.).

Neuberger said he was not suggesting that the regional office in Seattle be moved but he said it was his understanding that "there are a substantially greater number of federal employees in Portland than in Seattle, as well as more floor space occupied by federal agencies."

Wall Street
New York—(U.P.)—Bears, with big fat losses, covered some of their commitments in key issues today and helped send industrial shares to a new record average high.

Easiness in a few rails brought the railroad average down a mite. Utilities managed to rise a few cents.

Dow-Jones Averages
Dow-Jones final stock averages: 30 industrials 480.93; 4.42; 20 rails 161.39, off 0.87; 15 utilities 66.26, up 0.13, and 65 stocks 171.66, up 0.67.

Sales today were about 2,580,000 shares compared to 2,520,000 traded yesterday.

Salem May Lose Bus Schedules

Salem—(U.P.)—Salem may lose its Sunday, night and major holiday bus schedules, heads of two lines serving the city and suburban areas told city officials today.

Carl Wendt, manager of the Salem City Transit lines, said the Sunday and night operations of his line and operation on Christmas, New Year's day, Thanksgiving, Fourth of July, and Memorial day is costing his firm $1000 a month. He said the time may not be far off when the weekday operations can longer sustain the losses of night, Sunday and holiday schedules.

R. E. Covert, manager of the West Salem Bus Co., said operation on Sunday and the major holidays does not bring in enough revenue to pay the cost of gasoline, let alone other costs including salaries for drivers.

Mayor Robert White has named a committee of aldermen and other city officials to meet with the bus firm representatives in an attempt to head off the threatened schedule cuts.

Salem Girl Killed In Auto Collision
Salem—(U.P.)—Mildred M. Messmer, who celebrated her 17th birthday Sept. 9 was fatally injured when her 1938 car and another collided at a Salem intersection last night.

Miss Messmer was to have been song queen at North Salem high school this year.

Driver of the other car, police said, was Paul Lester Tromblitz of Salem. Neither he nor his wife riding with him was injured, first aid men said.

Miss Messmer is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Messmer.

Oregon GOP Women To Attend Conclave

Portland—(U.P.)—The 503rd Air Defense group, commanded by Col. George W. Ceuleers, will be redesignated the 337th fighter group, while the twin-jet fighter squadron will become the 460th squadron.

The two units, part of the 26th Air division, were chosen to receive new designations under an Air Defense Command program to build up morale by reactivating the names of outstanding outfits.

The 337th, activated in 1942, was responsible for training personnel for combat duty in World War II. The 460th squadron compiled a heroic record in the Pacific, from Indochina to Japan.
