Vacation Ends for Students; Medford Man to Edit Paper

Numerous students have left in recent days to take up their college studies again after the summer vacation.

Jim Lattie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lattie, Phoenix road, has left for Oregon State college where he will enroll for his senior year. Young Lattie will be editor of The Barometer, OSC daily newspaper, for the fall term. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national honor society for men in journalism, and his fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Alex Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, 42 Rose avenue, left yesterday to return to Washington, D.C., after a brief visit here with his family. He planned to stop briefly in Corvallis, where he formerly attended Oregon State college before continuing east. The young man received a United States senate appointment last winter and has been employed in the senate building in the capital. Since July he has been on the staff of the senate post office. He will enroll at George Washington university this fall in the political science department.

Guests at the Hamilton home in recent days were George Burns, Huntington Park, Calif., student at Stanford university, and Miss Violet Klobas, Bend, Ore., who will return to OSC this fall for her senior year.

Four graduates of Medford Senior High school are enrolling at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., this fall. They are Miss Sandra Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard, 2451 Lyman avenue; Miss Dinah Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hutchinson, Applegate; Miss Gloria Neilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Neilson, Plaza apartments; and Miss Mary Louise Anderson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Anderson, former Medford residents.

Miss Hubbard, Miss Neilson and Miss Anderson are returning to the school, and Miss Hutchinson is enrolling in the college for the first time. Miss Hubbard left by plane from San Francisco September 13, and Miss Hutchinson motored to Portland from where she traveled by train with another group of Stephens college students.

Miss Melissa Jennings and Miss Viola Russell left yesterday for Portland where they will enroll as freshmen at Lewis and Clark college. Miss Jennings is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings, Saginaw drive, and Miss Russell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell, 204 North Ivy street. Miss Russell is entering the college on one of the Elk Lumber company's scholarships. She is a violinist.

Miss Nancy Jennings, another daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jennings, will return to Southern Oregon college this fall.

Jim Kelly and Joe Antony left Monday for Santa Clara university in California where the former is a junior and the latter a sophomore. Young Kelly, a member of the Santa Clara varsity baseball team, was pitcher for the Cheney Studs this summer. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, 906 West Fourth street, and young Antony is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Anthony, 1511 East Main street.

Miss Elizabeth Rinehart, who attended the University of Oregon last year, left Saturday for Virginia to visit her father and plans to attend school in the east this winter. Miss Rinehart's mother, Mrs. James Town, Mr. Town and their two sons, James and David, have left for Pebble Beach, Calif., where they will live for the winter. Mr. Town will be director of athletics for Robert Louis Stevenson school there, and the two boys will enroll in the school.

AAUW Members To Leave Friday For Board Session

Mrs. Emerson Anderson, president of Medford branch, American Association of University Women, and Mrs. Herbert Seitz, president last year and now a member of the state committee on social studies, will leave Medford Friday morning to attend the annual AAUW board meeting in Klamath Falls.

About 80 delegates, branch presidents and state chairmen, will attend the two-day session.

Three members of the national association board have been invited to speak: They are Mrs. C. D. Winston, Ashland, regional vice-president; Mrs. Creene A. Fariss, Portland, national status of women chairman and Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, Salem, national art committee member, Portland.

Guest speaker at a luncheon Saturday will be Mrs. Percy Collier, professor emeritus of Reed college, Portland, whose topic is "Liberal Arts, the Keystone of Our Culture."

The agenda includes action on state convention recommendations (associated membership procedure, legislative policy study, day care centers and preschool educational facilities study), formulation of administration policies and a review of the national convention.

Delegates will confer on branch contributions to the million dollar fellowship program through which funds are made available for women to continue study on the graduate level.

Mrs. Anderson called a meeting of the executive board at her home Monday evening to make plans for the annual membership tea to be held Saturday, September 24.

First Fall Meeting Held by Sorority

The first fall meeting of Alpha Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority was held September 8, at the home of the president, Mrs. Nils Edin at 1308 Stewart avenue.

Plans for the coming year were made and committees announced by the president. Guests of the evening were Mrs. Ed Somero, Mrs. Robert Vincent and Mrs. Neal Woodley.

A special work party will be held September 15 at the home of Mrs. Austin Murray, 1709 Lenora Drive. The purpose of this meeting is to complete the wardrobe for the sorority doll which will be given away at Christmas time.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Robert Hubbard.

95-Year-Old Man Feeds His 100th Grandchild

Manitowoc, Wis.—(U.P.)—John Gintner, 95, of Reedsville, Wis., had not tired of the repetition recently when he bottle-fed his 100th great-grandchild.

Two-week-old Nancy Ann Gintner snuggled in her great-grandfather's arms with no realization of the rarity of being number 100 and the added rarity of evening up the ratio—50 girls and 50 boys.

Gintner has 51 grandchildren and was the father of five daughters and four sons. All of the sons and Gintner's wife are dead.
