

School Convention Set At Church of Nazarene

All phases of Sunday school work will be given special attention at the Sunday school convention being held Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 20 and 21 at the Church of the Nazarene, First and Holly sts., under the auspices of the Rogue Valley Sunday School association.

Workshop sessions will be conducted for each department of the Sunday school by specialists in each area. Miss Lillian Swanson, of Calgary, Alberta, will be one of the leaders. She is the representative of the Scripture Press with headquarters in Chicago, Ill., and is director of the Child for Christ of Canada.

Mrs. Emma Davis, a youth consultant and the Gospel Light Press representative, also will be one of the departmental leaders at the local convention. Mrs. Davis has specialized in the junior department, junior high and young people's departments of the Sunday school.

In addition to the workshop sessions there will be talks by the Rev. Herbert Anderson on "Reaching the Parents Through Sunday School," by the Rev. Wayne Adams on "Art of Holding in Sunday School," and by the Rev. Ulpian Davis on "Art of Promoting the Sunday School," and by the Rev. Charles Losie on "Superintendents and Christian Education Workers."

Other workers will be Mrs. Dorothy Corlett, of Portland, visual aids; Mrs. Bill Green, Medford, flannelgraph; Mrs. Pearl Thompson, Ashland; the Rev. Ernest Volkman, Phoenix, teaching methods; and the Rev. James Neely, Medford, filmstrips.

The services at 7:45 p.m. will be inspirational and the public is invited. The Rev. Wilmer N. Brown will speak Tuesday and the Rev. Ulpian Davis will speak Wednesday night.

The services at 7:45 p.m. will be inspirational and the public is invited. The Rev. Wilmer N. Brown will speak Tuesday and the Rev. Ulpian Davis will speak Wednesday night.

Dr. Rudisill is eminently qualified as the leader of such an institute, church officers point out. In addition to the scholastic degrees he has earned, and his service as pastor in Chicago, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and York, Pa., he has been instructor of psychology at the universities of Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh.

His foreign studies have included work at the Sherwood Eddy seminar in London and Berlin. He is the author of "The Intimate Problems of Youth," "Christian Family Life," and "For Fathers Only."

At the institute Sunday evening in Zion Lutheran church there will be a display of books which are of value in this field and opportunity will be available for questions to Dr. Rudisill.

At that time Philip Kano, who served as interpreter for Child Evangelism missionaries in his native Japan before coming to the United States for college and Bible training, will speak to several departments of the Sunday school.

Mr. Kano plans to return to Japan to do missionary work among his own people.

At the evening services of the church Rev. and Mrs. Frank Melbourne, missionaries to the Spanish-speaking people of Arizona, will speak. They will give a message to the young people at 7 p.m. and will speak and show colored slides of their work in Spain, southern France, and in Central America.

The Rev. James W. Neely, pastor, will speak at the 11 a.m. service on the subject, "Why Prayer is Unanswered."

Nazarene Minister Will Speak Sunday At Methodist Class

The Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, will speak to an adult interest group of the First Methodist church school of Christian living Sunday, Sept. 18 at 5:30 p.m.

His talk will be the second in the current series entitled "The Church Around The Corner."

Other interest groups for all ages, pre-school through Junior high school, are scheduled for the same time, including two more for adults under the leadership of Dr. J. Thomas Dixon and the Rev. Mrs. Anne J. Gorbey.

At 6:30 p.m. a snack supper will be served by the Shipmates class and Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb will lead the family worship at 7 p.m. A sound film, "Money for the Master" will be shown following the devotional period. The Senior High Methodist Youth fellowship meets at 7 p.m.

At the Sunday services of morning worship, Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb will preach on the theme, "Possibilities in Prayer." At the 9:30 a.m. service, the Youth choir will sing an anthem. At the 11 a.m. service the Chancel choir will sing. Mrs. C. R. Adamson is director of music and Miss Sue Donna Doolen and Mrs. Richard Schuchard are organists.

Kindergarten to Open Monday at St. Peters

The St. Peter's Lutheran church kindergarten will open Monday, Sept. 19, at 9 a.m., in the church basement. The church is located at 1020 East Main st., and those who want further information may call telephone 2-4395.

The kindergarten is conducted for children who are five years old, or who will be five before Nov. 15. The classes are not only open to children of members, church officers point out, but anyone may enroll his child as long as there are vacancies.

Mrs. E. C. Tams is the teacher, and this is her fourth year at the school.

The curriculum consists of Bible stories, reading readiness, music appreciation, singing, group activities and others.

Presbyterians List Activities; Canvass Planned

Don Montieth has been appointed Canvass director for the "Every Member Canvass" of the First Presbyterian church, and George Flanagan is chairman of the budget committee. They will be in Grants Pass Sunday afternoon, with Dr. D. K. West, to go over plans for a fall campaign.

Besides supporting special missionaries in Lebanon, Korea and Iraq, the local Presbyterian church supports work in more than 30 different countries around the world. Dr. West recently concluded his fifth year of service in the Medford Presbyterian church and since his coming here a new church school edition has been built and paid for and two services Sunday mornings, both in church and church school have been started.

The membership has more than doubled and giving for benevolent causes has raised from $4,000 to more than $22,000.

Dr. West will preach at both services Sunday morning, and the choir, under the direction of Allan Lehl, will sing. Dr. Paul Calhoun and the Rev. John Reynolds will continue Churchmanship classes at 5 p.m. today.

At the evening service Dr. Calhoun's series in the Gospel of Matthew will continue for adults. Miss Deanna Bruning will conduct the discussion at the Senior High fellowship. Fireside will be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bert Elliott.

The Rev. W. N. Brown
Friends Speaker

Friends Church To Have Guest Speaker Sunday

The Rev. Wilmer N. Brown, executive director of Northwest region of the National Association of Evangelicals, will be guest speaker at the Friends church Sunday.

It will be Rally day during the Sunday school hour, and Mr. Brown will show colored pictures, "Footprints 1900 years Old," which he took on a missionary tour of Western Europe and the Holy land in 1950.

The beginner and primary departments will meet together to see a children's gospel filmstrip.

At the 11 a.m. worship hour, Mr. Brown will speak on "The Evangelical Challenge," and present the world-wide ministry of the association in foreign missions, world relief, radio and television, and other Christian causes.

Mr. Brown has served pastorates for 15 years in Oregon and Washington, is a musician, and for 14 years directed the Gospel gleemen, a male chorus of ministers.

The public is invited.

4-H Club Agents Set Meeting on Sept. 20

Eight 4-H club agents from Coos Bay, Curry, Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties will meet at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 20, in the Jackson county courthouse.

Cal Monrie, state 4-H extension agent from Oregon State college at Corvallis, will present new ideas on 4-H club programming and policies.

The meeting will adjourn about 4 p.m.

Teachers' Session Slated at Eastwood

Mrs. Carl Miller, a state director of Christian education, will be in charge of a teachers' training session set for Monday, Sept. 19, at 7:30 p.m. at Eastwood Baptist church. All YBA committee members are asked by church officers to attend.

A meeting of parents and teachers is planned for Tuesday, Sept. 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the church. Anyone interested in the church's Christian education program is invited. A filmstrip will be shown and a social hour with refreshments will be held.
