

JACKSONVILLE 'Granny Mills' Passes

Jacksonville—Funeral services were held last week for a favorite Jacksonville personality, Mrs. Phoebe Mills, more fondly known here as 'Granny Mills'. She made her home in Southern Oregon for the last 50 years until recently when she left Jacksonville to reside with her son, Frank Dowling, in Red Bluff, at whose home she died. Committal was in Siskiyou Memorial park in Medford.

Other survivors include another son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mills, The Dalles, well known former residents of Jacksonville, with whom 'Granny' made her home for years. Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Garrett, Glendale, Ore., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hazen this week.

Guthrie McClintic, whose autobiography, "Me and Kit"—referring to his wife, Katharine Cornell—will be published this fall, has started his 94th Broadway directorial assignment. He is staging a comedy by Edith Sommer, "A Roomful of Roses," which he and Stanley Gilkey are producing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson returned this week from a few days vacation trip. In Roseburg they visited two cousins, Mrs. Throneburg and Mrs. Dave Henry. They also visited several coastal cities including Coos Bay, Brookings and Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Fullerton, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Montenegro and daughter Helen, Whittier, Calif., called on Mrs. Easter Daring last week. They were all former neighbors in California several years ago. Home on leave from the Navy this week is Warren Daley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daley.

Spending a week with the E. E. Walls were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Campbell, and their son Arthur, recently released from the Army after overseas duty in Germany. They were en route home to Sherman, Tex. The Campbells were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stevens, Jacksonville. The three families had an outing at Lake of the Woods and while there also visited Mrs. Campbell's niece, Mrs. P. S. Neeley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Swing, Medford, and Mrs. Blanche Brown, Oreville, Calif., were afternoon guests at the J. B. Noble home last Sunday.

Reunited last week in Jacksonville after a 40 year separation were Lovey Galentine, 87, and his sister, Miss Ruey Galentine, 68, Topeka, Kan. The Galentines were born in Colorado and became separated 40 years ago when the family moved to Kansas. Through the efforts of the police in Topeka they located Galentine in Jacksonville and his sister arrived here last week to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Galentine on Birch lane in Jacksonville.

Charles Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch, arrived home last week after a two weeks visit with his two aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Westberg in Mulino, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Molalla, Ore. He also related an interesting story of his climbing Mt. Adams, a 12,000 foot peak in Washington, with a Portland mountain climbing group known as the Mazamas. There were in the group, including two women, and according to Welch it took approximately 18 hours to reach the top. The temperature was cold with a lot of snow on the north side, making necessary the use of ice axes and crampons on their heavy boots. After reaching the top they signed a register. He said they had a good view of the Three Sisters, mountains in Oregon, from the south side and could look down into Canada from the north side. Welch is a junior in Jacksonville High school.
