

Phil Moyer Plans Olympic Team Tryout If He Licks Casey in PAL Ruckus Here

Phil Moyer, Portland, Northwest middleweight champion, will enter the Olympic tryouts if he can take the measure of Hugh Casey this Saturday night in the Medford Police Athletic League at the senior high football stadium.

Moyer meets Casey, San Francisco, a champ in his weight in California, in the semi-wind-up of the Battle of National Champions outdoor card. Jackie Pucas, Eugene, national AAU lightweight titlist, and George Charles, San Francisco, AAU featherweight champ for the U. S., are the main events of the super program.

Pucas and Charles carry bombs in each hand but even more may be displayed by Moyer and Casey who fight in a heavier bracket. While Phil recognized in AAU circles for his smoothness, he has, in the past year, become a hard hitter with either mitt. He recently boxed in training sessions with World Champion Bobo Olson and some observers raved more about Moyer than they did the champ.

In Casey the Portlander may meet possibly the most potent hitter and most experienced scrapper he has faced in his whole career. The San Franciscan has a whole string of Golden Glove, AAU and Diamond Belt togs. His record is 52 victories, 29 by knockouts, against three defeats. Experts here still rate the tangle a toss-up.

Pucas, with a trip to Europe to begin next month, apparently doesn't want Charles to stain his record. He's confided to PAL officials that he has been training harder for this bout than he did for the trip to the national AAU finals. He indicated that he won't feel right about his trip abroad unless he can subdue the San Franciscan. Charles is fast and a clever hitter.

Other top bouts match Larry Lewis, Medford, Oregon flyweight titlist, against Paul Villalobos, San Francisco Golden Glove winner, and Denny Moyer, northwest welter trophyholder, against Al Connelly, California Golden Glove and Diamond Belt winner.

A latest addition to an already fine card will be Bert Singer, 132-pound Portlander. He meets Ramon Unive, Klamath Falls. Singer is rated one of the Cleverest battlers in the northwest in his weight but has weak spot in his inability to punch with authority. Unive, on the other hand, is a blasting hitter. The match is of the classic puncherboxer type. Medford PAL battlers slated to mix it are Loren Christean, Gene Cronin, Jimmy Evans, Rodger Haut, Dave Mansfield, Larry Nord, and Bobby Little. Their opposition will come from Portland, Klamath Falls, Roseburg and Coos Bay. Interest in the card seems to have spread to many points in the northwest. Ticket requests have come from Portland, Eugene, Springfield, Roseburg, Corvallis and Vancouver, Wash.

Tickets are on sale at Browns cafe, Lamport's Sporting Goods store, the Union and Bohemian clubs and the police station in Medford. The Pioneer club and the police station in Central Point have ducks as do Pacific Supply company at Grants Pass and Cook's Reception at Ashland.

Jim Norris Not Afraid of Probe

Washington — (U.P.) — James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing club, says he is "not afraid of any federal investigation of boxing."

"My position, and my associates' position, is any thing that would help boxing, to clear the atmosphere, is fine with us," said Norris in an interview Monday on a MBS radio program.

The National Boxing association recently adopted a resolution calling for a federal investigation of racketeering in boxing, and several congressional committees have in the past threatened such an investigation. Norris also denied that the IBC which is promoting tonight's Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore heavyweight championship, has a monopoly on championship fights.

World Hammer Record Broken by Krivonosov

London — (U.P.) — Russia's Mikhail Krivonosov broke his own world record for the hammer throw with a toss of 211 feet, 7 1/2 inches Monday during an international track meet. Nina Otkalenka of Russia set another world's record in the women's 800-meter run with a clocking of two minutes, 6.4 seconds.
