

Camp Fire Girls To Attend Church

Red, white and blue-clad Camp Fire Girls will observe the opening of their annual fall "membership march" this week end as they worship in groups or with their families at the churches of their choice.

Exercising one of the "rights" which they are stressing in their year-round activity theme, "Let Freedom Ring", the Medford membership will pay tribute to the first law of the Camp Fire Girls which is "Worship God."

Local clergymen are expected to call attention to the spiritual values basic to Camp Fire's program, and to the importance of adult leadership which is necessary to the continuation and expansion of the program.

The membership march, which began Monday, continues through November 30 under the slogan "Be friendly, make friends, join the Camp Fire Girls."

Auxiliary Plans Meeting Tonight

Shady Cove—The auxiliary to Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold a special meeting tonight to initiate members. A potluck dinner at 7 p.m. will precede the ceremonies at 8 p.m.

At the last meeting Mrs. Gene House, dinner chairman, announced that a dinner will be held each month at the VFW hall, with the first to be held Sunday, October 2. A Chinese menu will be served from 2 to 6 p.m. that day.

Mrs. Jim Cassal reported on the field day held Labor day at Camp White. Auxiliary members who attended the Sweetheart party at Camp White reported a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Frances Miller read an article on "When the Flag Should Be Displayed" and Mrs. Frank Busch read an article on legislation.

Six auxiliary members recently spent a day at the home of Mrs. House, making Christmas baskets. A donation was sent to the National home for the Christmas fund.

Mrs. Reed McKay reported that the "cherry tree" at the VFW turkey shoot had been a huge success and another was planned in connection with the auction to be held November 6.

Refreshments were served to the post and auxiliary by Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. Martin Gusland and Dell Craven.

The refreshments committee for the next meeting will be Mrs. Ivan Hale, Mrs. Jim Hopkins and Mrs. Ole Hornseth.

Baptist Women To Hold Course

A leadership training course for Baptist women will be conducted here September 27 and 28 by the Women's Baptist Mission society of the state of Oregon. The course will be for all officers and their chairman of the Women's Baptist Rogue River association, and all local officers and is to be held at Eastwood Baptist church.

Mrs. J. E. McDowell, Gresham, state president of the mission society, will take charge of the session. She will be assisted by Mrs. D. S. Marvin, Portland, vice-president and in charge of Christian training, and Mrs. Wayne Roberts, Portland, literature chairman.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. Those attending are asked to take a sack lunch for the noon meal, and dinner will be served Tuesday at 6 p.m. in the church.

Mrs. S. D. Earhart, president of Women's Rogue River association, called a special board meeting for 9 a.m. Tuesday, September 27, prior to registration at the church.

Students Enter Nursing School

Portland—Three women from Jackson county are among 25 accepted into the school of nursing at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland, according to a release from the school.

The three are Miss Alyce Atherton, daughter of Mrs. Fred Dutton, Jacksonville; Miss Gretchen Klomhaus, Rogue River, and Miss Nancy Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dale Newton, Medford.

Miss Atherton and Miss Klomhaus attended the University of Oregon in Eugene before entering nursing school, and Miss Newton was enrolled at Willamette university in Salem.

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Higinbotham, Central Point, returned Wednesday from Seattle, Wash., where they accompanied their daughter, Miss Laurel Higinbotham.

Miss Higinbotham has enrolled as a freshman in the school of nursing at Seattle Pacific college. She is a 1955 graduate of Crater high school and was active in Jackson county 4-H club dairy projects.

Pastor, Family To Be Honored In Eagle Point

Eagle Point—The Rev. Joe Munshaw, pastor of the Eagle Point Community church, and his family will be honored at a reception and noon dinner Sunday, September 25.

The event will be held at 12:30 p.m., after morning worship and will be served at the Eagle Point Grange hall. The public is invited. Table service will be required.

Editor Requests List of Groups

A list of the presidents and press correspondents for all groups in Medford and the surrounding area submitting news to The Medford Mail Tribune is desired by the women's editor.

This list is used by organizations and committees conducting civic drives, and is also valuable as a reference for newcomers. Organizations are urged to send the name of the president and press correspondent, with mailing addresses and telephone numbers, to the women's editor as soon as possible. The annual school for press correspondents will be held in the near future, and a complete list of organizations is desired by that time.

CALENDAR

Calendar notices and news for the society section of The Mail Tribune must be submitted in writing and deadline for the Sunday edition is 1 p.m. Friday. Deadline for the weekly calendar is 9 a.m. of the day of publication and for week day news is 4 p.m. the day before publication.

Most Americans Never Heard of Woman Ambassador To Switzerland

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent
New York—(U.P.)—Name the two American women ambassadors and the countries to which they are assigned.

Try this one on your friends. If you do not find that at least four out of five promptly give the name of Clare Boothe Luce and Italy, then falter and finally fail to name the second woman or nation—then we have a request.

Please write to a charming woman named Frances Willis, our ambassador to Switzerland, and tell her that among your friends her admirable career has not gone unnoticed.

Because, quite frankly, a number of people are unaware that we have a second woman ambassador. And Miss Willis is aware that this is so.

U.N. Advisor

"Do you mind that a lot of Americans never heard of you?" we asked Miss Willis the day after she arrived here to act as one of the advisors to the U.S. delegation to the U.N. Assembly.

Miss Willis smiled. She is a tall, slim woman with expressive blue eyes, slightly grey hair and a gentle sense of humor.

"Happy is the reign that has no history," she said.

Actually, of the three American women who have served as ambassadors and the three who have the longest diplomatic history, she is the only woman career diplomat ever to rise to the rank of ambassador.

"It sounds so simple it's hard to believe," Miss Willis said. "Twenty-eight years ago I was teaching government at Vassar and I decided that all I knew about government I had learned out of books. I took the examination and passed it and went into foreign service for what I thought was a short time. I just found it far too fascinating to leave."

Appointed in 1953

She was appointed ambassador to Switzerland by President Eisenhower in 1953 and moved to Berne from Helsinki, where she was the consul for two years.

"When I dress up and put on a little makeup for evening, people who have seen me only in the office sometimes don't recognize me," Miss Willis said. "I can look quite severe behind a desk."

fort was fairly unsuccessful, since her warmth and friendliness are too apparent to conceal.
