

October Campaign Plans Announced

Plans will be announced Sunday at the Medford Assembly of God Sunday school, 1108 West Main st., for the October enlargement campaign which will be carried on in cooperation with all churches of the denomination.

Goals for various departments will be given and the outline of programs will be announced. During the past year there has been nearly a 30 per cent increase in attendance in the Sunday school of the church. Officers of the school state that plans made will endeavor to maintain this growth.

In conjunction with the Sunday school program Sunday morning will be the promotion of pupils.

A staff meeting of the Sunday school will be held tonight at the church in preparation for the program.

First Christians Slate Promotions

Parents and friends of the children of the First Christian church Bible school are invited to attend the promotion exercises of the Bible school children Sunday, Sept. 25, at 9:45 a.m.

The departmental superintendents who will have charge are Mrs. William E. Roberts and Mrs. Al Hermanson, nursery; Mrs. George Bannister, kindergarten; Mrs. Howard Gault, primary; Mrs. Wayne Smith, junior; and Mrs. Claude Haggard, junior high. Mrs. Ralph Cook is the superintendent of the Bible school.

The sermon for the morning worship service will be presented by W. C. Piper on the subject, "The Still Small Voice."

Salem—(U.P.)—Gov. Paul Patterson has appointed O. H. Hinsdale of Reedsport as a member of the State Fish Commission.

New Hours Announced For Medford Center

New day time hours for the Medford Truth center, "Unity," were announced this week by Katharine Bosworth, leader. The center is located at Room 203 in the Holly theater building.

Beginning Tuesday, Sept. 27 the center will be open weekly from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily through Fridays. Meditation will be held from 12 to 12:30 p.m. and office workers are invited to take their lunches. Coffee will be served, the leader explained.

New books will be on sale and the lending library will be open.

Congregationalists To Receive Members

A reception of new members at the Congregational church, Groveland ave. and Oakwood dr. will be here Sunday morning.

After the service a coffee hour is planned in the Sunday school building in honor of the new members.

Any newcomers to the vicinity or others interested in this church are especially invited to the coffee hour.

The sermon by the Rev. Thomas McCamant at the morning service will be on the question, "What Do You Believe In?" The children's story will be on "An African Heroine."

The couples club will meet Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Smith, 710 McAndrews rd.

Reformation Day Observance Set

A "Festival of Faith" is being planned by the Medford Ministerial association to observe Reformation day in October.

Plans for the observance include a choir festival Sunday evening, Oct. 30, when Protestant church choirs will sing. On Monday evening, Oct. 31, the film, "Martin Luther," will be shown.

The committee in charge of the observance includes Dr. D. Kirkland West of the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, St. Mark's Episcopal church, and Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb, First Methodist church.

Nazarenes Plan Robe Dedication

In special services Sunday morning, the Sanctuary choir of Church of the Nazarene, Holly and First sts., will dedicate new choir robes.

The music committee and choir members, began a project last winter to purchase the new full length robes.

The processional song at 11 a.m., Sunday, will be an arrangement of "Make Me a Blessing," by Schuler.

Dean von Stein, chairman of the music committee, will make the presentation of the robes to the church as a gift from the choir. A response and dedication prayer will be offered by the pastor, the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn.

The pastor's morning sermon subject will be "Who Is a Missionary?"

Featured in the evening service will be a duet by the Rev. and Mrs. Hurn and the Sunday evening sermon "Recovery From Spiritual Blunders."

First Baptists Set Rally Day Program

An annual fall rally and promotion day will be held Sunday at First Baptist Sunday school, North Central ave. at Fifth st. Mrs. Herman Ekerson will have charge of the program to be presented by those being promoted from the beginner to the primary department.

Other parts of the program will be given by the primary department, headed by Mrs. Melvin Johnson, and the junior department, for which Mrs. Donald Zimmers is superintendent. Students who attend the high school and college age division also will be recognized.

The combined Baptist leagues will meet at 6:30 p.m. Sunday evening and will sponsor a meeting with the Rev. Hammond Major, Conservative Baptist missionary from India, as speaker. All members and friends of the church are invited.

At the 11 a.m. worship service the Rev. James Neely will speak on the subject, "God's Remedy for Prayerlessness." A program of music will be presented by the adult choir at 8 p.m. and a message will be given by the pastor.

Taste alone proves Sunnybank
naturally better!

EVEN IF YOU COULD see a difference in margarine, nothing takes the place of your sense of taste. And that's where Sunnybank comes through every time.

ALL THE GOODNESS you've ever wanted in a spread is there in Sunnybank... goodness that could come only from the wholesome ingredients that make it naturally better. Notice the difference when you use Sunnybank "in" foods as well as "on" them.

AND BECAUSE Sunnybank is fresher when you buy it, you'll find it fresher when you try it. That assures all of those special advantages at their very best... easier to spread, even on freshest bread. Flavorful and nutritious, too.

BE FAIR TO YOURSELF. Give Sunnybank your own taste test to prove that the naturally better margarine is Sunnybank!
