Kaline, Ashburn Cop Swat Championships

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer

Al Kaline, Richie Ashburn and Willie Mays won't be picking up any World Series money but they'll reap their financial rewards this winter for walking off with three of the season's top honors.

Kaline, the Detroit Tigers' brilliant 20-year-old left-fielder, won his first American League batting championship with a .340 mark while Ashburn, fleet center-fielder of the Philadelphia Phillies, topped his first National League title with a .338 average.

Mays, meanwhile, tied the New York Giants' club record of 51 homers in one season and wound up as the majors' new home-run king—also for the first time. Willie's "hot September pace" enabled him to wind up with a .319 average, 127 runs batted in and 382 total bases.

Kaline, who failed to hit in his one official at bat as the Tigers beat the Cleveland Indians, 6-2, became one of the youngest batting champions in history. He joins Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann, Charley Gehringer and George Kell as Tigers who have won batting titles and Detroit fans point hopefully to the fact that Al is the same age as Cobb was when he won his first title in 1907.

Ashburn Goes Hitless
Ashburn, who started the season with a lifetime average of .312, went hitless in seven trips as the Phillies split with the Giants. He follows Sherwood Magee, Lefty O'Doul, Chuck Klein and Harry Walker as members of the Phillies who've won the crown.

Mays, who cracked his 51st homer in the Giants' 5-2 opening victory, tied the club mark set by Johnny Mize in 1947. The Giants failed to give Leo Duracher a sweep as a "going away" present when they bowed, 3-1, in the nightcap, shortstop Ed Kazanski starting a triple play in the ninth inning to snuff out the New Yorkers' last threat.

The American League champion New York Yankees drubbed the Boston Red Sox, 9-2, in their opener but the Sox came back against a team composed mostly of rookies to win the second game, 8-1. Bob Grim received credit for the Yankees' victory while George Susce went the distance for the Red Sox.

Pierce Tosses Shutout
Southpaw Billy Pierce completed his fine season with his sixth shutout, 15th victory and lowered his earned run average

Couples Tie In Golf Mix

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Lewis and Dr. and Mrs. William Miller are scheduled to play off next Sunday for the husband and wife golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club.

They headed a field of 20 couples in the Me and Mine tourney yesterday with gross scores of 83 each.

Net honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall with a 71.

Brad Broyles was low gross Saturday with 76 in ball sweepstakes. O. A. Eden was low net with 70. Blind bogey award went to Al Hart.

Oregon State Beavers Startle Stanford 10-0

Corvallis — (U.P.) — The Oregon State Beavers were still high today on what coach Tommy Prothro called their "victory of determination" over Stanford Saturday night.

The Beavers scored a startling 10-0 victory over the solidly favored Indians and sent them scuttling back to Palo Alto to get ready for an NCAA televised game with Ohio State. Oregon State is idle next week. The Beavers meet UCLA Friday night, Oct. 3, in Los Angeles. Inspired by spirited playing from two sophomore halfbacks, the underdog Beavers kept Stanford fumbling and frustrated through the encounter.

The game's only T-D came in the second quarter when a cheering, partisan crowd of almost 25,000 saw 194-pound left halfback Joe Francis from Honolulu and 145-pound Sam Wesley of Dallas, Tex., combine on a 51-yard pass play for the score. Early in the third quarter a pass interference penalty gave Oregon State the ball on the eight yard line and Ted Plump Searle, another Honolulu sophomore, kicked a field goal from the four.

Despite the fact that Chuck Taylor's Indians outweighted and out-gained the Beavers, they not only lost five pass interceptions, but lost the ball three times on fumbles and were stopped on four drives with costly 15-yard penalties.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—NINE

Oregon State also made a great goal line stand late in the game when there was still enough time left for Stanford to win. Stanford got a first down on the Beaver two, but four thrusts into the line failed to dent the aroused OSC defense and the Beavers took over.

Oregon State came out of the game with no serious injuries. Over at Eugene, the Oregon Ducks are preparing for Saturday night's game in Portland against Washington, 30-0 conqueror of Minnesota. The Ducks absorbed a 42-15 loss last Friday night at the hands of Southern California, succumbing to too much Trojan manpower.

U.P. ELECTS SECRETARY
New York — (U.P.) — The board of directors of the United Press association today elected Robert L. Frey to be secretary of the company and secretary and director of several of its subsidiaries. Frey is executive assistant to the president of the U.P. and will continue in that post.
