Editorial Correspondence

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—The entire world is hoping and praying for President Eisenhower's prompt and complete recovery—including all the leading Democrats and Communist Russians.

It will be a different story when politics, domestic and international, enter the picture, which as Mr. Eisenhower continues to improve, will become more and more apparent.

With the World Series starting, however, even politics is adjourned for the week. In view of the records of the two teams in the closing days, it is hard to see how the Yanks can lose, but this may be the one time when the dope-bucket will be turned upside down, and not in their favor.

Speaking of sports, why doesn't some sport magazine feature Chick Evans of Chicago. He won the national amateur only a few years after Chan Egan. He is still playing golf.

Stanford may not have the best football coach in the country but it has the most unusual one. His name is "Chuck" Taylor. If he has EVER predicted his team would lose we failed to listen in.

Speaking of football the "pro" teams have a corner on the game as it SHOULD be played. And now that "old college try" spirit is not entirely absent either.

There was an accident on the Powell Street cable car line the other day—several people injured but none seriously. As usual the incident has revived the demand in some quarters that ALL cable cars here be abolished as dangerous and hopelessly out-of-date.

We have received a paid ad clipping dated September 21st in which the "Friendly Southern Pacific" boasts, quote: "Since World War II, the Southern Pacific has spent many thousands of dollars to locate or expand 141 industries in the area between Eugene and Ashland.

In The Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS: As this is written a world-famous heart specialist has just said that barring unforeseen complications President Eisenhower's prospects for recovery from his heart attack are "reasonably" good.

That, I'm sure, is at this particular moment the biggest news in the world.

It is the biggest news in the world because President Eisenhower's condition is a matter of deep PERSONAL concern to every living human being.

Why THIS universal love and respect for him? Well, why do you love and respect him?

You believe that in every important situation he will do the thing he conceives to be RIGHT and therefore best for his country and mankind.

IKE IS America's leader. America is the leader of the world at this moment in history.

EVERYWHERE people recognize that if the world is to be led out of war into peace, leadership of Ike's particular kind is essential.

People are willing to follow leaders like Ike. They are willing to follow him because they TRUST him.

LET'S INDULGE now in no political speculations. Let's leave that to the professional politicians, whose chief concern is who gets what job, who will hold the reins of power in the days and the years to come.

What those of us who are called THE PEOPLE are con-

Today and Tomorrow

By Walter Lippmann

THE PRESIDENT'S ILLNESS: The President has been stricken at a moment when he is at the height of his popularity and his power.

Walter Lippmann

We know that at the best he cannot for several months be expected to do the work of the President. We are, therefore, face to face with what has become—almost certainly through a bad precedent based on misunderstanding—a grave defect of our constitutional system.

The root of the trouble is in a grammatical ambiguity in the text of the Constitution itself. It says (Article II, Section 1, Clause 6) that "in case of . . . inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the Vice-President."

The problem is whether the Moslem husband and wives to fight out—until Mohammed Ali brought wife No. 2 to the United States and wife No. 1 followed him.

THIS ambiguity, which is due to faulty grammar, can be cured. There is very little doubt as to what the authors of the Constitution meant, and what they meant was what common sense and practical convenience now require.

There was an accident on the Powell Street cable car line the other day—several people injured but none seriously.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: Westport, Wash.—(U.P.)—A 32-foot charter boat, the Serado, exploded and burned 200 yards off Westhaven dock yesterday.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: The boat, owned by West Sport Trollers and operated by Chet Pratt of Westport, and just fished at Westhaven dock for a fishing trip.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: One of the passengers, Mrs. Dorothy Quick of Enumclaw, jumped overboard but was picked up by the Coast Guard.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: Other passengers removed from the boat by the Coast Guard were Stanley Koskivick, Tacoma; John Beard, Seattle; Albert Uhler, Auburn; Warren Beerman, Enumclaw, and Harry Quick, husband of Dorothy Quick.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: The simplest procedure, it would seem, would be for the President to call Congress in special session and to send it a message saying that for the time being he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and to ask that Congress by concurrent resolution agree that the powers and duties shall devolve temporarily on the Vice-President.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: The Vice-President, though he acts as President pro tem, would continue to be Vice-President. He would not take the Presidential oath of office, and there would be no question at all but that Mr. Eisenhower was the President of the United States.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: ALTHOUGH it is most desirable, indeed necessary, that the line of authority should be made clear, the problem posed by the President's illness remains a very serious one.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: The boy, his dog, and a five-year-old companion, Timmy Amuchastegui, had been playing along the banks of Canal "A" which flows from Upper Klamath Lake to southern Klamath county irrigation districts.

Boat Explodes, Burns Off Washington Shore: The Callahan boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Callahan, fell about eight feet into the canal. There was no barricade along the bank. Timmy notified neighbors and police were called.

Matter of Fact

ADLAI AND DICK: Washington—In Chicago at the moment, Adlai E. Stevenson and his growing group of advisers and managers are still arguing about just when he will make his announcement.

But these customary activities of an incipient candidate are now going on in a wholly new atmosphere. Long before President Eisenhower was so tragically stricken, Stevenson had made up his mind to go all-out for the Democratic nomination.

Letters to the Editor must bear the name and address of the writer although under certain circumstances the use of a pen name or initials for publication is permissible.

OLD CARS: To the Editor: As a young old timer, how many names of old make autos could be recalled?

Auburn, Brush and Bush, Carter-Car, Capps, Crow - Elkhart, Cole 30, Dort, Doble Steamer, Durant, DeFoe, Essex, Flanders, (EMF) Franklin, Dixie Flyer, Flint, Huppmobile, Jeffery, Jackson, Kissel-Car, Lozier, Mason, Matag, Marmon, Maxwell, Monitor, Moon, Moreland (J) Mitchell, Overland, Pan-American, Pierce - Arrow, Regal - Racer, Rambler, Stoddard-Dayton, Saxon, Stutz, Temple or Templar, Thomas Flyer, Stanley Steamer, Star, Sellers Car, Vellie, Winton-Six, White Steamer.

The letter "M" seems to lead the list of names with eight. Peerless was a mail-order assembly make.

Russian Ballerina To Perform in U.S.: Moscow — (U.P.) — Galina Ulanosova, Russia's most famous prima ballerina, and Soviet composer Arm Khachaturian will perform in the United States, it was disclosed today.

Carleton Smith, director of the National Arts Foundation of New York, announced the two Soviet artists had accepted his invitation to go to America.

Final arrangements for appearances have not been completed, Smith said, but he hopes Khachaturian will be able to direct the Boston Symphony Orchestra in his own compositions next spring.

While delicately maneuvering for the nomination, moreover, Nixon must also try to win over those middle-of-the-road and independent voters whose preference for Stevenson is indicated by the polls.

But the Chief Justice has removed himself from consideration in the strongest statement he was able to write. Those close to him say that his opposition to putting the Supreme Court into politics would not be overcome by a personal appeal from President Eisenhower himself.

Yet as of this writing, Nixon has got to perform two feats that will be all the more difficult because the performance must be simultaneous. First of all, he must secure the Republican nomination against angry and embittered rivals, not the least of whom are the two men, Sen. William Knowland and Gov. Goodwin Knight, who control the Republican organization in Nixon's home state of California.

It will not be hard for Nixon to get the nomination, to be sure, if President Eisenhower publicly sponsors him, as Theodore Roosevelt sponsored William Howard Taft. But if the President does not sponsor, the Vice President cannot go all-out for the nomination. As Eisenhower's highest subordinate, Nixon needs Eisenhower's approval before he can open campaign headquarters or launch into the other usual activities of overt candidates.

Was It A Ghost? GEO. N. TAYLOR: It was a wild night on the sea of Galilee. The hard-muscled fishermen who followed Jesus, strained at the oars as they bucked the blast, their little craft rising and falling with the heaving sea. Then a something, all in white comes toward them. Hear their cry — a ghost — a ghost! Now it is hid in the trough of the sea. Again it is lifted and turns toward the boat. But it is no ghost. It is Christ. Hear His greeting — "It is I; be of good cheer." He entered into the boat and at His word, the wind and the waves obeyed His will and quiet reigned.

And just as Jesus quieted the wind and the waves, so He stands to quiet your troubled heart. But down within, you must believe in Him as your Lord and Saviour. At that God gives you eternal life. "For with the heart, man believeth unto righteousness." — Romans 10:10. This message sponsored by an Oregon dairyman and family. —Adv.

Bible Films To Be Shown at Rogue River

Rogue River—A collection of Bible films will be shown at Rogue River Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, Oct. 3 through 6 at 8 p.m., daily. Each presentation will be different and the public is invited.

The films are furnished through the Laymen's Home Missionary movement with headquarters in Philadelphia, Pa. The group is nonsectarian and interdenominational. For the most part the pictures are in technicolor and the players are professional actors.

The pictures are for educational purposes and the object in presenting them is to promote home Bible study. They will be exhibited by one of the movement's traveling pastors, William Eschrich of Milwaukee, Wis.

US Troops in Austria Join Forces in Italy

Brenner Pass, Italy—(U.P.)—American occupation troops withdrew from Austria over this historic invasion route today to join allied defense forces in Italy.

The troops, removed under the Austrian independence agreement, will plug the defense line gap in northern Italy just south of this Alpine pass.

The first units of the 5,500-man U.S. force made the frontier crossing shortly after dawn. Riding in jeeps and trucks, the 200 officers and men from the first battalion of the 350th Infantry were headed for Vicenza.

They will be billeted in two camps outside the town in the northern plane of the Po river.

Body Recovered From Klamath Canal

Klamath Falls—(U.P.)—Police and sheriff's officers yesterday recovered the body of Patrick Thomas Callahan, 4, from the waters of a swift-flowing irrigation canal near Klamath Union high school.

The boy, his dog, and a five-year-old companion, Timmy Amuchastegui, had been playing along the banks of Canal "A" which flows from Upper Klamath Lake to southern Klamath county irrigation districts.
