

High Hells Dam Supporters Plan To Appeal Decision

Portland—(U.P.)—Supporters of a high Hells Canyon dam on the Snake river indicated today they would make a court appeal of a Federal Power Commission decision to grant Idaho Power Company a permit for three low-head dams on the Snake river.

The FPC yesterday denied an application for a new hearing on its decision.

Intend To Appeal

Request for a new hearing had been made by a group of organizations favoring public power development of Hells Canyon. They included the National Hells Canyon Association, eight public utility districts of Washington state and the National Rural Electric Co-operative Association.

The organizations have said they intend to appeal. They now have 60 days in which to appeal to the U.S. court of appeals.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said after the rehearing was denied that the FPC "has slammed the door on the public interest in its latest Hells Canyon decision . . ." he promised that "no effort that I can make will be spared to win Hells Canyon for the people of Oregon and the nation."

Despite the threat of litigation, Idaho Power reiterated its intention to go ahead as rapidly as possible toward construction of the first two of the dams, at Brownlee and Oxbow.

Dinner to Honor Neuberger Cancelled

La Grande—(U.P.)—A dinner scheduled last night by Union county Democrats to honor Sen. Richard L. Neuberger was cancelled because of a labor dispute at the Salsajawa hotel.

C. J. Shorb, Democratic county chairman, said farmers and small businessmen might misinterpret Neuberger's motives if he refused to cross a picket line to enter the hotel.

The Culinary Workers union had not posted pickets yesterday but Shorb said he feared they might if the Neuberger dinner were held. The banquet had been planned to precede the Neuberger-Sam Coon public power debate held in La Grande last night.

Adventure Ends For Portland Boys

Portland—(U.P.)—Two young Portland boys were found yesterday after spending more than 24 hours on an adventuresome expedition to Oregon City.

Clifford Collins, 11, and Tommy Eggleston, who said he would be five next month, were found hitchhiking along Highway 99E near Oak Grove. They had been missing since Wednesday afternoon when they got the permission of their babysitter to go to the neighborhood grocery.

Instead of going to the store, the pair headed for Oregon City. They apparently slept in a vacant house at Northeast Broadway and 14th Ave. Four-year-old Tommy said the place was "haunted."
