

Medford Couple Married Thursday In Church Service

Miss Marilyn von der Hellen became the bride of Richard Lee Wooton in a ceremony Thursday evening, September 29, at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. Robert Franz Burger read the double-ring rites at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. H. W. Irwin, 925 Newton street, and the late Hugo von der Hellen. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wooton, 1314 South Peach street.

A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony at Rogue Valley Country club with the bride's mother and stepfather as hosts. The couple left immediately for the coast for their wedding trip. They will live for the present in Medford.

Miss Barbara Niesen was the honor attendant and Derald Wooton was best man for his brother.

Mr. Irwin gave his stepdaughter in marriage. Her ballerina-length white lace dress was designed with low waistline and a full skirt. Her corsage was an orchid.

Miss Niesen wore a beige-colored dress with brown accessories, and she also had an orchid corsage.

The bride is a freshman student at Southern Oregon college and is a 1955 Medford Senior high school graduate. The bridegroom also is a Medford graduate and attended Modesto Junior college.

Two Delegates To Leave Soon For Convention

Mrs. Earl Bigalow will leave here October 3 en route to Miami, Fla., to attend the national convention of the auxiliary to the American Legion. She is chairman of the Americanism project for the auxiliary department.

From here, she will go to Portland to join other auxiliary department officers who will make the trip by special train to the convention.

Eugene Orr plans to leave here by plane Wednesday evening for Miami to attend the American Legion as both a state and a national delegate. He is a member of the national rehabilitation committee and will attend meetings October 7 through 9 concerning the work of that group, previous to the opening of the convention on October 10. He will be accompanied by Neil Allen, Grants Pass, also a state delegate, and chairman of the civilian defense committee.

Club Members Guest of Group In Klamath Falls

Fourteen members of the Medford Sojourners club traveled Wednesday to Klamath Falls to meet with club members in that city. Luncheon was served at the Willard hotel.

Lions Club To Sponsor Concert

Ashland—The Ashland Lions club through its president, William E. Stults, announced last week that the group will sponsor the appearance Sunday afternoon, October 23, of the world-famous Gen. Platoff Don Cossack chorus and dancers.

The chorus is well known here, having appeared several seasons ago on the Jackson County Civic Music concert series.

The program is being sponsored to raise funds for the Ashland Lions club's projects.

In announcing the event, the president related, "There are two major reasons for bringing this program to the Rogue valley. First, we believe that there are many patrons in southern Oregon and northern California who enjoy the finer kinds of entertainment have too few opportunities to see such events; and second, the Ashland Lions club, a group of community-spirited business and professional men, are dedicated to a service that fosters youth activities, a sight-seeing program, scholarships to Southern Oregon college, and other projects. In order to continue the kind of service that has brought our group recognition, we need funds."

Taylor's Return From Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Taylor and children, Dana and Lanny, 515 West 11th street, arrived home the end of the week from a three-week motor trip. They visited their two married daughters who live in Iowa and in Illinois they visited relatives of Mrs. Taylor.

The family traveled by the northern route going east and returned through Salt Lake City, Utah and Reno, Nev.

Deanery Dinner Set in Ashland

The Southern deanery, Oregon Episcopal churches, will meet Thursday, October 6 in the guild hall of the Ashland Trinity Episcopal church. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., and all members of St. Mark's Episcopal church are invited.

Marlene Long Becomes Bride Of Albert Puddy

The wedding September 11 of Miss Marlene Long to Albert C. Puddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vilas A. Puddy, 3612 South Pacific highway, was announced last week by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Long, 702 West Fourth street.

The bridegroom is a corporal in the Marine corps and the couple is living at 590 North Strand street, Oceanside, Calif. He is stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and is serving his second tour of duty.

The wedding was held at Stevenson, Wash., and attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Flanigan of Portland, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom. Also at the wedding was Miss Linda Prince of Medford, a niece of the bridegroom, who accompanied them north.

The bride wore a dark tweed suit and Mrs. Flanigan was dressed in a grey dressmaker suit.

Before leaving for Oceanside, the couple visited their parents here.

Eugene Woman Guest of Group: Monday Evening

Mrs. Carroll Roberts was a special guest at a social meeting of the Scottish Rite Women's club September 26 in the Masonic temple. Mrs. Roberts' husband, Dr. Carroll Roberts, was speaker for a meeting of 32nd degree Masons that evening.

Dr. Roberts holds the 32nd and KCCH degrees in the Masonic lodge, is a past grand chaplain of the grand lodge of Oregon and is pastor of First Christian church, Eugene.

Cards were enjoyed during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith, Mrs. Blanche Thaanum was welcomed as a prospective member. At the close of the social hour the women joined the Scottish Rite Masons in the dining room for refreshments.

Mrs. Ralph Lue was chairman for the event, assisted by Mrs. Edward Root, Mrs. Fred Purdin, Mrs. Harry Nordwick and Mrs. Hazel Dickson. The next meeting will be a business meeting October 10.

Council to Hold Birthday Dinner

October is birthday month for the local council of Christian Business and Professional Women, and at the Oct. 3 meeting at the Hotel Jackson at 6 p.m. the group will observe its fifth anniversary. Special speaker for the occasion will be a national worker of the organization, Miss Betty Thurman.

Delmer Smith of the Crater Museum will present the special feature of the evening with a display from his rock collection. Miss Carol Gossard will preside at the meeting.

Any women of the vicinity interested in attending the meeting may obtain reservations by telephoning Mrs. Gertrude Neff, 2-5622.
