Favorite Recipe Of First Lady Is Pumpkin Pie

Washington — (U.P.) — Pumpkin chignon pie is Mrs. Eisenhower's favorite recipe; California date nut bread is Mrs. Richard M. Nixon's.

Mrs. Eisenhower made public her pet recipe for the pie in the new "extra special" 1955 Congressional Club Cookbook out today. The wife of the vice-president chose nut bread.

The bipartisan culinary work also boasts personally handwritten favorites of almost 400 Congressional, court, and cabinet wives more concerned with cookery than politics.

Mrs. Eisenhower's recipe is the only one not personally handwritten. The printer makes photographic copies. She signed her recipe, but the ingredients and directions are written on a new White House script typewriter — less personal but in some cases more readable than some of the other famous kitchen secrets.

Here's how Mrs. Eisenhower makes her pumpkin chignon pie: Combine three beaten egg yolks; three-fourths of a cup brown sugar; 1½ cups cooked pumpkin; one-half cup milk; one-half tsp. salt; one tsp. cinnamon and one-half tsp. nutmeg. Cook in double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Soak one envelope Knox gelatin in cold water; stir into hot mixture. Chill until partly set. Beat three egg whites, and one-fourth cup granulated sugar, and beat stiff. Fold into gelatin mixture, pour into pie shell and chill until set. Garnish with whipped cream. Makes one big pie or eight individual pies.

National Day To Be Observed By Grandmothers

Rogue chapter of Grandmothers' club planned an observance of National Grandmother's day during the last meeting of the chapter, held at the home of Mrs. C. R. Alexander on Almond street. The day is set for Sunday, October 9, and the group will meet at First Methodist church to attend the 11 a.m. service.

It was announced at the meeting that the national convention would be held at Houston, Tex., October 9 to 13, with sessions in the Shamrock hotel.

The club presented a quilt made by members to Mrs. Mabel Carr for her daughter, who recently lost her home by fire. Mrs. H. G. Wilson, a state director, made the presentation.

The meeting followed dessert. A birthday cake was served in celebration of the birthday anniversaries of five members. Seven guests were present.

Gold Embroidery Now Fashionable For Date Dresses

All that glitters is not gold, for the newly shaped dance dresses glisten in embroidered corduroys, jewel-toned velvets, and lustrous cotton satins, reports the National Cotton council.

For the girl that likes to sparkle, there's no color quite like spotlight red, and no fabric quite like embroidered corduroy. Casting a spell is the one-shouldered blouse and full skirt that's covered with gold embroidery for oriental splendor.

Also in date tempo are the tailored dresses made in luxurious cottons. A shirtdress in creme corduroy glistens with gold embroidered panels and scattered paisley motifs. A long-sleeved coat dress in beige velvet features an eastern pattern in western colors.

A date-time celebrity is printed corduroy. What could be prettier than a full skirt, wide collar, and bare armed dancing dress? The velvet-like corduroy has a print of giant-size flowers in black and white.

A great piece of casting is the little theatre suit in paisley-printed velvet. One style right in the heart of fashion has a princess-line sheath with its own finger-tip jacket. Other theatre suits are fashioned in beige and black velvet or corduroy, and some are glamorized with mink collars.

Many homemakers are re-discovering the plain old bed sheet — which isn't very plain any more and which is no longer confined to the bed. Just open a double-bed size sheet, white or colored, and you will see an enormous expanse of seamless fabric that offers many decorating possibilities in draperies and other articles.

Medford Woman Home From Trip

Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer, 45 Ross court, returned home last week after a motor tour in the company of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kooke, Baltimore, Md. The three made a trip north from Medford by way of Crater lake, central Oregon, the Columbia river highway and 99 Highway through Washington, continuing to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., by way of Hood canal in western Washington.

Saturday morning the Kookes, left for California and planned to visit Yosemite and other California parks en route to Los Angeles. It was the couple's first trip west and they expressed delight over the Oregon and Washington scenery.

Gardeners Plan Morning Session

A morning workshop, scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m., will open the day's activities Thursday, October 6, for Medford Garden club. The meeting will be at the Pythian building, Fifth and Grape streets, and the topic will be "Holiday Decorations from Front to Back Door."

Two California women, Mrs. J. P. Weahunt and Mrs. J. O. Bennett, Chico, Calif., will give the demonstrations. Members are asked to take their own containers and conditioned flowers.

The afternoon session, beginning at 2 p.m., will be conducted by Mrs. C. C. Stearns, club president, and tea will be served about 4 p.m., with Mrs. E. M. Wallin as tea chairman.

Priest Speaks For Meeting of Medford Group

The Rev. Robert J. Tomisser, assistant parish priest of Sacred Heart Catholic church, spoke on "Roman Catholicism" for Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, at the last meeting.

He exhibited vestments and his chalice, explaining that each priest designs his own chalice. The one designed by the Rev. Mr. Tomisser was handmade by a German silversmith.

At a business meeting following the talk, Mrs. Lyman Smith gave a short report on a sorority council meeting recently held in Portland.

Hostesses were Mrs. Douglas Decher and Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

Students Enroll For Fall Terms

Two Medford students have returned to Washington State college, Pullman, to continue their work in the School of Veterinary Medicine there. Bill Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hess, 244 Vancouver ave., is a senior in the veterinary school and Douglas Phillips, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Phillips, Big Boulder orchard, is enrolled for his fourth year of collegiate study and his second year in the veterinary school.

The Phillips' second son, Craig, has returned to the University of Oregon for his sophomore year.

Young Hess spent the summer working in a large veterinary hospital and animal shelter in San Francisco, and young Phillips worked with his father here.

Time out for loafing—Stanley Wyllins of Korday creates corduroy jackets and pants with a wonderfully relaxed look. He styles them in wild stripes and colors. Left: Jacket has back seat pockets and tops a pair of striped "crazy pants." Right: This striped jacket boasts storage hip pockets, is worn with slim black treads.

Home Management Specialist Advises On Wallpaper Cleaning

Madison, Wis. — (U.P.) — Each of the three basic types of wallpaper for kitchen and bathroom has its own cleaning needs.

Katherine Bailey, home management specialist at the University of Wisconsin, said ordinary wallpaper cannot be washed because the colors may run when it's wet. It can be cleaned once with a damp cloth and a mild detergent. But it is better to re-paper when walls of this kind are badly soiled.

Light stains can be removed from so-called "washable" wallpaper with a sponge and clear water. But the whole wall cannot be washed. A dough cleaner can be used on the whole surface. "Scrubable" wallpaper can be washed with a mild soap and water solution because of its special finish.

Coated fabrics, resembling oil-cloth, need the least care as a wall covering, although they are more expensive.

Reservations Open For Temple Event

Reservations for a luncheon planned by Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile on Saturday, October 8, must be made no later than Wednesday, October 5, it was announced this morning. The luncheon, to be held in Medford Masonic temple at 12:30 o'clock, will honor the temple's past queens.

Reservations chairman is Mrs. Z. W. Laurine, telephone 3-2930. Zuleima patrol members are in charge of luncheon arrangements.

Fall Handbags Said Smaller Colors Are New

You'll be right this Fall if your handbag follows the dictates of Dame Fashion's long, slim and uncluttered lines.

Fall 1955 brings a new era in comfort as well as fashion as far as handbags are concerned. The deep tote bag is on the way out. You'll be able to open the top of your purse and find anything you need at a moment's notice.

Bags, keyed to the elegant look of ready-to-wear fashions, will be long or square, but always slim and sleek.

Accessories will play their strongest role in many a session, and they'll be played in the most color-conscious manner ever. Therefore, your bag will be either blended to the color of your Fall costume, or used as the main color accent note in your matching accessories. Choose your bags for daytime or evening, therefore, in the new series of brown or black leathers.

Brown leathers include coffee, toffee, briarwood, golden sable, walnut, town brown, and others in soft, luscious calf, suede, kip, kid or reptiles and grained or textured leathers. The black leathers can be found in velvety suedes and antelopes as well as a variety of crushed and grained and also the smooth aniline dyed leathers.

Other colors that will be popular as accents to the new darkened fabrics in dresses, coats and suits are the wine family—port, muscatel or burgundy; the grey family—mostly in the paler tones; the new avocado and mossy greens and wedgewood or Cezanne blue.

You'll find the new slim coats for Fall are side belted, and so is one of the important shapes for bags. The flat, squared, large bag in soft smooth leather is new looking in the way it is side belted and buckled to conform with the new fashion and to provide a flat bag shape. The satchel is a significant Fall shape but here too there are changes. Flat and slim, round and fat, or tailored in English style, you'll find there are satchels in wide assortments and sizes, padded and detailed with the finest finishing.

"Clever gal, my Carol!"

I'm tickled pink with the smart way my Carol handles her housework. Take wood floors for instance. Most gals complain about all that scrubbing and waxing. But not my Carol! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. It takes her half the time and a lot less elbow grease. And we've yet to have a guest who hasn't commented on our beautiful wood floors. My Carol and her Bruce Cleaning Wax really make easy work of a hard job. I'm mighty pleased with both of them.

P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Carol uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.
