Washington Tops Oregon; Beavers To Get Big Test

By HOWARD APPLIGATE

Portland—(U.P.)—Oregon State gets its big test Friday night against UCLA's mighty Bruins in Los Angeles, while Oregon's bruised Webfoots, 19-7 losers to Washington in Portland Saturday night, play host to still another unbeaten team, Colorado.

Oregon State was idle over the week end and Coach Tommy Prothro sat in the stands at Pullman as UCLA manhandled Washington State 55-0 without even using ace tailback Ronnie Knox. The Bruins will be prohibitive favorites to handily down OSC but the Beavers will be trying to make a good showing for Prothro against his old boss, Red Sanders.

Oregon probably will be the underdog again against a Colorado team that has blanketed Arizona 14-0 and Kansas 12-0 in its only two starts.

Fine Battle

A crowd of 29,113 in Multnomah stadium Saturday night saw Coach Len Casanova's outwitted team put up a fine battle against Washington, before losing its second game in three outings. Washington took advantage of a poor punt to drive over for a tally in the second quarter and then marched the second half kickoff back 77 yards for a 12-0 lead.

Oregon, with Dick James and Jim Shanley leading the way, then caught fire and moved to a touchdown with Jack Morris' conversion putting the Ducks within striking distance, 12-7. The TD came on a 14-yard pass from Jack Crabtree to George Slender.

But Washington picked up an Oregon fumble on the Duck 24 and drove over for the clincher. Credell Green scored twice and Jimmy Jones once for the Huskies, who now have won three straight.

Best run of the game was a 41-yard jaunt by James from his own six yard line in the second quarter. The Grants Pass kid picked up 84 yards in 11 rushing plays, tops for the game. Oregon completed 8 out of 12 passes for 115 yards but it was the running attack upon which Casanova's kids relied chiefly.

Field Goal Earns 27-26 Nod for LA

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Pittsburgh Coach Walter Kiesling today blasted the "worst officiating I have ever seen" for helping the Los Angeles Rams get a last-second 27-26 National football league victory over the Steelers.

With only one second left to play, Les Richter kicked a 33-yard field goal which gave the Rams victory yesterday and a tie for the Western division lead with Baltimore and Green Bay.

The Rams averted an upset after the Steelers overcame a 17-0 Los Angeles halftime lead. The game's wild finish left Kiesling fuming and being restrained by his assistant coaches from continuing a violent argument with the game officials.

Penalty Key Move

An official's call on a Ram pass completion and an unnecessary roughness penalty against the Steelers were factors in setting up the winning field goal and particularly ired Kiesling.

With only one minute and 15 seconds left to play, the Steelers held a 26-24 bulge, when the Rams took over on their own 30. Ron Waller took Norm Van Brocklin's pass for three yards and fumbled when he was hit, a Steeler recovered. Officials ruled, however, the ball was dead before the fumble.

"We should have been awarded the ball," Kiesling fumed. "It was either incomplete or it was on ball."

On the next play Van Brocklin hit end Bob Boyd with a short pass. Boyd raced to the Steeler 40 where he was stopped by Steeler Ritchie McCabe who had put Pittsburgh in front five minutes earlier by picking up a fumble by Corky Taylor of the Rams and racing 50 yards to a touchdown. Officials ruled McCabe was guilty of a personal foul for unnecessary roughness in stopping Boyd.

Kick From 33

The clock was stopped with only one second left and the ball placed on the 25, setting up Richter's game-winning kick from the 33.

The Rams got their 17-point halftime bulge in the second period on a one-yard plunge by Dan Towler, a 12-yard Richter field goal, and a Van Brocklin to Boyd pass which covered 74 yards just as the halftime gun was fired.

The other Ram touchdown, which gave Los Angeles a 24-19 lead after the Steelers had moved in front, came in the fourth period on a 17-yard Van Brocklin pass to Tom Fears.

Five Upsets In Week End Pro Games

Baltimore — (U.P.) — George Shaw, the bonus quarterback from Oregon, threw two touchdowns passes Saturday night as the Baltimore Colts downed the Detroit Lions 28-13 in a National Football league game.

By TIM MORIARTY

United Press Staff Writer Otto Graham, Cleveland's returning warrior, was back on the beam today and so were the defending champion Browns following another wild week end of upheavals in the National Football league.

Six games were played Saturday and Sunday, with five ending in upsets. The Browns, with Graham chucking passes in his old-time form, snapped a five-game losing streak by walloping the San Francisco Forty-Niners, 38-3, while the suddenly-angered Green Bay Packers whipped the Chicago Bears, 24-3, for their second straight upset of the new season.

Chicago Victor

In other Sunday games, the Chicago Cardinals ignored the odds as they handed the New York Giants a 28-17 pasting and the Los Angeles Rams, a 14-point favorite, needed a last-second field goal by Les Richter to defeat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 27-26.

Two Saturday night games also wound up in surprise decisions.

The Washington Redskins took over undisputed possession of first place in the Eastern division by edging the Philadelphia Eagles, 31-30, while the Baltimore Colts remained in a tie with Los Angeles and Green Bay for first place in the Western division by turning back the Detroit Lions, 28-13.

49ers Boomed, Battered in Sunday Fray

San Francisco—(U.P.)—The San Francisco Forty Niners agreed today on an obvious fact—something has got to be done to pull the team together.

The team was discouraged, to say the least, after yesterday's 38-3 loss to the Cleveland Browns. It was the worst licking the locals have ever taken in Kezar Stadium and the first time since 1950 they have failed to score a touchdown.

What made the defeat even harder to bear was that it followed last week's 24-13 loss to the Los Angeles Rams in the season opener. And in both games the hometown fans expressed their sentiments about the team with loud boos and catcalls.

Painful Sight

Strader ordered his charges to gather round him today to view movies of yesterday's loss. What they saw was painful.

Quarterback Otto Graham, aided by a hard-charging forward wall that ruined the Forty-Niner offensive and gave the defending champion Browns control of the ball scored one touchdown and set up two others with passes.

San Francisco never threatened seriously. Only in the second quarter did the Forty Niners get close enough for a field goal try. On that occasion, end Gordy Soltau made good from the 17-yard line.

Midway in the third quarter, many of the 46,150 fans began chanting, "We want Shaw"—meaning Buck Shaw, the coach fired by the Forty Niner owners last year because he failed to win a National Football League pennant.

C of I Coyotes

Down Linfield

By UNITED PRESS

Sparked by big Gary Collins, the College of Idaho Coyotes swarmed over Linfield 19-7 for a Northwest conference win in Caldwell, Ida., Saturday night.

In Walla Walla, Whitman defeated Pacific university 13-12 in a Northwest conference opener for both teams.

In a non-league game, powerful Lewis and Clark scored in every quarter to roll over Central Washington 41-13.

In the Oregon Collegiate conference, the underrated Red Raiders of Southern Oregon hustled to a 20-6 football victory over Portland State college in Portland.

New coach Archie Dunsmoor guided Eastern Oregon in a 27-6 triumph over Oregon Tech in another OCC encounter in Klamath Falls. It was the first victory over Oregon Tech for the Mountaineers in seven years.

Darkhorse Max Evans

Wins Rotary Tourney

Huntington, N. Y. — (U.P.) — A near-record finish with a three-under-par 67 gave tournament darkhorse Max Evans of Utica, Mich., a $2,400 first prize—the largest he's ever won—in the Long Island Rotary Clubs' open golf tournament.

Evans, missing the Huntington Crescent Country club course mark by just one stroke, finished the $15,000 invitation tournament Sunday with a 72-hole score of 273, three strokes better than second-placers Tommy Bolt of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill.

Bolt also shot a 67 on the final round.

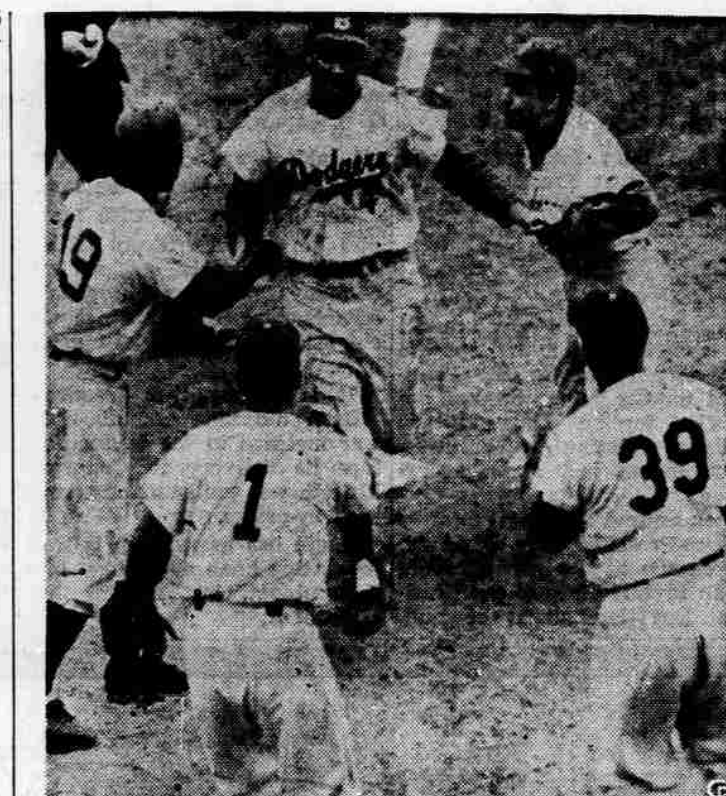

World Goose-Calling

WELCOMING COMMITTEE of teammates and batboy greets Dodger's Duke Snider as he crosses plate with fifth inning homer in fourth game of World Series. Snider's blow helped Brooklyn even series with 8-5 victory. (International)

Snider Proud Of Second Roundtripper

(Editor's note: Duke Snider smashed two homers and a double to lead the Dodgers to a 5-3 victory over the Yankees Sunday as Brooklyn went ahead in the World Series, three games to two. His two homers gave him a total of nine in World Series play and he now ranks behind only Babe Ruth, who hit 15, and Lou Gehrig, who hit 10, in World Series competition. In the following dispatch, he tells how he did it.)

By DUKE SNIDER

As Told To The United Press

Brooklyn — (U.P.) — The first homer I hit Sunday made me feel good but the second one made me feel the proudest guy in the world.

Before I came to the ballpark someone said to me I had a chance of tying Joe DiMaggio's performance of eight home runs in World Series play.

Ever since I was a kid, Joe has always been an inspiration to me. Oh, I never got a chance to talk to him very much. We just said hello once or twice, I think. But I always considered him one of the greatest ball players ever to put on a uniform.

A Great Thrill

So you can get some idea of how I felt when I hit my second homer of the game off Bob Grim in the fifth inning and passed DiMaggio's record. You bet I knew it, and it'll go down as one of the greatest thrills I ever had in my life.

Maybe, if I play in another series or two I might catch up with Lou Gehrig's record of 10 homers but I don't think I'll ever get close to Babe Ruth's record of 15. That would really take some doing.

Don't let any one tell you that fellow Grim doesn't have good stuff. He threw me one helluva pitch when I hit that second homer in the fifth inning. It was as good a curve ball as I've ever seen and I was lucky to hit it.

The homer I hit in the third inning was off a curve ball, also. He threw me one of those curves high. The other low.

Big Job To Do

Everybody is asking me how come I've suddenly broken out in a rash of four homers during the series when the last homer I hit during the regular season was on Labor Day. All I can say is that I wasn't really shooting for homers after we clinched the pennant but when the series came along, I realized there was a big job to do.

And I'm confident, like all the rest of the fellows on this club, that we're going all the way this time.

Willie Pastrano Faces

Paddy Young Tonight

New York—(U.P.)—Fleet local light heavyweight Willie Pastrano, undefeated since late 1953 and recently pushed to No. 3 ranking, enters the ring against slugger-type Paddy Young, ranked No. 5, tonight in a scheduled 10-rounder at Municipal auditorium.

Odds makers were calling the bout close to even in what could be a fast-action match against the flickering footwork of Pastrano and the brawling action employed by the New Yorker.

Connie Mack Injures Hip

Philadelphia—(U.P.)—Dr. Illarion I. Gopadze planned to examine the fractured right hip of Connie Mack, 92-year-old former owner and manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, today to decide whether an operation or "something more conservative" would be necessary to mend the injury.

Attendants at Presbyterian Hospital said Mack, who was injured Saturday afternoon in a fall at his Germantown apartment, rested "comfortably" during the night.

Mack, who fell while getting out of bed after his usual afternoon nap, was taken to Chestnut Hill Hospital where X-rays disclosed the fracture. He was removed to Presbyterian Hospital where Dr. Gopadze, the Mack family doctor, is staff physician.

Clemson, Georgia Cool

Off After Big Brawl

Clemson, S. C. — (U.P.) — Clemson and University of Georgia alumni tempers cooled off today following a brawl involving some 1,000 fans, players, and coaches which erupted on the sidelines toward the end of their Saturday football game.

The fistfuffs were touched off just before the final whistle in a 26-7 Clemson victory, the first time a Tiger team had come out on top against a Bulldog team since 1914.

Neither school made any immediate indication that official action would be taken on the brief riot which a quick-thinking bandmaster from Clemson brought to an end by playing the national anthem.

Trabert Talks

Over Pro Offer

Berkeley, Calif. — (U.P.) — Tony Trabert, claiming he is undecided about becoming a tennis pro, headed for Los Angeles today with his father and brother to talk business with Jack Kramer.

Trabert won't divulge how much Kramer has offered to join his troupe but said he is asking for "more than any other tennis pro has received." Presumably this would top the $75,000 which Kramer paid Frank Sedgman to secure the Aussie's services.

Wins Tournament

Trabert won his 19th tournament of the year in 23 starts yesterday by downing Seixas for the third straight time for the coast crown, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 7-5.

The women's title went to Miss Angela Mortimer of England who downed Shirley Bloomer, her British Wightman Cup teammate, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.

St. Mary's Defeats GP Reserves 26 to 18

St. Mary's high play for keeps football aggregation got a three touchdown jump then fought wearily but doggedly determined to outlast the bigger, heavier Grants Pass varsity reserves 26 to 18 Saturday night on the Medford stadium grass.

Rival of the Crusaders was the Caveman varsity less 13 of its top players. A good number of the visiting contingent had seen varsity action this year for Grants Pass.

The Medford parochial school utilized surprise, a break, the running of Laval Meunier and the passing and running of big Jim Jones to pile up a 20 to 0 lead by halftime. In the second half Grants Pass, better organized, smoother and keyed up fiercely used its battering power, a couple of breaks and a few passes to get three TD's of its own.

St. Mary's struck through the air with suddenness its second time during the game to get a lone second half touchdown.

Opportunities Quashed

Two big breaks, a recovered kick-off and a fumble recovery gave Grants Pass scoring chances in the final quarter but sheer grit on the part of the Crusaders quashed one threat and a pass interception stopped the other.

The Crusaders got touchdowns the first two times they went on the offensive. They went 80 yards in nine plays for the first one. Biggest gain was a 44-yard scoot around left end by speedster Meunier and he went the last eight yards around end also for the TD. Jones' conversion run failed.

Near the end of the first quarter, St. Mary's took the ball on the GP 45 when a Caveman fourth down gamble fizzled. Jim Jones passed to Laval Meunier who was all by himself on the west sideline and the scabback ran about 20 yards to the goal.

Grants Pass charged that the play was an illegal sleeper but officials Clarence Melbye, Leonard Warren and Lee Meyers whistled no violation. Another Jones pass to Meunier was good for the extra point. Tally was 13 to 0.

St. Mary's got its third TD early in the second quarter when Meunier scooped up Bill Curnow's fumble and ran 42 yards to the end zone. Jones passed to Carey for the bonus.

Horn Ends Drive

The teams fought evenly until near the end of the half. Then GP drove from its 25 to the SM seven. Two plays later Curnow went four yards to score. His conversion run was no good. The count narrowed to 20 to 12.

SM took the kick-off and moved from its 32 to the GP 47. Two plays lost to the Crusader 48. Then St. Mary's repeated its pass strategy that got a first half TD. On the first play of the fourth quarter Jones threw to Meunier on the 30 and the half-back went the distance unmolested. Meunier's conversion run failed and the score was 26 to 12.

Grants Pass came back with a 78-yard march in seven plays. A 25-yard heave, Taylor to Gary Tompkins, and a 10-yarder, Taylor to McIntyre, helped. Curnow broke loose for the last 22 yards. Stan Lewman's sneak try for the extra didn't make it and the touchdowning was over for the night.

McIntyre booted an onside kick-off and recovered the ball himself on the SM 42½ for a big Caveman chance. GP got to the 20 with fourth down and two to go but Alson Geren and Meunier threw Harlan Hudson back to the 22 where the Crusaders took over.

Meunier broke loose to the 42 but Carey fumbled on the next play and Don McCoy recovered on the SM 28. Hudson drove to the 23. Taylor passed but it was intercepted by Meunier who ran from the 10 to the 45. St. Mary's snapped to Carey in three plays and ran out the clock from there.

Pittsburgh May Have Navy Goat

Annapolis, Md. — (U.P.) — The University of Pittsburgh may have the Navy's goat.

Billy the 14th, the naval academy's mascot, was kidnapped again yesterday by abductors who made their getaway in a Model-T Ford.

Billy has been "goatnaped" several times. Last spring he was seized by Johns Hopkins University students prior to a La Crosse game with Navy.

Police in Pittsburgh have been alerted to watch for Billy because the Naval Academy plays the University of Pittsburgh pranks in Baltimore. Student pranksters at Pitt are suspected of the "crime."
