News About Servicemen

TRANSFERRED

News has been received here that William Roger Bradley, who has been serving with the Navy on the USS Hamul has been transferred to the Navy electronics school at San Diego. While in school there he will study gyro compasses, synchros and Navy amplifiers. Upon completion in January, Bradley is to fly back to his ship which will be at Yokosuka, Japan. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stevens, 3872 South Pacific highway. The USS Hamul is a repair ship with the third division and spends seven months of the year in ports of Japan, and at Hongkong, China and Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. Bradley entered the service in Aug. 1954.

Crawfords Reveal Sale of Interest In Mann's Store

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Crawford have announced the recent sale of their interest in Mann's Department store to John P. Moffat, manager of the store and president of the corporation which owns the establishment.

Mrs. Crawford is the former Janet Mann, daughter of the late John C. Mann who came to Medford in 1910 and started the store the same year. She was born and raised in Medford, and married Crawford in 1943, while he was in the Army.

Crawford returned to Medford from service in the European theater of war in 1945, and became the manager of the men's department of the store, a post he held until recently. He served as vice-president of the corporation from the time of its formation in 1950 until December, 1954. The Crawfords had a substantial minority interest in the firm.

Mr. Mann's other daughter, Margaret Mary (Mrs. C. R.) Holmgren, Tulsa, Okla., retains her interest in the company.

The Crawfords plan to remain in Medford.

Dash Into Street Fatal To Young Girl

Nampa, Ida.—(U.P.)—An eight-year-old Nampa girl was killed this morning when she reportedly ran in the path of a truck hauling corn into the city.

Acting Canyon County Coroner H. E. Bradley said the girl was Connie Lane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis N. Lane, who live about a mile outside the city limits.

Bradley said the youngster apparently was running to catch a school bus when she dashed across the road and was hit by the truck.

Wall Street

New York—(U.P.)—Stocks ran into profit taking in the late trading today after a substantial recovery in all departments of the list.

The late selling brought General Motors old stock down to a small net loss from an early rise of 1½ points. Du Pont touched 218½, up two, and closed at 215½. New York Central held 1½ or a 2½ point rise.

Portland Livestock

Portland—(U.P.)—Cattle 300. Choice fed steers about $23.50; good steers about $21; light utility steers down to $11; canner-cutter cows mostly $6.50-8; few $8.25; utility cows $2.50-11; few mixed utility-commercial grades 12; cutter-utility bulls $11-14.50.

Deer, Deer Everywhere But They Weren't Hunting

La Grande—(U.P.)—Unlike thousands of others in Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Tschopp, of Milwaukie, Ore., weren't even looking for a deer yesterday.

While driving east on the Elgin-Weston highway, Tschopp said, a whole herd of the beasts stepped into the highway in front of his car. He swerved to miss them and collided with a gasoline tank truck.

The Tschopps were treated in Elgin for cuts and bruises. The deer escaped without injury.

Habeas Corpus Writ Dismissal Affirmed

Salem—(U.P.)—Dismissal by the trial court of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus by Bernard L. Alexander, Oregon state penitentiary inmate, was affirmed today by the Oregon Supreme Court.

Alexander was indicted in Jefferson county for burglary and was arraigned and pleaded innocent.

He was confined in jail at Bend in Deschutes county and while there appeared with his attorney before Judge Ralph S. Hamilton and requested permission to change his plea to guilty and for immediate sentence. He was sentenced to a term of five years.

In answer to Alexander's contention that the sentence was unconstitutional and void because imposed in another county, the high court in an opinion by Justice James T. Brand said that, in view of Alexander's express request and waiver, no constitutional right was violated.

Slip of Tongue Aids Quiz Winner

New York—(U.P.)—A slip of a tongue could be credited today with boosting a roly-poly Irishman up the ladder on TV's "The $64,000 Question."

Patrick Keough, 62, plant manager from St. Louis, faltered momentarily last night on a baseball question worth $16,000 on the giant CBS giveaway show. But he was able to provide the answer after Lemce Hal March inadvertently let part of the answer slip out.

Another contestant, Don E. Self, El Paso, Tex., successfully went through a series of queries in the category "Mythology" to run his winnings to $8,000.

Godfrey Settles Plane Incident

Washington—(U.P.)—Television star Arthur Godfrey made a $500 civil compromise settlement with the Civil Aeronautics Administration today in connection with a plane incident in Chicago Sept. 7. But he emphasized the payment "is not to be construed as an admission of guilt."

Californians Buy East Evans Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Wade and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spencer, all formerly of Sacramento, Calif., have purchased the Newton Bros. Cattle ranch near Wimer in the east Evans Creek area. The ranch formerly was known as the "old" Williams Bros. ranch.

The sale was transacted through the Medford office of the Southern Oregon Land company by Gib Barbee and Ken Callison, who stated that this is one of the largest property sales in this area during the year.

No Change Planned For GOP Convention

Washington—(U.P.)—Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said flatly and emphatically today the GOP nominating convention will be held, as planned, in San Francisco starting Aug. 20.

Hall announced at a news conference that he had signed today a final contract with San Francisco's Cow Palace, where he predicted "we are going to nominate the next president of the United States." He said the contract contains no escape clause.

Hall also told newsmen: 1. His choice for the GOP ticket still is President Eisenhower and Vice-President Richard M. Nixon. He declined to speculate on an alternative ticket in event Mr. Eisenhower does not run.

2. Recent declines in the stock market, paralleling the announcement of Mr. Eisenhower's heart attack and, later, that he was not feeling so well, indicate that "there is great faith in President Eisenhower." Beyond that, he was not prepared to discuss the stock market reactions to the President's illness.

216th Polio Case Reported in Idaho

Boise—(U.P.)—The Idaho Division of Public Health today reported the 216th polio case of the year and the fourth this month—that of a 35-year-old woman in Coeur d'Alene.

Two new cases were reported yesterday afternoon. They were a 44-year-old man in Latah county and a 23-year-old woman in Twin Falls.

Club members and guests will assemble at the D. W. Mongold ranch near Eagle Point for a noon potluck luncheon to be followed by a business session and program. Those who plan to attend should take table service.

Dietrich Disappoints Throng at Las Vegas

Las Vegas—(U.P.)—Marlene Dietrich strutted down a burlesque-type runway for her $25,000 a week nightclub show last night, but clothed from neck to toe in a masculine outfit that hid her famous figure.

The 50-year-old grandmother had promised in advance that she would leave the stage of the Sahara hotel in this gambling capital to give the customers a better look at the usually near-nude Marlene.

But, true to the showmanship that has made her a top headliner here, she pulled a surprise and underplayed it.

For most of her show she appeared in a $8000 gown of nude-colored transparent fabric embroidered with white feathers on one side. The other side had but one bead to keep the censors away.
