

Tournament Proposed For Heavyweight Boxers

Milwaukee, Wis.—(U.P.)—Fred Saddy, head of the National Boxing Association Rating committee today suggested an elimination tournament between Hurricane Jackson, Nino Valdez and Bob Baker, with the winner to fight Rocky Marciano for the world heavyweight championship.

"Marciano has punched his way out of good opponents," Saddy said. He recommended the tournament as the best way to select a contender. He made the suggestion in the NBA quarterly ratings.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

Sport Parade By OSCAR FRALEY United Press Sports Writer

New York—(U.P.)—Fraleys' Folies and the week-end football "winners"—looking for a load of upsets on the theory that if the Dodgers can win anything can happen.

The Upsets
Army over Michigan—The Cadets haven't been tested yet and this is a rough Michigan team. But if Army can handle the pass receivers—a big "if"—the West Point line can make a winning difference.

SF Seal Club Has Trouble At Stadium

San Francisco—(U.P.)—Damon Miller, president of the San Francisco Seals, said today the club may have to move down to the peninsula yet because of its troubles at Seals Stadium. Miller was checked on two fronts yesterday in his efforts to keep the club in San Francisco and in sound financial condition.

First, the finance committee of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors turned down a proposal to buy the stadium from Paul I. Fagan and rent it to the local club on a sliding scale based on attendance.

Repair and Repaint
Second, Fagan demanded that the Pacific Coast League repair and repaint the stadium—or else. The PCL holds a lease on the stadium and sublets it in turn to the Seals.

In a letter to the PCL, Fagan demanded that all the seats be repaired and repainted, that the light towers be repainted, that the gates on the Bryant Street side be repainted and that the inside offices be redone.

If his demands are not met by Jan. 1, Fagan said he will consider the lease canceled.

H. Morris of Linfield One of Top Linebackers In Northwest Circuit

Linfield College, McMinnville, Oregon (special) A winless band of Linfield Wildcats will be out to pull an upset out of the bag this Saturday afternoon when they take on the rough Lewis and Clark Pioneers in their second Northwest Conference game of the season.

Although the Wildcats have dropped successive games to Southern Oregon, Portland State and College of Idaho, the frosh-sprinkled lineup has been improving with each game and could give the Pioneers a real run for their money. No injuries were sustained against College of Idaho Saturday night that will keep men out of action this week, and the "Cats" hope to be at full strength for the Lewis and Clark outfit.

Several of the Wildcat veterans have been playing very good ball this season and if some of the frosh come through Saturday they could pull an upset out of the hat. Included among these veterans are guard Howard Morris and end Howard Glenn, both practically 60 minute ball players this season.

Morris, a soph letterman from Crater high (Central Point), is at 5-9 and 180 pounds one of the best linebackers in the league, and a real hustler on offense. With the much injured Vic Fox at the other guard and backing up the line, the Wildcats have a strong duo there to face the rugged Lewis and Clark line.

Debut Made By Rigney

New York—(U.P.)—Skinny Billy Rigney makes his official debut as manager of the New York Giants today but last year's world champions already have started their rebuilding program.

They began by calling up seven players from their farm system, including the "most valuable player" in the Texas league—and by trading Rance Pless, "most valuable player," to the American association, to the Kansas City As for first baseman Don Bollweg and $35,000.

Rigney, who managed Minneapolis to the Little World series championship, was expected to announce the names of his coaches late today. Reportedly, Ray Mueller, former major-league catcher who was a coach under Rigney at Minneapolis, has an inside track for one of these jobs.

Four Catchers
The big batch of players called up by the Giants included four catchers. One of the backstops is Ray Murray, 35-year-old former major leaguer who was named the "most valuable player" in the Texas league.

The other catchers are Leonard Jackson of Dallas, Wilburn Jenkins from Sioux City, and Bob Schmidt from Danville. Others called up were shortstop Eddie Brossoud of Minneapolis, pitcher Dom Zanni from Sioux City, and former Giant outfielder George Wilson from Minneapolis.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Dodgers, Yanks Both Plan Changes For Next Season

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer
New York—(U.P.)—Those delirious World Champion Brooklyn Dodgers and the disappointed New York Yankees both indicated today they will make player changes before the start of next season.

But there's this difference—the Dodgers will stick to their farm system for 1956 reinforcements; the Yankees will go to the trading market, as well as the farms.

In refusing to "stand pat" on the lineups that played in the recent World Series, both teams took warnings from the 1955 fate of the New York Giants. The Giants team that won the World Championship last year, and this season they tumbled all the way to third place in the National league, 18½ games behind.

Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was scheduled to confer with club officials today and he said the subject would probably be "farm system players we'll take to spring training with us next year."

Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees, who is pressed for time because the Yankees are leaving Saturday morning for their tour of Japan, also had meetings planned today because there "are things we gotta do that I want to get started on."

Alston indicated that relief pitching will be something the Dodgers will try to build up during the winter, although Dodger relief hurlers did very well against the Yankees in the series.

Stengel indicated a strong belief the Yankees may have to make player deals during the winter to repeat as American League pennant winners. He pointed out that "we just skinned in this time," and looked for stronger challenges next year from the Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers.

The Yankee skipper, like Alston, spoke first of relief pitching when 1956 plans came up and admitted, "we'd be willing to trade for help there."

Chavez Victor Over Flanagan

Richmond, Calif.—(U.P.)—Sid Flaherty cast his chilly blue eyes over the lukewarm light-weight scene today in search of another opponent for Eddie Chavez, who has proven conclusively that a boxer can beat a wrestler anytime.

"We'll try and match Eddie with some top-ranked fighter," Flaherty said last night after his Mexican charge scored a unanimous decision over clutching Glen Flanagan in a sloppy, nationally-televised 10-round contest.

KUSAVA TRADED
Philadelphia—(U.P.)—The Philadelphia Phillies announced today the sale of southpaw pitcher Bob Kusava to the Columbus Jets of the International League and the outright release of utility man Peanuts Lowrey and first baseman Eddie Waitkus.

Alston indicated that relief pitching will be something the Dodgers will try to build up during the winter, although Dodger relief hurlers did very well against the Yankees in the series.

Stengel indicated a strong belief the Yankees may have to make player deals during the winter to repeat as American League pennant winners. He pointed out that "we just skinned in this time," and looked for stronger challenges next year from the Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers.

Central Pointers Play At Ashland Tonight

Central Point junior high plays at Ashland tonight, not at Talent, school officials said today. A story yesterday listed Talent as the foe. Game time is 7 p.m. In a schedule reversal because of current lighting trouble at Central Point, Ashland will play on the Pointers field on October 20.
