

ARTHUR LEE SIMPKINS
To Aid UMC Drive

Arthur Simpkins Slated to Appear In Local Program

Arthur Lee Simpkins, nationally noted young tenor, will appear at the Medford high school auditorium Monday, Oct. 17, in a program that will benefit the United Medford Crusade. The program will start at 8 p.m.

His appearance will be sponsored by the Crater Lions club, through the courtesy of Rogue Valley Country club.

Also on the program, to be entitled "Evening of Songs," will be Chop Chop and Charlene, presenting "Oriental Magic," and Maury Ellenhorn at the piano.

Tickets are on sale at Barker's Men's store, Main st. and Central ave.

Simpkins has appeared at night clubs and theaters throughout the United States, and at the Palladium theater in London. Fluent in six languages, including Italian, French, Spanish and Hebrew, he has a thorough knowledge of both popular and operatic music.

Switzerland Villa Prepared for Peron

Lausanne, Switzerland—(UPI) Banking circles said today a 20-room lakeside villa was being prepared for ousted Argentine President Juan D. Peron if he decides to come to Switzerland.

The villa, surrounded by a large garden and near a private airfield, was bought last July by an Argentine businessman for $187,000.

Banking circles said Peron had been transferring funds to Switzerland since 1947 and should Switzerland refuse him asylum, friends would be ready to receive him in Germany or Italy.

HEAVY CHICAGO

Chicago—(UPI)—The new edition of the Chicago Street Address Directory contains 1,696 pages and weighs eight pounds. It lists more than one million city residents and businesses by their street addresses. The occupants of the Merchandise Mart take up the most space for one address, two and one-half pages.
