Dedication Rites Will Open Program

One hundred teachers will be dedicated to the task of Christian education in the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

The annual service is the beginning of the fall church school program in the church. Dr. D. K. West, pastor, and Mrs. J. K. Hoey, church school superintendent, will conduct the dedication ceremony. The Presbyterian church school has tripled its attendance in the last five years and two complete Sunday schools now are operating, one at 9:45 and the other at 11 a.m.

Dr. West will talk on the theme, "Let the Church Speak." At the 11 o'clock service the Sacrament of Infant Baptism will be conducted.

Music will include songs by the Westminster and Chancel choirs under the direction of Allen Lehl. Soloist will be Robert Wright.

The Rev. Ernest Volkman of Phoenix will speak at the evening service on the theme, "What the Bible Says to You." Senior High fellowship members will conduct their own discussion.

Gold Hill Church Members To Hear District Officer

Gold Hill—The Rev. Meredith Groves, district superintendent for the Methodist church with headquarters at Eugene, will speak Sunday at the Gold Hill Community Methodist church. A communion service will be conducted.

The senior Methodist Youth fellowship group selected car washing as a project for the year during a meeting last Sunday. Fred Bowen led a discussion on primitive relations and Grace Gail conducted the business meeting. Sandra Densmore had charge of the recreation period.

The Junior MYF will provide nursery care at the church for mothers who wish to attend church services. This will be their project for the year. Terry Turner and Doris Golden will be in charge of the nursery next Sunday.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith is the new adult counselor for the year.

The Girls choir will meet for rehearsals on Wednesday at 4:30 p.m., under the direction of Mrs. Normal Gail.

Mrs. Ed Bolt is substituting as accompanist during the absence of Nadra Moore.

All girls interested in singing from the sixth grade through high school are invited. The girls choir furnishes songs each Sunday at the church.

First Presbyterian church
Jacksonville. The Rev. Norman K. Tully, pastor. Church school, 10 a.m. followed by public worship, 11:15 a.m. Sermon, "The Model Prayer." Tuesday, noon, Women's society at the church. Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. annual meeting of officers, with representatives of church organizations, to construct church budget for 1956. Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., second session, fall school of missions. Subject, "Hungers of Body, Mind, and Soul."

DR. R. E. MILAM
Baptist Officer

Baptist Officer To Speak Sunday

Dr. R. E. Milam, state executive secretary of the Baptist general convention of Oregon and Washington, will be guest speaker of the Temple Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane, Sunday at the regular worship services at 11 a.m.

He will be guest speaker at the Bethel Baptist church, 11 Newton st., in the evening worship at 7:30 p.m.

From Europe

Dr. Melam has returned just recently from a tour of Europe, where he attended the Baptist world alliance in London, England. He is considered an outstanding preacher and is the author of several theological books.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Milam at both services. He will preach the morning message, telling of the Southern Baptist work in Oregon and Washington and tell of his recent trip.

Pilgrim Holiness Church Rally Set

Central Point — Miss Verna Cingcade, religious educational teacher in the public grade schools in Medford and Central Point, will demonstrate Bible stories by flannelgraph pictures Sunday at Pilgrim Holiness church, Pine at Sixth sts. This will be a part of a rally day program which will be conducted during the Sunday school hour beginning at 9:45 a.m.

Promotional exercise also will be given.

A Bible will be awarded to the individual who takes the greatest number of persons to Sunday school and all who attend will receive a small gift.

OBSERVANCE

Young people of the Forest Acres Community church, Table Rock rd., will present skits during a rally day Sunday in observance of the first six months of services at the new church. The pastor, the Rev. Ernest F. Post, will speak and the public is invited.

It is now legal to sell gold in its "natural state" on the domestic market, without a license, at any price obtainable.

St. Mark's Church Schedules Classes

Classes of instruction in religion and the basic tenets of the Christian faith especially designed for adults, will open at St. Mark's Episcopal church Sunday at 9:30 a.m., and will continue for 10 weeks.

The classes, which will be conducted by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector, will be open to all who care to attend and will involve no commitment to further association with the church.

Subjects to be covered will include church history, church teaching and worship, the Christian sacraments, the Bible, the book of common prayer, the organization and discipline of the church, the meaning and purpose of confirmation, and will conclude with several classes on the subject of Personal Religion.

Questions will be discussed at all sessions.

Medford Assembly Activities Listed

The entire teaching staff of the Medford Assembly of God Sunday school, 1108 West Main st., will be introduced to the Sunday school at the opening program Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

This will be the second Sunday in the current enlargement program for the school.

At the worship service at 11 a.m. the pastor will speak on the topic, "The Victory Side." A children's church service will be held in the church annex auditorium at the same hour for children 5 to 11. Miss Fern Bush and Mrs. Leora Nylander direct the children's church.

An informal adult Bible study group will meet at 6 p.m. at the church.

THE REV. P. J. BARTRAM
To Be Honored

Former Minister Will Be Honored

The Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Bartram will be in Medford Sunday, Oct. 9, for home-coming rally services at the First Church of the Nazarene, Holly and First sts.

From 1947 to 1951, the Rev. Mr. Bartram was pastor of the Medford congregation. He is at present pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Spokane, Wash.

Observances have been planned by the congregation to honor the former pastor.

The Rev. Bartram will speak in the worship service at 11 a.m., and again at the service at 7:30 p.m. This is the first return trip the Bartrams have made back to Medford.

We Believe . . . .
IN GOD! We believe He is just as the Bible says! We believe in all His eternal glory, might and majesty. "From everlasting to everlasting thou art God." In common with all true Christians, we believe in His triune nature—One God eternally existing in three Persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe "THE FATHER sent the Son to be the Savior of the world." We believe THE SON "came to seek and to save that which is lost," and to do so "bore our sins in His own body on the tree (Cross)." We believe that after His resurrection and ascention to Heaven Christ sent forth THE HOLY SPIRIT to "reprove the world of sin, righteousness and judgment" in seeking to turn the hearts of men from sin and its terrible consequences to God and His gracious salvation. We believe God is at once a God of immeasurable love and strictest justice. His justice causes Him to condemn eternally the unrepentant sinner. His love caused Him to provide the redemption with eternal salvation every repentant sinner may receive in Jesus Christ. We believe in God, the God of the Bible.

The above is the first in a series of brief Bible studies setting forth the position of Medford Community Church as an undenominational Bible believing and teaching Christian fellowship. If you are not now attending a Bible believing and teaching church, we cordially invite you to our services. (See church announcement columns).

Rosalind Russell, star of "Wonderful Town," with her son, Lance

"Ever stood next to your youngster in church?

If you have,
then surely you've felt that surge of warm feeling spread over you . . . as I have.

"Maybe it's his wide-eyed, absorbed expression . . . perhaps it's the happy feeling I get just at being in church with Lance and my husband, Fred—and knowing we've already introduced our son to God. As we attend church each week with Lance, we see his heart grow bigger with the qualities of love, friendship and tolerance. Because Faith has made our lives so much richer we want Lance to grow up in its wisdom."
