Lindstrom-Jeldness Rites

Take Place in Church Here

Miss Adella Jean Jeldness became the bride of Howard Angus Lindstrom in a ceremony at First Baptist church September 23. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jeldness, 815 West Main street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Angus Lindstrom, 108 Genesee street. Both young people are members of the church in which they were married.

The newlyweds are living in Ashland, and both are attending Southern Oregon college. The bride, a graduate of Medford High school, has also attended Bible Institute of Los Angeles in California, and the bridegroom served with the United States Army after graduation from high school in this city.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor-length gown of broad satin fashioned in princess style with short sleeves, and a fingertip length veil. She carried a white orchid with a spray of stephanotis. For the traditional something old she wore a strand of pearl beads and she also wore the traditional lucky coins in her shoes. Mr. Jeldness gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Anna Jane Jeldness was maid-of-honor for her sister, and Mrs. Donald F. Lindstrom, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Both wore pink ballerina length taffeta dresses, princess style, with pleated yokes and carried pink carnation sprays. Their pink choker beads were gifts of the bride.

Donald F. Lindstrom was best man for his brother, and ushers were Ned and Ted Landers and Dick Lopez. Donald Clark was groomsmen. Ned and Ted Landers also lighted the candles.

Arrangements of white chrysanthemums with pink carnations, palms and candles decorated the church.

Glen Lamp was soloist for the ceremony, and Miss Sonja Peterson was at the church organ.

The reception followed in the church parlor. Mrs. Charles Leshensky, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Levi Lee, a great-aunt, cut the wedding cake. Punch was served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Orman Tompkins, and Mrs. Mabel Yorke. Miss Darrellyn Ettel and Miss Jeraldine Henderson took charge of the gifts and Miss Darlene Neely the guest book. The reception decorations, in a pink and white theme, were the work of the bridegroom's mother.

About 100 guests attended the wedding and reception. Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jeldness, Applegate.

Mr. Lindstrom and his bride spent their honeymoon in San Francisco.

Barbara Graves Becomes Bride of Wayne Winans

Central Point—The marriage of Miss Barbara Graves to Wayne Winans on October 3 was announced last week by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Graves, Central Point. The ceremony was held in Reno, Nev., and attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and Mrs. Bruce Doty, all of Central Point, sisters and brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride is a 1951 graduate of Central Point High school and was employed by the Davis Transfer company for some time before leaving in May. She now is employed by the Firestone stores at Idaho Falls, Ida.

The bridegroom is formerly of New York and is making a career of the Navy. At present he is stationed in Idaho Falls, Ida.

Luncheon Marks
78th Birthday
Of Mrs. Groves

Mrs. Nettie Groves, 608 Adams lane, observed her 78th birthday anniversary recently at a luncheon which she gave at her home. Guests were Mrs. Ed Pease, Mrs. A. H. Gregory, Mrs. F. A. Daugherty and Mrs. Betty Kirkpatrick.

The women have met together each year on their respective birthdays for several years.

Birthday cakes served for the luncheon dessert were furnished by Mrs. Pease and Mrs. M. E. Olson.

Later that day Mrs. Groves' granddaughter, Mrs. Herbert Pruitt, called on her and presented her another birthday cake.

Mounted Troop

Ladies Mounted troop, auxiliary to the Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse, will meet Tuesday, October 11, at 8 p.m., in the posse club house. Plans for the winter season will be discussed.
