

Howard District Extension Group To Meet Thursday

Howard—Howard Extension Unit will hold the first regular meeting of fall Thursday, October 13 from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in Harmony hall of the Friends church, 2525 Merriman road. Mrs. Verl Walker and Mrs. Chester Peterson will give the first "eye-opener" lesson in "Pretty and Practical Gift Wrapping" promptly at 10:30 a.m.

The first of two lessons in "Basket Weaving" will be given by Mrs. Henry Friesen and Mrs. M. J. Swing. Project leaders request those participating to bring an ice pick or steel knitting needle, flat pan, sponge, towel and old newspapers.

These projects will be continued at the November 10 meeting of the unit, and members are asked to plan to attend both meetings so they may receive the full benefit from the lessons.

Child care will be available at the home of Mrs. Malcolm McCarty, 2618 Table Rock road. Children are to take their lunches and a sturdy toy.

Mrs. E. M. Gleason and Mrs. L. R. Bailey will be co-hostesses. Also helping with the noon luncheon will be Mrs. Paul Robertson, Mrs. H. E. Peyton, Mrs. E. A. Walton, Mrs. Robert Ottoman, Mrs. W. H. Seibert and Mrs. Friesen.

At the organizational meeting of Howard unit held September 26 in the home of Mrs. C. C. Peterson, 2584 Bullock road, the unit chairman, Mrs. Gleason, announced the appointment of the following committees for this year: Luncheon, Mrs. Robert Ottoman; 4-H club, Mrs. Verl Walker; publicity, Mrs. John Benson; finance, Mrs. Albert Stocks; research, Mrs. Paul Robertson. Other committees will be named at the Thursday meeting.

Society Elects New President; Plan Field Trip

Southern Oregon Mycological society elected Bill Isaacs, a Medford senior high school student, chairman of the group during a meeting last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence.

Young Isaacs replaces Richard Bartus, Shady Cove, who will be unable to attend meetings regularly because of health reasons and other commitments, officers announced.

The recent meeting was the first in some time because of the dryness of the summer season. A field trip has been planned for Sunday, October 23, and anyone interested may attend. A sack lunch will be needed and those who want to inquire further may call Fred Lawrence, telephone 2-6767.

A potluck dinner is planned for the next meeting, November 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bartus at Shady Cove.

Tentative plans for a mushroom show the latter part of November is being discussed but will depend on weather conditions, those in charge point out. The members voted for the local group to join with the American society. It is the purpose of the society to study fungi which are edible and those that are not, for non-commercial purposes. Also the group is securing the latest literature on the subject for the local library to assist others in identification of mushrooms. Anyone interested in the group is invited to attend the society's meetings held the first Wednesday of each month.

Job's Daughters Plan Initiation

Candidates will be initiated at a meeting of Bethel 55, Order of Job's Daughters, when the Bethel meets Wednesday, October 12, in the Pythian building, Queen Sheila Spence will preside and three candidates will be welcomed into the order.

Parents of all members and persons with proper Masonic affiliation are invited to attend the initiation ceremonies. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

HEC To Meet

Shady Cove—Upper Rogue Grange Home Economic club will meet Thursday, October 13, at 1 p.m. in the Grange hall. Plans for the annual harvest dinner will be made.

When Your Child Catches Cold

Does More Than Work on Chest

She needs Vicks VapoRub—the proved medication that acts two ways at once.

When you rub it on, VapoRub quickly relieves muscular soreness. At the same time, VapoRub's medicated vapors bring relief with every breath.

Soothing medication travels deep into your child's nose, throat and large bronchial tubes. Congestion starts breaking up. Coughing eases. Warming relief comes, lasts for hours.

JACKSONVILLE First PTA Meeting Slated

Jacksonville—The first PTA meeting of the new school term will be held Wednesday, Oct. 12 in the high school gymnasium at 8 p.m. The occasion is a reception for all the teachers, especially the new ones, on the faculty this year. A program is planned under the direction of Mrs. E. O. Graham. Light refreshments will be served by the executive committee.

All parents and others interested in the community are invited.

Supper Meeting Opens Year for Eagle Point PTA

Eagle Point—First meeting of the school year for Eagle Point Parent-Teacher Association was held September 27. A potluck supper for members and families preceded the meeting. The meeting opened with Mrs. R. H. Denny leading the group in community singing.

During the business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Dale Ackerman, a well-baby clinic was announced for October 18.

The budget for the coming year was presented and accepted.

Charles Martin of the music department was introduced and he told of organizing a grade school band and of some of the activities planned for the group this year.

A Mothersingers' group is being performed and any interested women are asked to contact Mrs. R. H. Denny, phone TA6-4451. Mothers who like to sing and "able to carry a tune," are invited to join.

The program for the evening was in the form of a skit, which portrayed the welcome a prospective new P.T.A. member would receive when they attended their first meeting. The prospective new members were portrayed by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Denny.

The room count was won by Mrs. Kenneth McLarty's fourth grade room.

"MySal knows her stuff!"

I have to hand it to my Sal. She's just a whizz at taking the work out of housework. For instance, most gals practically kill themselves scrubbing and waxing wood floors. But not my Sal! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. The job's done in half the time and with a lot less work. And you should hear all the swell compliments about our beautiful wood floors! My Sal and her Bruce Cleaning Wax sure make simple work of a tough chore. And they make me mighty proud too!

P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Sal uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.
