

Guests Attend Recent Meeting In Butte Falls

Butte Falls — Guests from Rogue River attended the last meeting of Butte Falls Lions club and auxiliary. A potluck dinner was served.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sheehan, Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Wahgen, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Petrie and Mr. and Mrs. Dave O. Blair, all Rogue River, and Mr. and Mrs. Ramon L. McComb, Butte Falls.

Mrs. Bruce Pingle, president, conducted the auxiliary business meeting and a vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Capello for her work as cook during the M-Na-Ha fire.

Mrs. Sanders, president of the Rogue River auxiliary, invited the Butte Falls women to attend a bazaar which her group will give November 5.

Mrs. Poole was named hostess for a wiener roast to be held later this month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Page Stauffers.

Mrs. Smith, welfare chairman, announced that two boxes of clothing and a quilt had been sent east to be used for relief work in the hurricane area.

The project chairman, Mrs. Harris, announced that a letter was sent to the State School for the Blind asking for a list of children available for adoption. A committee has been formed to work on convention favors.

The group hopes to send two boxes of clothing and toys to the children of Korea soon in response to a letter which appeared in the Mail Tribune asking for such donations.

Mrs. Capello will be chairman of the food sale which will be held at city hall, October 26 at 10 a.m.

Proper Diet Better Than Beauty Aids, Declares Dietitian

Battle Creek, Mich. — (U.P.) — The administrative dietitian of the Battle Creek Sanitarium Diagnostic clinic says modern women should borrow some beauty tips from the ancients.

Miss Lenna Cooper said "real beauty" didn't come from artificial cure-alls, but from proper diets.

"Cleopatra was a stunner partly because she ate the sun-baked foods of the Nile Valley," she said. "That ancient lady knew nothing about calories but her natural instincts were sound. She had not been spoiled by modern civilization."

Miss Cooper said the proper diet was better than any beauty preparation on the market.

Program Given By Californians For Garden Club

Flower fruit and vegetable arrangements were demonstrated by two California women at a meeting of Medford Garden club held last Thursday at the Pythian hall, Medford. Mrs. J. P. Weanunt and Mrs. J. C. Bennett, both of Chico, gave a workshop on "Holiday Decorations from Front to Back Door," during the morning session, and in the afternoon gave the program on arrangements.

Mrs. Charles C. Stearns, president of the club, conducted a business meeting.

Guests from Eagle Point, Shady Cove, Central Point, Ashland and Phoenix were also present. Mrs. Edwin Harper and Mrs. L. P. Rentschler won the door prizes. Mrs. E. M. Wallen was tea chairman assisted by Mrs. A. O. Floyd, district recorder and Mrs. Gaston Flox, district flower show school chairman. Three outstanding flower arrangements by Mrs. J. P. Weanunt, Mrs. J. O. Bennett and Mrs. E. M. Wallen were taken to the Medford Public library to be put on display.

Plans Meeting

Lincoln Parent-Teacher association will hold its first meeting of the year Thursday, October 13, starting at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium. Roy Gilbertson, principal, will show a movie on child parent psychology, to demonstrate the use of audio-visual aids, and to show the parents the new large screen for permanent use in the gym. The screen is ten feet by ten feet.

Other business of the evening will be the introduction of the PTA committees for the year and introduction of the teachers. Derald Verley, fourth grade; Herbert Wing, fifth grade; and Morris Jiminez, sixth grade and coach.

Rooms will be open from 7:30 p.m. to enable the parents to visit them and become acquainted with their child's teacher. An invitation is extended especially to all parents new to Lincoln to take advantage of this opportunity.

After the meeting refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by the executive committee under the direction of Mrs. William Johnson, hospital-ity chairman.

Two soups are sometimes better than one. Heat together over the direct flame of the top burner one can condensed tomato soup, one can condensed onion soup, and an equal amount of water. Serve with grated cheese and crisp toasted bread cubes.

Visitor Misses Ill-Fated Plane; Arrives Safely

Mrs. T. H. Grainger, of Hurdsfield estate, Nacellesfield, Cheshire county, England, arrived Friday to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mark W. Hoeft, and family at Eagle Point.

The visitor made the crossing by ship, arriving at Montreal, Can. From there she went by plane to New York City and thence to San Francisco and Medford, by plane.

It was only by chance, as yet unexplained, why Mrs. Grainger was not on the DC-4 United Mainliner which crashed last week near Laramie, Wyo. She was scheduled for that flight but in some manner missed the plane.

For several hours Mrs. Grainger was the object of a search through telegrams and telephone calls until it was determined that she was not on board the lost liner.

She plans to be here for about six months.

This is the first visit Mrs. Hoeft and Mrs. Grainger have had together in five years, when Mrs. Hoeft and the children visited in England. Mrs. Hoeft has lived in this vicinity for about 10 years. Mrs. Hoeft served for four years in the Air Force in England and the couple met there.

Medford Couple Home from Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beck have returned home after spending three weeks in the east. While away the Becks, with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Beck, attended the National Bakers' exposition in Atlantic City. The exposition is held once in five years.

The two couples spent some time in New York City and Washington, D.C., and the Fred Becks visited Major and Mrs. Galen C. Morey, formerly of Medford, in Fall's Church, Va.

The Fred Becks returned home by air, and the Michael Becks are returning by motor and will be home later.

West Side Mothers' club will meet Wednesday, October 12, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Beck, Route 2 Box 448.

Wardrobe Coordinated With Color of Auto

New York — (U.P.) — Gone are the days when a woman just worried about coordinating the color of her clothes. Now the car gets in the act.

Latest fashion wrinkle is matching handbags and gloves, handkerchiefs and scarves, belts and umbrellas to the pastel shades of the family auto. Even ball point pens and sun glasses can be bought in colors to match some of the new two-tone car colors.
