

McCarthy Cautions Applauding Supporters as Ex-Professor's Contempt Trial Reopens

Boston—(U.P.)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, appearing as a witness at the trial of a former Harvard psychology teacher charged with contempt of Congress, cautioned his supporters today to keep order in the courtroom. "No applause, please," McCarthy said as he entered the court where a group of spectators was waiting. The jury trial of Leon J. Kamin, in Toronto, was declared a mistrial yesterday by Federal Judge Bailey Aldrich because spectators applauded McCarthy threatened to "turn it into a popularity contest." The trial resumed today before Judge Aldrich after Kamin waived his right to a jury trial. The first witness was stenographer Charles J. Reynolds, Arlington, Va., who recorded the hearing Jan. 15, 1954, of the Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee before which Kamin appeared. Judge Aldrich barred as evidence the record of testimony taken at a closed session of the subcommittee.
