Hornbrook PTA Begins Schedule Of Night Sessions

Hornbrook — First night meeting for Hornbrook Parent-Teacher association was held October 6 at the schoolhouse. Mrs. Dan Metzger, president, conducted the session.

The group voted to provide milk for the school children, and first plans were made for a carnival to be held October 29 at the Grange hall. Room mothers will hold parties at the school October 30.

About 10 fathers attended the meeting, as well as a number of mothers.

Gold Hill Youth Announce Project

Gold Hill — Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of Gold Hill Community Methodist church has made plans to wash cars this fall as a money-raising project. First work session will be held Saturday, October 15, at Bill Moser's Associated station in Gold Hill.

Miss Sandra Densmore, chairman for the day, states that the group will appreciate the patronage of Gold Hill car owners.

Miss Donna Burnett was elected publicity chairman at a recent meeting.

Officers Named By Church Group; Announce Events

Phoenix — The youth group of Phoenix Presbyterian church elected officers last Sunday at a meeting at the church. They are Miss Sandra Owens, moderator; Miss Elizabeth Pramann, vice-moderator; Jim James, secretary-treasurer; Ray Dahl and Miss Pramann, contact chairmen; Miss Sheila Thompson, social chairman.

The group is making extensive plans for the fall and winter program.

Monday, October 17, the Men's club of the church will hold the first fall meeting. A colored film, "Indian Work in Nevada," will be shown following a 6:30 p.m. potluck dinner. The Rev. Ernest Volkman is in charge of the program for the evening. All men of the church and the community are invited.

Those attending are asked to take hot dishes, salads or desserts for the dinner.

The executive committee of the Women's association of the church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Wade Loofburrow. Plans were made for the fall and winter work of the organization.

The association will meet on Thursday, October 20, at 10:30 a.m. at the church and it is stated that the meeting is important.
