

Wisconsin Is Upset by SC Trojans

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The brilliance of halfback Jon Arnett and the aroused fury of the entire Trojan team Saturday pushed Southern California back into the national gridiron picture with an upset win over Wisconsin.

The Trojans, behind the whirlwind, side-stepping dashes of Arnett, defeated the favored Badgers 22-21 Friday night in memorial college night before 75,162 fans. The last time the teams played SC scored a 7-0 victory in the 1953 Rose Bowl game.

Ready for Badgers Only a week ago the Trojans were dumped out of the nation's top 10 ranked teams by a stunning 7-0 loss to Washington in the rain at Seattle. After four days of the most fierce work-outs of the season, coach Jess Hill knew his Trojans were ready for the Badgers.

The Trojans won the scoreboard and in statistics, too, with a net yardage of 420 yards running and passing to the Badgers 358 and 20 first downs to 16.

Arnett came through with another brilliant individual performance which his supporters claim rate him All-America consideration. He scored two touchdowns, had another TD run called back by an SC clipping penalty, converted twice and was the sparkplug of the aroused SC team, Arnett netted 134 in 13 carries for a 10.3 yard average.

Quarterback Jim Haluska was the standout for the Badgers, who led 7-6 at halftime only to be overcome by the Trojans' four-touchdown spree in the second half. Haluska hit on 12 of the 21 passes for 232 yards and one touchdown, a 78-yard pass play to halfback John Bridgeman in the fourth period.

St. Mary's Drubs Prospect 31-6 in County B League

JACKSON COUNTY B LEAGUE STANDINGS	W.	L.	Pct.

St. Mary's high of Medford stood only one game away from its second consecutive Jackson County B league football championship Friday after drubbing the Prospect Cougars at Prospect 31 to 6.

The Crusaders showed over two touchdowns each in the first and second quarters for a 25 to 0 half time advantage. They got another TD in the third quarter. Prospect finally made it to the pay zone in the fourth quarter after St. Mary's had stopped three other Cougar threats.

First of the Medford eleven's touchdowns followed a blocked Prospect punt, giving SM the ball on the Cougar 30-yard line. Jim Jones took a hand-off from Laval Meunier to go the last nine yards. A 60-yard march got the next tally with Meunier going 15 yards after taking the leather from Ron Pruitt.

Interception of a Prospect pass by Meunier set up the third TD. The seatback took a hand from Jones and ran 40 yards to the end zone. Jones passed to Gerald Darland for the extra.

St. Mary's moved 90 yards to the goal after holding Prospect on its 10. A pass, Jones to Darland picked up 37 yards on the drive. Meunier ran across the final line from 13 yards out but a penalty nullified the jaunt. Then Jones went through center for 18 and a TD that counted. Prospect got down to the SM four in the final moments of the half and was shoved back to the nine.

Dick Paup scored the last touchdown for the Crusaders on a double reverse, skirting right end for 47 yards.

The Cougars got down to the St. Mary's 15-yard line in the third quarter after a Crusader fumble had spoiled the break of a pass interception by Bill Carey. A roughing the passer infraction helped out the Prospect backfield. Cougar aerials were batted down by Paup and Meunier to wreck the efforts.

Don Vannice launched the successful Prospect touchdown push by recovering an SM muff on the Crusader 32. Paup intercepted a Cougar pass on the next play but a shoving penalty on SM nullified the break and put the ball on the 18. Vannice went to the 10 and Darwin Bean ran to the goal from there.

Alison Geren turned in a top performance on offense and defense in the line for St. Mary's and Ramon Elberts and Francis Murphy were defensive stalwarts.

Prospect gave St. Mary's trouble with an aerial assault but could gain little on the ground.

Jim Daniels was a Cougar offensive standout, catching four passes from Don Vannice. Don Burwell made some good tackles from his halfback slot and Lineman Jim Martin, hobbled by an injury, did well the times he got into action.

Cougars In 9-0 Victory Over Idaho

Sarno, starting for injured Quarterback Bob Iverson, led a powerful attack sparked by his passing to End Pete Toomey and the long run of Sophomore Rey Alvarado.

Snider, Kaline Receive Honors

St. Louis, Mo. — (U.P.) — Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers was named the outstanding player in the National League and Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers won similar honors in the American League in the annual poll of the Sporting News.

The national baseball weekly also announced the choice of Rob in Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies as the National League's top pitcher and the selection of Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees as the American League's best.

The players are chosen on the basis of votes of managers, players, umpires and correspondents of the Sporting News.
