Rapp-Sullivan Ceremony Held In Medford Nazarene Church

Miss Shirlee Phyllis Sullivan became the bride of Fred Rapp in a ceremony held October 7 at First Church of the Nazarene, Medford. The Rev. P. J. Bartram, Spokane, a former pastor of the Medford church, officiated for the double-ring evening rites. Almost 300 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Fannie Sullivan, 713 Oak street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reed, Kuna, Ida.

Given in marriage by her brother, John F. Sullivan, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle over satin fashioned with lace yoke and panel. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a tiara and she carried stephanotis centered with three baby orchids. The petticoat she wore had first been worn by a bride 55 years ago.

Attending the bride were Miss Lois Bartram, Spokane, maid-of-honor; Miss Diane James, Sams Valley, Miss Joan DeZell, Newberg, Ore., and Miss Jan Turner, Dalton, Wisc., bridesmaids. All four attendants attended Whitworth college and graduated from nurse's training with the bride.

Miss Bartram wore a gown of bronze colored crystalline fashioned with full circle skirt, balerina length. Miss James wore a gold colored crystalline frock, Miss DeZell, green and Miss Turner, yellow crystalline. Their bouquets were bronze and golden chrysanthemums.

Miss Ginger Brady and Miss Marilyn Rapp lighted the candles. Little Kathy Post was flower girl and Ricky Cole carried the rings.

Robert Rapp, Seattle, was best man for his brother, and groomsmen were Wayne Pfost, Boise, Ida., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, G. B. Brady, Boise, and Sam Twibell, Kilgore, Tex. Homer Sullivan, brother of the bride, Frank Wiley, Nampa, Ida., and Michael Tenny, Stockton, Calif. the bridegroom's nephew, seated the guests.

Miss Ruth Sullivan organist and Miss Carolemay Rapp was soloist.

An arch of chrysanthemums and ivy and a small white picket fence provided a background for the wedding party and other decorations were baskets of bronze colored chrysanthemums and woodwanda ferns arranged with candelabra holding tapers.

More than 200 guests attended the reception which followed the ceremony. Mrs. Marvin Smith took charge of the guest book and cutting the cake was Miss Marlene Addington, assisted by Mrs. Fred Warner. Punch was poured by Mrs. Wayne Pfost, assisted by Mrs. Homer Sullivan. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Roy House, Mrs. Carl Foster, Mrs. Al Larson, Mrs. Richard Foster, Miss Barbara Tenny, Miss Karen Warner, Miss Ruth Phillips and Miss Mary Stiehl.

Mrs. Arnold F. Kornstad provided background music. Mr. and Mrs. Rapp traveled up the Oregon and Washington coasts to Seattle for their wedding trip, and continued to Spokane where they will live. The bride, a graduate of Medford High school, attended Whitworth college, Spokane, and was graduated from Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing September 1. The bridegroom, a graduate of Nampa High school and Northwest Nazarene college, is with Aetna Life Insurance company.

Ceremony Weds Pair Saturday

Seven o'clock evening rites Saturday, Oct. 8 wedded Miss Bettie White and Warren Lee Downing. The double ring ceremony was read at St. Mark's Episcopal church by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster.

The bride teaches the third grade at Jacksonville schools and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White, former Medford residents now of Tujunga, Calif. They came north for the wedding.

The bridegroom is a junior student at Southern Oregon college. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downing, O'Brien, Ore., who also came here for the wedding.

Mr. White gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a light blue suit with red accessories and her bouquet was of red and white carnations.

Miss Wilma Downing, O'Brien, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. She wore a turquoise blue dress with black accessories and her bouquet was of red carnations.

Frederick L. Griffith was best man.

The wedding flowers were arranged in Santa Monica, Calif., and were sent to Medford by plane by the brides' uncle, who could not be here for the occasion.

Out-of-town guests included two great-aunts of the bride, Mrs. E. G. Bottomley and Miss Anne Gammon, both of Los Angeles.

The bride's parents had lived here for seven years until leaving for the south in 1952. They entertained at a reception for the newly wedded couple attended by about 25 guests.

Mr. Downing and his bride are living at Cargill court, Apartment B.

The bride was graduated in 1951 from Medford Senior High school and last spring was graduated from Southern Oregon college.

The bridegroom was graduated in 1953 from Illinois Valley high school.

Faculty and Retired Teacher Honored by Jacksonville PTA

Jacksonville—At the first Parent-Teacher association meeting of the season last Wednesday evening a reception was held for all the teaching staff and for Mrs. Daisy Lewis, who retired last spring after teaching in Jacksonville schools for over 30 years.

Mrs. Lewis began teaching in the grade school in 1917 and continued there through 1918 then moving to California where she taught from 1919 through 1925. Returning to Jacksonville, she resumed her position in 1926 teaching until 1929, then returning again from 1932. She continued to teach there until last spring.

Mrs. Una B. Inch, assistant superintendent of county schools, presented Mrs. Lewis a scrapbook which had been compiled by Mrs. Russell McIntyre, Mrs. E. O. Graham and Mrs. Woodrow McCormack. The book of white leather and gold lettering contains a collection of photographs, messages, amusing incidents and other mementos from her former students.

The honoree guest also was presented a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Lewis plans to leave this week for Hawaii, accompanied by a friend from California. They will make the trip by plane and expect to be on the islands for about a week.

Refreshments were served at the reception by the executive committee and entertainment included a comedy skit, presented by the program committee.
