Home Rites Wed Darlene Norling And Jack Turk

Butte Falls—Miss Darlene Mae Norling was wedded to Jack L. Turk in evening rites October 8 at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Darold Garmon, route 2, box 3771, Medford, the bridegroom's mother. Dr. Jouett Bray, retired Methodist minister performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Norling of Butte Falls. The bridegroom attended Medford Senior high school and was graduated at Sacramento High school. He is employed in Sacramento with the Sutter Box company and the couple will make their home in the California city. The bride attended Butte Falls High school.

Miss Eleanor Sheppard was bridesmaid and Lee Abbott was best man. Jerry Garmon, a brother of the bridegroom, was candlelighter.

Knutte Elleson, grandfather of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a green knit suit and her flowers were pink gladiolus.

The rooms were decorated with baskets of red and white gladiolus and tapers in candelabra.

The reception which followed was also held at the Garmon home and was given by the bride's mother and Mrs. Garmon. Mrs. Elmo Elleson, an aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Miss Shirley Turk, a sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Darold Garmon, served.

The bride's mother wore a rose colored suit and Mrs. Garmon's frock was of pink and grey faille.

The couple made their wedding trip to Sacramento.

Lone Pine PTA Plans Carnival

Lone Pine — Lone Pine Parent-Teacher association announced the date of their school Carnival at a meeting Tuesday. The carnival is to be in the school gymnasium Saturday, Oct. 29 and the purpose is to raise funds for new curtains for the Stage.

Reports on workshops were given and a need for Brownie and Girl Scout leaders in the area was mentioned. It was also announced that a meeting for all parents interested in the Cub Scouts would be held at the school the evening of October 18.

A new teacher in the school, Miss Carol Bloom, was introduced by Principal Harry Kammann. A total of 109 PTA memberships were taken at the pot-luck dinner preceding the meeting.

Social Club

Reames Social club will meet at the Masonic temple for a pay luncheon and an afternoon of cards and sewing Wednesday, October 19 at 12 noon. Mrs. U. A. Turpin heads the committee in charge.

American Indian To Be Topic of Methodist Class

In order that more persons may view the Indian situation with a clear understanding, and launch an attack on those conditions which prevent the full participation of Indian Americans in contemporary American life, a study class has been organized at First Methodist church. The class on "Indian Americans" will begin at 9:30 a.m. Monday, October 17, in the church according to Mrs. Jessie Minear, instructor.

This interdenominational mission study is sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and a free nursery will be provided for young children.

The introduction to the study will be given by Mrs. Minear. Mrs. Cleo Epps will tell the class something of the economic status of the Indian American on the reservation and Mrs. Richard Jewett will speak on the economic status of the Indian off the reservation. The book "Doors Toward the Sunrise" will be reviewed by Mrs. J. Scott Heatherington.

The text the class will be studying is titled "Within Two Worlds," by David Munroe Cory, and presents the difficulties Indians face today and points out how church people can help bridge the two worlds of these fellow Americans.

Editor to Speak For Local League

Eric Allen Jr., city editor of the Mail Tribune, will speak for the Medford League of Women Voters general meeting Saturday, October 29. His talk on "Freedom of the Press," will follow a 12:30 p.m. luncheon at the Jackson hotel.

Mr. Allen's talk coincides with the current study by league members of freedom of speech and press and is a part of the national program on civil liberties undertaken by the league, according to Mrs. Robert Hiatt, president. All women interested are invited. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. J. W. Barnard, 2-9294.

The morning study unit of the league will meet Wednesday, October 19, at 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Carr, 16 Florence avenue. "Freedom of Speech and Press" will be discussed, with Mrs. John Ousterhout as leader. Mrs. Carr states that any interested woman is invited to attend.

Navy Mothers to Hold Sewing Session Tuesday

Rogue Valley Navy Mothers club will conduct an all-day sewing session Tuesday, October 18 at the home of Mrs. Lou Bittle, Ross lane.

During the business meeting plans will be made for a baby and tiny tot clothing sale set for November. All mothers interested are invited and those who attend should take a covered dish and table service.

Newlyweds Live In Oklahoma City After July Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Dean J. Coverstone have been living at 1418 Magnolia lane in Oklahoma City, Okla., after their wedding July 31 at Midwest City, Okla., at St. Philip Neri church.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Bighley, Gordonville, Minn., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Tucker, 119 South Ivy street, who went to Midwest City for the wedding.

The bridegroom is a 1950 Medford Senior high school graduate and was a junior at San Jose State college when he enlisted in the Air Force. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coverstone are stationed at the 33rd air division at Tinker Air Force base and are working on the same crew.

Mrs. John Paine was matron of honor for the wedding and serving as best man was Jim Wolff. Ushers were Mr. Paine and Frank Malenowski.

A reception was held at the noncommissioned officers club at the base.

Masquerade Party Planned by Clubs

An annual masquerade party in the Halloween theme will be given by the Swingin' Bees and Merry-Go-Round square dance clubs Saturday, October 29 at 8:30 p.m. The party will be held at Camp Corral, 40 North Riverside avenue. It is pointed out that the dancers no longer meet at Camp White and that Camp Corral is the name of the North Riverside avenue hall.

Members of the two clubs, their friends and other square dancers interested are invited. Refreshments will be brought by the women who attend and club officers will provide extra Halloween motif dishes.

Prizes will be given for the best costumes and committee chairmen include Arvel Nash, judging and prizes; Mrs. Johnnie Johnson, refreshments and table decorations; Mrs. Leslie Robertson, hall decorations, and Mrs. Donald Forbes, publicity.

Mrs. Robertson will do the calling with the assistance of guest callers.

Scovilles Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Scoville, 203 Ross lane, recently observed their 50th wedding anniversary at a family reunion held at Hood River.

The actual date of their wedding anniversary is December 27. They were married in 1904 at Valparaiso, Neb. For convenience the occasion was celebrated at a time when the family could be together.

The couple first lived at Valparaiso for a year and then moved to Sumner, Neb., where they lived until 1939 when they moved to Parkdale, Ore. In 1948 they moved to Medford.

Sixty-five family members attended the recent gathering. During the afternoon an open house was held, and a traditional golden wedding cake trimmed with yellow roses was served.

The couple has seven children, 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, most of whom were at the event.

They included Mrs. Arthur Chaffin and Mr. Chaffin and their children from Portland; Richard Scoville; Mrs. Kenneth Bergstrom; Mrs. Chauncey Herbst, also of Portland, and her husband and children; Carol Scoville, his wife and son from Sumner; Mrs. Merton Sugen with her husband and sons, Monmouth; Ross Scoville, his wife and three sons, Hood River; Mrs. Vern Gibbs, her husband and children, Klamath Falls; and Kathy Chaffin and Randy Bergstrom, the great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Scoville of New York were not at the event.

Sisters of Mrs. Scoville who attended included Mrs. Mabel Fleming, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Effie Guesford and Mrs. Charles Scranton, Hood River.

Luncheon Club To Hold Meeting

Thursday Luncheon club will meet Thursday, October 20, at the home of Mrs. George Barker, 2371 Sunset court for a pot-luck dinner at 12:30 p.m. No service is required.

Board Consultant To Give Talk Here For Health Group

Dr. Ambrose S. Churchill, Portland, television consultant for the state board of health, will speak Thursday at the bi-monthly meeting of Jackson County Public Health association. Members of county health units and others interested will meet at 1:30 p.m. at St. Mark's Episcopal church parish hall.

Dr. Churchill will describe the tuberculosis situation in the community and how it affects the individual, according to Mrs. Henry Padgham, president. Also to be discussed is the expanded use of the county's two permanent x-ray centers at Sacred Heart and Community hospitals, she said.

Of the first 2500 x-rays taken, five active cases of tuberculosis were found, according to Mrs. Padgham. The Sacred Heart unit is open Thursdays from 2 to 5 p.m. for the convenience of the public and no appointment is necessary. The Community unit will reopen in the near future.

Babysitting will be provided for Thursday's meeting and refreshments will be served.
