

Hospital Director Is Speaker for Legion Auxiliary

Guest speaker at the October meeting of the American Legion auxiliary was Mrs. H. M. Lind, department volunteer hospital director from Portland. She had attended the annual VA voluntary services orientation and indoctrination course given by the personnel at Camp White, and reported that it would be "an invaluable aid in her work."

Mrs. Lind spoke of the urgent need for additional hospital workers in the three Oregon hospitals at Camp White, Roseburg and Portland. She stated that "service to our veterans is one of the Auxiliary's main projects and we must not fail them."

The child welfare chairman, Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith, reported that clothing and shoes had been supplied children of several families, also that they were receiving needed medical attention.

Plans were discussed for a Veterans' day breakfast and a committee of Mrs. M. E. Fisher, Mrs. Leo Williams and Mrs. Merle Jarmin was appointed to take charge. All Legionnaires and veterans are invited to attend the breakfast which will be held at the Legion home, 531 South Riverside avenue.

VFW Auxiliary Initiates Group

"Sure proud of my Peggy!"

I'm just as proud as a peacock of my Peggy for the efficient way she manages our home. For instance, many of her friends are still knocking themselves out scrubbing wood floors. But not my Peggy! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. And I'll be hanged if Peggy's floors aren't the talk of our block. I sure have to hand it to my Peggy and her Bruce Cleaning Wax for making easy work of a tough job. And I love 'em both for it!

P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Peggy uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

Meeting Planned For Lady Elks

Lady Elks will meet Tuesday, October 18, at 1:30 p.m. at the lodge building. A salad luncheon will be served, followed by cards. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. H. Riley, Mrs. Larry Schade, and Mrs. Frank Little.

Wives of all Elks lodge members are invited to attend.

Westside Club
Susan Wright was elected president of the Westside Cooking club at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Thurman Barnes, Beall lane. Linda Gibson was elected vice-president; Judy Gebhard, secretary, and Colleen Franek, reporter and historian.

Eleven members attended. New members there were Carolyn Barnes, Mary Daniels, Richard Russell, Clinton Gibson. We discussed invitations to a potluck supper and also when we should have our meetings. The potluck dinner will be given by the Westside Livestock club and is planned for the first Monday in November. We will receive our award. Members voted to change the name to Westside from Howard Cooking school. Mrs. Barnes served refreshments.

Rubirosa, Gabor Romance Rekindled

Hollywood — (U.P.) — The on-again off-again romance of Porfirio Rubirosa and actress Zsa Zsa Gabor may be on again.

Rubirosa, Dominican Republic diplomat and internationally known playboy, arrived here by plane from Europe yesterday. Asked about Zsa Zsa, Rubirosa said softly: "I love her."

He said he didn't know if she loved him but "I hope so."

Then he walked through customs to the baggage center. He kept looking in the crowds to see if anyone was present to meet him. Finally, parked at the curb, Rubirosa saw a friend. It was Zsa Zsa.

A reporter told her that Rubirosa, who had climbed into her sports car, said he didn't know if she loved him.

"I don't know either," she said. Then they left the airport together.

ACORN HUBBARD BANANA 5c

Squash 5c

CABBAGE Solid Crisp POUND 5c

By the Food Editors of Better Living
Acorn Squash and Sausage... delicately seasoned squash served in its own shell with sausage balls.

1 large acorn squash, about 2 pounds
2 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Ahead of time steps: Cut squash in halves lengthwise. Remove seeds and stringy portion. Place cut side down on a rack in a shallow baking pan; add about 1/2 cup water. Bake in a hot oven, 400° F., until just tender, about 30 minutes. Remove from oven, cool a few minutes. Scoop out pulp without piercing shells. Mash pulp; add salt, pepper, butter, onion, nutmeg and egg. Whip until fluffy; spoon into shells along sides. Shape sausage into 1" balls. Fry in a skillet over moderate heat until lightly browned. Drain. Place the squash filled shells in a greased baking dish. Fill centers with sausage balls. Cover. Store baking dish in refrigerator.

About 20 minutes before serving: Bake stuffed squash in uncovered baking dish in a moderately hot oven, 375° F., until squash is heated and lightly browned. Makes 4 servings.
