"Now we know how Grants Pass felt." That was the comment of at least two Medford high football players yesterday when it was mentioned to them that the finish of the Klamath Falls-Medford game last Friday night was somewhat similar to that of the Grants Pass-Medford tussle last year.

The games' conclusions were not exactly alike, of course. But Medford and Grants Pass each saw hopes vanish in the final seconds. Rocky Stone provided the Black Tornado's thriller of the season last year when he snagged a Caveman pass in his own end zone as time was running out and ambled the length of the field for a touchdown which meant a Medford 14 to 7 win. Grants Pass was leading in statistics at the time.

This year it was a Jerry Burke to Verland Kimpton pass completion with six seconds remaining that earned Klamath a 13-all tie with Medford. The Pels had a yardage margin which could make the knot as good as a win for them in the district reckoning.

It's the hope of this department that knowing how Grants Pass felt won't make the Black Tornado feel sorry for the Cavemen when the schools meet here November 4.

LOGGER REMINDER

Medford's tie with Klamath is also a reminder of the 1953 encounter with Eureka, Calif., which the Tornado opposes here this Friday. Two passes, one of 60 yards, setting up one of 14 yards, gave Eureka a TD and cut the bulge to 14 to 12. Then a 50-yard completion gave the Loggers the ball on the Medford two. They went over easily and won the ball game 19 to 14.

GOOD CROWDS SEE JV's

Attendance at Medford high school junior varsity football games at home this season has been sizable, perhaps, stimulated by the fact two of the games were at night. But the tiff last Saturday, which this writer missed, reportedly drew a good crowd too. The good following is as it should be in building up interest in varsity games and players of future years. Boys playing in jayvee games this season will be the varsity regulars of the next two seasons. This year's jayvee aggregation has the reputation of the best Junior Tornado club in a good number of years.

CLEANLY FOUGHT GAME

For all of the heated rivalry between Klamath Falls and Medford, Friday's varsity grid tussle was a cleanly contested one. Comment along that line by the game officials has reached us second hand. Both clubs hit hard in the fracas. Klamath Falls gridders testified after the game to the hard-driving Medford play.

TORNADO JAMBOREE HOST

Medford high will be host to the Southern Oregon conference basketball jamboree on Friday, December 3. The affair will be on the new Hedrick junior high school court. Hedrick's gym will be the home court for Medford senior high in the forthcoming season. Head Coach Frank Roelandt said the senior high varsity's practice slate in the new gym is yet to be worked out completely.

The Tornado will face the 1955 state champions, the Eugene Axemen, here in two games the week end after the jamboree.

GLENDALE IN SOUTH

Glendale high is in the southern division of District 6-A-2 for football, this department has been reminded. The Pirates were in this subdistrict for baseball last spring but the Oregon School Activities association bulletin this fall still lists them in the northern grouping. North schools, however, were said to have "wished" Glendale into southern division competition with Phoenix, Crater, Eagle Point and Illinois Valley. Brookings and Henley are not engaged in rivalry for district honors, although Henley fields a team.

JAMES RATED HIGH

Dick James, the ex-Grants Pass high star, has been rated with Jay Graybeal and Maurey Van Vleet as the best little backs in University of Oregon grid history. The ranking is by Dick Strite, sports editor of the Eugene Register-Guard. He also says James is a cinch to be named for the Shrine all-star football game as well as being a high professional draft choice.

Lumberjack Eleven Beats Red Raiders

Arcata, Calif. — Humboldt State turned back Southern Oregon college 34 to 13 in a football battle here Saturday night. The Lumberjacks built up 20 to 0 halfway bulge. They scored in every quarter, including twice in the final panel. Southern Oregon picked up single TDs in each the third and fourth quarters.

Hank Cooper scored first for Humboldt after the 'Jacks got the ball on the Raider 22 following a blocked punt. Cooper ran 20 yards then bucked the final two. A fumble gave the HSC crew the ball on the Raider 25. A bit later Russ Ashburn goaled from the three.

Humboldt tallied on an 83-yard drive in the second period, Earl Barnum going the last three yards.

In the third quarter Don Korns of SOC intercepted a pass on his 18 and ran to the 'Jack 33. The Raiders went on to the goal with Seymour making the final plunge. However George Pasaro's pass interception and 44-yard run made it 27 to 6 for Humboldt.

Merl Haggo passed to Bill Franklin for the Humboldt fourth period TD. Ted Tenney ate up the last three yards of a 58-yard drive for Southern Oregon.

Hooded Terror To Be Unveiled

New York — (U.P.) — Artie Towne, the "Hooded Terror," will be unveiled tonight in a 10-round television fight at St. Nicholas arena with Milo Savage of Salt Lake City, sixth-ranking middleweight contender.

British writers called Towne the "Hooded Terror" this year because he flattened Scotch champion Willie Armstrong at 1:32 of the first round and British Empire champion Johnny Sullivan at 43 seconds of the first. Also because he wears a black fur hood into the ring before disrobing.

Towne, 28, is a New York Negro who returned to the ring early in 1955 after a three-year retirement, caused by the unwillingness of worthwhile opponents to meet him.

Since his return to the ring this year, Towne won seven straight fights and had a no-decision affair in Germany.

Despite his comeback prowess, Towne is a 7-5 underdog.

Greenberg Gives Seals Once Over

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The San Francisco Seals, bogged down in debts as well as in the final Pacific Coast League standings, were due to get the once-over today from Hank Greenberg when the general manager of the Cleveland Indians arrives in town.

Greenberg told the United Press in Cleveland yesterday that "there has been so much talk about the Seals I'm interested in looking the situation over."

However, Damon Miller—the harassed president and general manager of the club—said he didn't know if Greenberg would make any kind of an offer or not.

Wisconsin, Ohio State Slate Battle

By BOB KLAVERKAMP

Chicago — (U.P.) — Defending champion Ohio State and Wisconsin, both undefeated in Big Ten competition, meet in a showdown battle at Madison Saturday while unbeaten Michigan tangles with Minnesota in their battle for the Little Brown Jug.

The Buckeyes and Badgers will have to rebound from their Saturday performances if they hope to remain in the ranks of the Big Ten's undefeated. Ohio State blew a 14-0 lead in losing to Duke, 20-14, while Wisconsin was upset, 33-21, by Southern California.

Two other Big Ten contests Saturday send Michigan State (1-), conquerors of previously undefeated and unscored upon Notre Dame, against Illinois (1-1) and Indiana (0-2) to Northwestern (0-2).

In non-conference activity, Iowa will travel to California to play UCLA Friday night and Purdue will host Notre Dame in their annual bitter rivalry. Purdue was the last team to defeat the Irish before Michigan State did it Saturday, snapping an Irish 11-game win streak.

The Michigan-Minnesota clash looms as another of the possible upset variety. The Wolverines, top-ranked team in the country, had their hands full in defeating lowly Northwestern, 14-2, while Murray Warmath's sophomore-laden Gophers showed improvement again in bowing to Illinois, 21-13.

Women's Golf

Second round of play in the Rogue Valley Country club women's two-ball foursome was held October 13. On October 20, in the Championship flight, Mrs. Frank Benesh and Mrs. Ray Frisbie will play Mrs. Thomas Culbertson Jr., and Mrs. Lee Baumann, Mrs. B. L. Nutting and Mrs. Don McGeary meet Mrs. J. W. Barnard and Mrs. T. C. Groomes, Mrs. Leslie Schneider and Mrs. Ed Hall tussle Mrs. Robert Templeton and Mrs. Owen Middlekauff.

In the second flight the play will be Mrs. Roger Clark and Mrs. F. L. Flink versus Mrs. Rose Bunch and Mrs. A. Z. Dean and Mrs. Ed Milne and Mrs. R. E. Heyssell versus Mrs. Paul Walker and Mrs. Dan Adams; Mrs. Robert Lockwood and Mrs. Raymond Wise versus Mrs. Mahr Reymers and Mrs. Ken Teeter.

Third flight matches are Mrs. H. D. McClure and Mrs. Robert Little versus Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. S. Tuny Bullis, Mrs. Victor Sether and Mrs. John Pletsch versus Mrs. Warren Lesseg and Mrs. Royal Bebb and Mrs. W. W. Davies and Mrs. Reese Alexander versus Mrs. Loren Haugen and Mrs. Al Hart.

First person listed in the four-somes is to contact the other three for a suitable playing time. All lady golfers not playing in the two-ball foursome will play for fewest putts on October 20. They will make their own pairings for the day.

A day of golf will be held at Crescent City, Calif., October 25. All members interested in playing there are to sign up in the locker room before Oct. 20.

Miss Isobel Stuart won the spec play on Oct. 13 with a total of 21.

In the fall handicap tournament championship flight, Mrs. Paul Walker defeated Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. Thomas Culbertson Jr., Mrs. B. L. Nutting, Mrs. Frank Tamney defeated Mrs. Dick Knight and Mrs. W. Stoy Elliott beat Mrs. Warren Lesseg.

In the second flight, Mrs. C. B. Collins won from Mrs. Victor Sether, Mrs. Roger Clark defeated Mrs. Robert Lockwood, Mrs. Leslie Schneider bounced Mrs. Dean Lambert and Mrs. Ray Frisbie won from Mrs. Loren Haugen. In the third flight Mrs. Mahr Reymers defeated Mrs. Reese Alexander; Mrs. C. H. Barrell subdued Mrs. Lee Baumann; Mrs. W. W. Davies beat Mrs. H. D. McClure and Mrs. W. L. Stark won by default from Mrs. Richard Finch.

Hoad, Rosewall Reject Pro Bid

Sydney, Australia — (U.P.) — Lew Hoad and Ken Rosewall sent Australia's hopes of retaining the Davis Cup soaring today when they rejected promoter Jack Kramer's professional offer that would have netted each $50,000 a year.

Hoad and Rosewall, the 20-year-old stars who led Australia to a 5-0 triumph over the United States in the cup challenge round at Forest Hills, N. Y., last August said they planned to remain amateurs for at least two more years.

INDIANS BUY McLISH
Cleveland — (U.P.) — Pitcher Cal McLish, formerly with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs, earned another shot in the majors today with the Cleveland Indians, who purchased him from San Diego of the Pacific Coast League where he had a 17-14 record this year.

MORRIS SCORES TWICE AS DUCKS LASH BEARS

Eugene — (U.P.) — Oregon's Webfoots, feeling much better after scoring their second victory of the season, play Arizona Saturday night at Tucson in an attempt to even their season's record at three wins and three losses.

The Webfoots pushed a punchless California team all over the field Saturday night for a 21-0 victory in Portland's Multnomah Stadium before 21,515 fans.

Sophomore Fullback Jack Morris crashed over for two touchdowns and his substitute, Fred Miklancic, plunged for the other as Coach Len Casanova's three times beaten team completely dominated the game.

California, winner of only one game this season, failed to generate a serious threat. The Golden Bears managed to move the ball to the Oregon 22 in the second quarter but were held on downs. They never got any closer to the Oregon goal.

Jack Goes 14

After a listless first quarter which saw only one first down, Oregon took a short California punt on the Bear 26 and Morris rushed 14 yards for the game's first touchdown on the first play of the second period.

Late in the second quarter the Ducks marched 78 yards to score in six plays with Dick James, the fine senior left half, sparking the attack.

The drive featured James' 36-yard pass to Bill Tarrow, quarterback Tom Crabtree's 25-yard run around end and a weird play in which Oregon fumbled the ball but wound up on the California 4 when Tackle Jerry Kerschner recovered. Miklancic carried the ball over.

James, who blocked beautifully all evening, also got off a 59-yard punt which set up the first Oregon touchdown.

Oregon added its final score by taking the second half kickoff 63 yards in 11 plays with Morris scoring from the one. Morris made two conversions and Leroy Phelps added the other.

Oregon threatened throughout the fourth period, but each time it got near the goal line a penalty would ruin the scoring chance.

Oregon, which lost to Colorado by fumbling six times, gave up only one fumble to California.

The Oregon line, bolstered by fine play of Lon Stiner, Art Weber, Norm Chapman and others, outchugged California all evening.

Three Teams Deadlocked In Western Professional Loop After Week-End Tilts

By EARL WRIGHT

United Press Sports Writer

The four top teams in the National Football League's Western Division are separated by only one game today — mainly because of a last-minute field goal, quick thinking on a fumble and the running of a rookie halfback.

The Green Bay Packers, Los Angeles Rams and Baltimore Colts are tied for the lead with 3-1 records and the San Francisco Forty-Niners are close behind with a 2-2 mark.

The champion Cleveland Browns and Pittsburgh Steelers are deadlocked for the Eastern Division lead with 3-1 records. But the weekend action produced the most stirring play in the Western race as three more upsets struck the scrambled pool circuit.

Fullback Fred Cone's 25-yard field goal with only 24 seconds to go enabled Green Bay to defeat favored Los Angeles, 30-28, and climb back into a first place tie with the Rams and Colts. Halfback Jim Cason's 25-yard sprint with an intercepted pass had given the Rams a 28-27 lead with four minutes to go.

Tobin Rote hurled three touchdown passes and Cone kicked three field goals for the Packers. Al (Hoagy) Carmichael ran a Rams' punt back 40 yards to set up the field goal.

First Loss By Rams

While the Rams suffered their first loss before 26,960 rain-soaked Milwaukee fans, the Bears whipped Baltimore — the only other previously undefeated team — 38-10. Rick Casares, a rookie halfback, scored twice for the Bears. His 81-yard run—the longest scoring dash of the 1955 NFL season—helped the Bears (1-3) break open the game in the second quarter en route to their first triumph.

Quarterback Y. A. Tittle furnished the quick thinking that put San Francisco in the thick of the Western race. He fumbled a pass from center on the Detroit five with less than two minutes to go but scooped up the ball and pitched out to fullback Joe Perry for a touchdown. The play climaxed a three touchdown quarter rally that handed the favored Lions their fourth straight defeat, 27-24.

Cleveland defeated the Washington Redskins, 24-14, and the New York Giants shut out the Chicago Cardinals, 10-0, in the other Sunday games. Pittsburgh kept pace with Cleveland by upsetting the Philadelphia Eagles Saturday night, 13-7.

Passing And Mistakes

The Browns capitalized on Otto Graham's passing and Redskin mistakes. Ed Modzelewski scored twice and linebacker Walt Michaels ran 25 yards for another Brownie TD after intercepting a Ralph Guglielmi pass.

Quarterback Jim Finks scored on a quarterback sneak after center John Reger recovered

HOCKEY

By UNITED PRESS

The Montreal Canadiens, taking advantage of Detroit's early-season slump, were still unbeaten after the first five games in the National Hockey League season today and owned a four-point lead over the field in the bargain.

The Canadiens battled to a 2-2 tie with the Chicago Black Hawks Sunday night.

The Boston Bruins moved into a second-place tie with the Black Hawks, downing the New York Rangers, 4-1, while the Red Wings took advantage of a porous Toronto defense for an easy 6-0 win over the Leafs in other games.

By UNITED PRESS

Only two points separated the first five teams in the American Hockey League race today with the Pittsburgh Hornets and Cleveland Barons, perennial championship contenders, tied for the lead with six points apiece.

A five-point scoring spree by Ken Wharram earned the Buffalo Bisons an 8-2 win over the Barons, while Jimmy Bartlett's overtime goal enabled the Providence Reds to beat the Hornets, 6-5, in Sunday night games.

Vince Martinez Faces Les Felton

Providence, R.I. — (U.P.) — The title aspirations of the world's fourth-ranked welterweight get a stern test at Rhode Island auditorium tonight.

Contender Vince Martinez squares off against Lester Felton of Detroit, whose "victims" include champions Kid Gavilan and Carmen Basilio.

CONLIN ALL-STAR
New York — (U.P.) — Ed Conlin, holder of every individual basketball scoring record in Fordham University's history, was scheduled to report to Coach Duddy Moore and the College All-Stars today. The All-Stars meet the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association in an exhibition game in Madison Square Garden, Oct. 30.

NOTRE DAME'S WINNING STREAK ENDED — Irish quarterback Paul Hodnung (5) tries a stiff-arm on Michigan State's Gerry Planutis (right) but is brought down by State's Les Rutledge (on ground, left) in the fourth quarter at East Lansing, Mich. The Spartans upset the Irish, 21-7.

53 Unbeaten College Grid Aggregations

New York — (U.P.) — Michigan, Oklahoma and Maryland

led a group of 53 perfect-record college football teams today, surviving a weekend of upsets which saw such teams as Notre Dame, Texas Christian and Georgia Tech ousted from the unbeaten ranks.

Maryland heads a grouping of 15 teams with five victories, while Michigan and Oklahoma are the major college leaders in the four-victory class. Other major colleges with perfect records are West Virginia, Duke, Yale, Holy Cross, Navy and Colorado.

A total of 19 teams dropped from the perfect record list during the weekend. The perfect

Five Victories: St. Olaf, Minn.; Calif. Poly; Eau Claire; Emporia Kan.; Stevens Point, Wis.; Missouri Valley; Beloit, Wis.; Luther, Iowa; Idaho State; Redlands; Southwest Mo. State and Maryland.

Four Victories: West Virginia; Fresno State; Miami, Ohio; Muskingum, Ohio; Trinity, Conn.; Duke; Yale; Wooster, Ohio; Alfred, N.Y.; S. F.; Austin, Tex.; Shepard, W. Va.; William Carey, Miss.; Oklahoma; Centre, Ky.; Michigan; Holy Cross; Delaware State; Navy; San Jose State; Whittier, Calif.; Langston, Okla.; St. Ambrose, Iowa; Colorado; Mississippi Industrial; Jacksonville, Ala., State, and Whitworth.

Three Victories: Florida A & M; Hamilton; Worcester Tech; Westminster, Pa.; Boston College; Slipper Rock, Pa.; Allen, S.C.; Drew, N. W. Britain Techs.; and Juniata.

Two Victories: Bethany and Clark, Ga.

OPTICAL ILLUSION — University of Washington's quarterback Steve Roake plows his way through Baylor tacklers to score Washington's lone touchdown in game at Seattle. Baylor Guard Dan Miller (60) makes vain attempt to stop Roake. The Baylor Bears won, 13-7.

Lefthander Toga Won by McGuire

Eugene — (U.P.) — Walt McGuire of Portland was the Oregon lefthanded golfing champ today. McGuire fired a 71 here yesterday for a two-day total of 146, three strokes better than Jack Walters of Tacoma, Wash.

Ed Logue, Portland, was third at 154 and Bill Brayton, Eugene, next at 156.

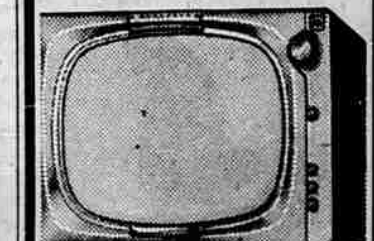

BROTHER SKATERS NAMED

Chicago — (U.P.) — Hayes and David Jenkins today became the first brothers in history to be named to the Olympic figure skating team that will represent the United States in 1956. Both were named to the single's team by Henry M. Batty, chairman of the U.S. Olympic Figure Skating committee.

RICHARDS TO RESIGN

Long Beach, Calif. — (U.P.) — Rev. Bob Richards has announced that he will resign as pastor of a local church to devote more time to an evangelist campaign and to get in shape for the 1956 Olympics. Richards is two-time Olympic pole vault champion.
