

Eagle Point 34-7 Winner Over Talent

Eagle Point — Eagle Point high with defensive work stronger than it has been and with improved blocking, walloped Talent 34 to 7 last night in a non-league football game here.

End of the game was set on the first scrimmage play when Errol Tresham burst off tackle and ran 56 yards for a touchdown. The Eagles led 21 to 0 at halftime and had a 27 to 0 margin before Talent came through with its lone TD in the third quarter.

Jack Greb ran the conversion after Tresham's long run. Then in the second period Greb romped 18 and 19 yards for touchdowns and John Bunker and Tresham converted.

Greb's first TD came on the seventh play of a 65-yard march and a bit later the Eagles took over on the Talent 40-yard line when a Bulldog fourth down gamble failed. A pass, Gale Friend to Greb got to the 25. Three more plays got to the 19, setting up the TD dash.

Walker Tallies
Talent lost the ball on another gamble on its 24 in the third quarter. Jim Walker raced 38 yards for the Talent counter after the Bulldogs had taken the ball on their own 47. Walker also bucked for the bonus.

Eagle Point's sophomore club played a good part of the last stanza. They got the ball on the Bulldog 31 after a short Talent punt and ground to the goal in nine plays. Jim Stuart went across from the one and Jim Duncan converted.

The Eagles ran up 12 first downs to Talent's six. Talent got four of its first downs on one drive in the first quarter which moved the ball from their own 20 to the Eagle 32.

Phoenix, St. Mary's Eye Conference Grid Diadems

Phoenix and St. Mary's high schools will strive to complete unbeaten conference slates this week end in the program of five prep football games in which Jackson county schools will participate.

St. Mary's, Medford parochial academy, is host to Jacksonville in the lone Saturday night engagement of the five. Friday games are Eagle Point at Phoenix, Eureka, Calif., at Medford, Ashland versus Crater at Central Point and Rogue River at Prospect.

Phoenix has trimmed both Crater and Illinois Valley in the Rogue League and would wrap up undisputed possession of the toga with a win over Eagle Point. The Pirates then would have only Glendale to overcome in their quest for District 6 A-2 southern sector laurels.

Could Be 2 in Row
The Crusaders of St. Mary's holds triumphs over Rogue River, Talent and Prospect and meet their fourth and last Jackson County B League opponent. A win over Jacksonville would give the Medford team its second straight conference championship. It will be homecoming for St. Mary's defending district victor.

B league members Prospect and Rogue River have the only other conference action. Medford will attempt to halt its losing string to Eureka at two straight and Crater, which has come close but never quite made it, will still be after its first win over Ashland. Medford lost 12 to 7 to Eureka in goosy mud at Arcata, Calif., last year.

Fans Favor Overtime

Portland — (U.P.)—By a four to one margin, fans have indicated they prefer the overtime playoff experiment used in the professional football game here last August by the Los Angeles Rams and New York Giants. Promoter Harry Glickman said today.

The experiment called for a "sudden death" overtime in event the game ended in a tie. As it turned out, the Rams and Giants were tied at 17-all and the Rams won 23-17 in the overtime.

Glickman said, however, that most fans objected to the method of giving a team the ball which was used here—by flipping a coin. Most fans, he said, either favored giving each team an equal amount of time or an equal number of downs while others suggested that the team in possession of the ball at the final gun either retain possession or be given option of receiving the ensuing kickoff.

Negotiations on the sale were stalled earlier by confusion about the purchase price.

COWBOY BRADLEY Midget on GP Card

Midgets Wrestle At Grants Pass Wednesday

Grants Pass — Extra special attraction on the Wrestling card at the Grants Pass arena this Wednesday night will be four midget grapplers in an Australian tag team match.

The rivals will be the Brown Panther, 92, and Cowboy Bradley, 95, against Major Tom Thumb, 95, and Otto Bohman, 98.

Main event will match Luigi Macera, 205, Montreal, against Johnny Demchuck, 200, Los Angeles. It will be for 45 minutes or two out of three falls. Semi-final will match Thor Haggen, 204, Minnesota, with Jim Hady, 200, Cleveland, O. It will go 30 minutes for two out of three pins.

The midgets will be making their only appearance in Grants Pass this fall. They work fast and furiously and never fail to wow the crowd. There are 40 midgets wrestling in the United States. All are jealous of their reputations. They give each other a beating and that is the secret of their success and popularity.

Macera got a technical decision here against Bull Savage last week while Demchuck was holding Buck Weaver to a draw in the Josephine county fairgrounds ring. Hagen and Hady are newcomers. Hagen has been making quite a name for himself in Northern Oregon. Hady has a good reputation in the midwest. The fray will be a clash of scientific grapplers.

Doors at the arena open at 7:30 p.m. with the first bout at 8:30 p.m.

Michigan, Terps And Sooners Cling To Three Top Positions

New York — (U.P.)—Michigan, Maryland and Oklahoma, which weathered the wave of weekend upsets, clung to the top three United Press college football ratings today, but a shakeup of the remaining places in the top 10 vaulted Navy into the No. 4 spot.

Michigan State, Auburn and Southern California all advanced to the select group as the ratings underwent their biggest scrambling of the season thus far. Notre Dame, one of the four major powers upset, dropped six places to 10th.

The 35 leading coaches who comprise the United Press rating board divided all their first-place votes among the four top teams. Michigan received 18—two less than last week; Maryland had eight, Oklahoma six and Navy three.

Point Distribution Close
However, the point distribution for the three top teams was comparatively close, Michigan attracting 315 points, Maryland 289 and the Sooners 286.

Southern California, which defeated Wisconsin 33-21 Friday night, jumped 10 notches to ninth place, regaining a place in the select group after dropping out for Georgia Tech, vaulted nine places to the No. 8 ranking, while Michigan State, conqueror of Notre Dame, moved up five places to No. 6.

Navy advanced from ninth to fourth place; UCLA moved up two places to fifth, and Duke three rankings to seventh.

Each of this week's "Big Three" may be in for some tough going next Saturday. In other games that may produce changes in the ratings, Notre Dame plays 16th ranked Purdue and UCLA entertains 17th-ranked Iowa.

Portland — (U.P.)—The Portland Beaver baseball team incurred an operating loss of $57,539 during the first 11 months of the club's fiscal year, stockholders were told last night at a meeting here.

The loss was blamed partly on inclement weather which washed out 15 home games, including a possible $20,000 opening-day game. Operating expenses also were high. Joe Ziegler, general manager, said the front office still had "a long way to go" before assembling a top-flight club.
