

Towne Beats Milo Savage In 10 Rounds

New York — (U.P.) — Middleweight Artie Towne of New York blamed himself today for "waiting too long to get a knock-out opening" in Monday night's lack-lustre television victory over sixth-ranked Milo Savage of Salt Lake City at St. Nicholas Arena.

"I'll do a hundred per cent better the next time," promised the brawny ring veteran who won a 10-round split decision over Savage by the scanty margin of a single point.

Cuts Loose
To earn that margin Towne cut loose in the 10th round of the dull bout and staggered Savage with a right to the chin, and then inflicted a 12-stitch gash on Milo's right brow in the barrage that followed.

The close win over contender Savage probably gained Towne a berth among the top ten aspirants for the 160-pound crown, but it brought him no immediate offers of fights.

Artie, a last-minute favorite at 6½ to 5, weighed 161 pounds to Savage's 159½ as he registered his first New York victory on the comeback trail and his eighth win in nine fights since he returned to the ring early this year after three years' retirement.

Giants Hire Walters As Mound Coach

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Bucky Walters, who switched from third base to the pitching mound with tremendous success, switched again today from the Milwaukee Braves to the New York Giants.

The 46-year-old Walters was hired as pitching coach of the Giants at the personal request of new Manager Bill Rigney.

Walters, a coach with the Braves since 1950, was acquired by the Giants after owner Horace Stoneham obtained permission from Milwaukee to negotiate with the former Cincinnati hurler.

Started in 1931

Walters, who broke into the majors as a third baseman with the Braves in 1931, then was converted into a pitcher while with the Phillies in 1934, reached his greatest success as a hurler with the Reds. He won a total of 198 games and was named manager of Cincinnati in Aug., 1948. He was fired after the Reds wound up seventh in 1949.

Walters will serve as Rigney's advisor on pitchers, taking over a job that Frank Shellenback had under Leo Durocher last year. He is the first Giant coach appointed under Rigney's new regime. Second baseman Davy Williams was signed as a Giant coach for 1956 during the past season when it was learned he may not be able to play again. One more Giant coach will be selected.

Milwaukee Announces Changes In Coaching

Milwaukee — (U.P.) — The Milwaukee Braves have announced a coaching staff shakeup which sends Bucky Walters to the New York Giants and Johnny Cooney shopping.

General Manager John Quinn said Walters, pitching coach for the Braves the past three years, would join the Giants in a similar capacity. He said Cooney was told of his release at this time to give him an opportunity to line up another post.

Koreans In Era To Develop Athletes For Olympic Games

Fresno, Calif. — (U.P.) — The tiny battle scarred Republic of Korea is entering a new era of developing track and field athletes with a determination to bolster its entries for next year's Olympic games.

"The Koreans may not tally many points but they'll probably have some standout performances in 1956 in Australia," reported veteran track mentor J. Flint Hanner who recently returned from a three month tour of the Republic.

Hanner, founder and director of the famed West Coast Relays, believes pride will have a lot to do with Korea's Olympic efforts. Proud Of Country

"I found the Koreans are just as proud of their country as Texans are of their state," Hanner said. "This pride will make itself felt in the games with all of the country's performers going all-out."

Hanner pointed out the Korean War virtually wiped out the Republic's sports development program. Since then, he said, President Syngman Rhee, a sports enthusiast himself, has directed efforts toward regaining the country's place in the athletic world.

During his tour of the Republic, Hanner set up track and field clinics under the sponsorship of the Foundation for Asia. The Fresno State College track mentor was the first coach sent to the Far East by the foundation.

Hogan added that he "dedicated" his life to golf 25 years ago and made up his mind at the time that it "was going to be just about the biggest thing in my life."

New York — (U.P.) — Army Coach Red Blaik reiterated today he plans to stick with Don Hollender, an All-American end last season, as his quarterback in the Cadets' remaining games. Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 3:30 previous day.

Ben Hogan Announces Retirement

New York — (U.P.) — Ben Hogan, the game little guy who knew how to play golf only for keeps, will play it only for kicks from now on.

Hogan, four time winner of the National Open, announced his formal retirement from competitive golf today in an article in Look Magazine. The 44-year-old Bantam Ben, who originally stated his intention of quitting after failing in his bid for a fifth Open title last summer, will play the game now only for pleasure.

"I can no longer compete in tournaments," Hogan said in the article. "I can no longer maintain the concentration or strength necessary to prepare properly."

Hogan added that he "dedicated" his life to golf 25 years ago and made up his mind at the time that it "was going to be just about the biggest thing in my life."
