

Marshfield Has Battle With Eugene

By UNITED PRESS
Marshfield, the state's top-ranked high school football team, goes up against a tough Eugene squad on its home field tonight in an attempt to take a big stride toward the district 5 title.

The Pirates of Pete Susick are unbeaten while Eugene has improved in recent weeks by knocking off South Salem and Albany.

While the Marshfield-Eugene game highlights week end prep activity, there are plenty of other "crucials" on tap.

Jefferson of Portland, trying for another city title, clashes with Roosevelt in the Rose City's top game. Gresham, ranked second in the coaches' poll, meets North Salem in a non-counting game. Milwaukie travels to South Salem, while Central Catholic is idle.

Pendleton is favored over Hermiston in the big one east of the mountains. La Grande travels to The Dalles and Baker is at Mac-Hi.

St. Helens Eyes Toga
Ontario, a power in A-2 ranks, is favored over Meridian, Ida., while defending state champ Vale is idle. St. Helens can nail down the subdistrict 1-A-2 crown with a win over Rainier. Prineville, again trying for A-2 honors, is at Lakeview, while Junction City, an unbeaten A-2 club, is at Creswell.

Unbeaten Hillsboro is heavily favored over winless Tigard, while McMinnville, another top TTV league club, is at Forest Grove. Oregon City and West Linn clash in their annual battle while Beaverton is at Newberg.

Down south, Grants Pass, making a late-season comeback, travels to Roseburg while Medford entertains Eureka, Calif. Klamath Falls also plays an out-of-state team, Reno, while Ashland meets Crater high.

Corvallis, loser only to Gresham, starts in earnest after District 8 honors by meeting Sweet Home. Albany hosts Springfield and Lebanon is at Bend in other 8-A games.

LOSCUTOFF ALL-STAR

New York — (U.P.) — Jim Loscutoff of Oregon and Corky Devlin of George Washington have joined the College All Star basketball squad under the direction of Duddy Moore of Duquesne. The collegians will meet in an exhibition game at Madison Square Garden, Oct. 30.

Hank Greenberg Offers To Rescue Floundering San Francisco Seals

By SCOTT BAILLIE
San Francisco — (U.P.) — Hank Greenberg, who saved many a ball game with his home runs, today offered to rescue the floundering San Francisco Seals and only formal approval by the PCL stood between the famous slugger and one of baseball's worst headaches.

After 72 hours of palaver, which saw one press conference postponed for a full day, Greenberg announced Thursday that he had offered to buy the debt-ridden Pacific Coast League club on a "clean deal or no deal" basis.

By that, the general manager of the Cleveland Indians said he would put $150,000 in the bank for operating capital and hope to pay off the Seals' $200,000 in back bills with the profits accrued from having a winning ball club. He pointed out that he would have access to the Cleveland farm system.

Greenberg — insisting, however, that this was a personal venture on his part and not a move by the Cleveland organization — said that if the deal went through he would hope to bring "major league baseball out here eventually."

League President Claire V. Goodwin said he would start to poll the eight club owners and directors today by phone. Six are needed to approve a new owner but Goodwin said he would like to get an 8-0 vote for him.

CRUSADERS AIM FOR SIXTH STRAIGHT—Set on winding up their regular football season with a sixth straight victory and an unbeaten record are the St. Mary's high Crusaders of Medford, above, who play the Jacksonvill Redskins at 8 p.m. Saturday on the Medford high turf. The Crusaders need the win for sole possession of the Jackson County B league bunting. St. Mary's has defeated Rogue River, Talent and Prospect in loop games and Illinois Valley and the Grants Pass reserves in non-league play. Saturday's contest will be Homecoming for

Grade Grid Frays Conclude in Ties

Medford grade school football hassles ended in deadlocks yesterday as Jackson and Roosevelt had a 7 to 7 ruckus and Washington and Lincoln wound up without a score.

The ties gave Jackson first place in the once-around standing of the circuit. Roosevelt and Lincoln, knotted for second, are to flip a coin to determine which plays Jackson and which meets Washington in next Thursday's play-offs.

Roosevelt tallied in the first quarter on a pass interception and 78-yard run and Jackson evened the game with along drive in the final panel. Both clubs ran the conversions.

Most of the Washington-Lincoln action was between 20 yard lines. Lincoln once reached the Washington 15.

Fish Barriers Removed From 3 State Streams

Portland — (U.P.) — The Oregon fish commission has announced that three partial or complete barriers to migratory salmon and trout passage in Oregon streams were eliminated by stream improvement projects during September.

In the south coast area, McKinley dam on Middle creek, a tributary of the north fork of the Coquille river, was removed by blasting by the Moore Mill and Lumber Co., Bandon. The blasting was done under the direction of the fish commission. H. C. Warren, fish commission director of engineering, state that the dam had hampered silver salmon and steelhead and cutthroat trout migration for over 50 years.

On the north coast, a new fishway has been constructed over the city of Seaside domestic water supply dam on the south fork of the Necanicum river. The project was financed by the city.

In eastern Oregon, a new fishway was constructed over Davis dam on Catherine creek, nine miles east of La Grande. The fishway was financed by the Davis Brothers ranch.

Ray Hyde Inks Solon Contract

Sacramento — (U.P.) — Ray Hyde, young southpaw pitcher from Lewis and Clark college of Portland, has signed to a contract by Sacramento's Solons of the Pacific Coast League. Hyde also is well known in Oregon semi-pro ranks.

POMPEY, HECT ACCEPTABLE
New York — (U.P.) — Charley Johnston, manager of light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore, said today either Yolande Pompey or Gerhard Hect are acceptable as opponents for Moore if the terms are right. Moore originally was expected to defend against Randy Turpin but the latter has quit the ring.

Lava Bowl Game Slated

Redmond — (U.P.) — Willamette university and Eastern Oregon college have agreed to meet in Central Oregon's first annual Lava Bowl football game Saturday night, Nov. 19, on Bruin field in Bend, Gil Lieser, general manager of radio station KJUN announced today.

Proceeds of the benefit game, sponsored by radio station KJUN, will go to youth recreation councils in central Oregon cities.

The game between Eastern Oregon and Willamette will be the first appearance of collegiate football teams in Central Oregon since 1952 when Lewis and Clark met Southern Oregon in Bend.

Simmonds May See Some Duty For Phoenix High

Phoenix — End Gary Simmonds may be able to see part time duty for Phoenix high tonight when it meets Eagle Point in an important District 6 A-2 football game.

It was previously indicated Simmonds would be unable to play because of an appendicitis attack. End Ray Dahl is already out of action because of an appendectomy.

Because of the ailing ends, Coach Jack Woodward has moved Guard Don Blankenship previous experience on offense. To a flank where he has had He's a defensive linebacker. Woodward said also that Walt Hurlbut will be a first line tackle on defense.

Eagle Point and Phoenix have two wins and no losses each in district play.

Pacific Meets Willamette in Northwest Loop

By UNITED PRESS
Willamette and Pacific collide Saturday night at Salem in the only conference game on the Northwest conference football slate with the other four teams involved in a non-conference engagements.

Linfield plays Oregon College of Education at McMinnville, College of Idaho goes to Salt Lake City to play Westminster, Whitman stays at home in Walla Walla, Wash., to host nearby Eastern Oregon and Lewis and Clark stays at home in Portland to play Chico State.

Willamette will be seeking its second conference win against Pacific. The Badgers of Pacific haven't yet triumphed over a conference foe, although they have come through with two consecutive victories against non-conference foes.

Willamette knocked over Whitman and dropped its second game to College of Idaho.

Defense Seems Now To Be Even With Offense

New York — (U.P.) — The defense, which has struggled for the last decade to cope with the tricky T-formation and its various offshoots may have caught up at long last with the offense in college football.

That's the evidence of the NCAA's latest statistics which reveal that six of the nation's major teams with perfect records are among the top 10 teams in total defense.

Heading the list is unbeaten and untied Boston College, which has yielded an average of 135 yards in three games. That figure just shades Navy, also unbeaten and untied, which has yielded 135.5 yards in four games.

Other Teams
The other teams with perfect records among the top 10 in total defense are Maryland No. 4, Holy Cross No. 5, Duke No. 6 and West Virginia No. 10.

Maryland tops the list in rushing defense, with an average yield of 39.8 yards in five games while Boston College is second with 48.7.

In pass defense, Nebraska ranks first with a yield of 32.4 a game followed by Pennsylvania and Syracuse. Mississippi and Michigan State share the best punting average—41.7 yards a try.
