Arthur L. Simpkins To Sing Sunday at St. Mark's Church

Arthur Lee Simpkins, currently fulfilling an engagement at the Rogue Valley County club, will be guest soloist at St. Mark's Episcoal church at 11 a.m., Sunday.

Mr. Simpkins, who includes many religious numbers in his repertoire of classical and operatic music, has chosen "The Holy City" as his principal number.

He will be accompanied by Maury Ellenhorn at the console

The service will be conducted by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector, assisted by the Rev. Robert F. Burger. Elwood Hedberg, lay reader, will present the pastoral letter from the house of bishops to all congregations of the Episcopal church.

The music will be furnished by the Senior choir, under direction of Ward Smith, with Mrs. E. G. Conrad, organist.

'Fellowship' Theme At Assembly School

"A Place to Fellowship" will be the theme of the Sunday school program at the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st. Sunday at 9:45 a.m., according to the Sunday school superintendent James Nilsen.

This program will be in keeping with the general theme of the denomination's national Sunday school enlargement program for the month of October which is "A Place for You."

The church operates a Sunday school bus, which may be arranged for by telephoning 2-4292 or 2-5328,

At the morning service the pastor will speak on the topic, "What is Spirituality?"

The adult study at 6 p.m., which is an informal study of the Bible, will be conducted by William McKinley.

Practice time for the boys choir has been changed to Friday at 4 p.m. Boys 6 to 13 years old are invited to attend. Plans are being made for future boys' choir appearances.

The Rev. M. E. LaDieu, Santa Cruz, Calif., a former pastor of Advent Christian church, corner of Jackson and Welch sts., will speak at the local church Sunday at 11 a.m. The Rev. Mr. LaDieu also served as a senior elder. The Rev. G. Ellsworth Walston, is now pastor of the church. He will speak at the evening service.

Contest Continues At Friends Church

Sunday will mark the second week of a "Mountain Climbing" Sunday school contest at the Friends church. During the opening assembly at 9:45 a.m. those who brought visitors last week will be eligible to participate in a guessing contest. A prize will be given to the one who guesses correctly.

Larry Smith of the adult department, and Sandra Malot, intermediate, will receive prizes for being high-point winners last Sunday.

The Sunday school has 23 classes with qualified teachers for every age group. Visitors are invited to attend.

Subject Listed

At the 11 a.m. worship hour the choir will sing and the pastor, Clynton Crisman, will speak on "Patience and the Lord's Return." Junior church and a nursery will be conducted.

Visitation teams will meet at the church at 2 p.m., to call at homes with an invitation to attend Sunday school.

Three Christian Endeaver groups will meet at 6:30 p.m. with a public worship service at 7:30 p.m. Featured will be representatives of the Gideons, who will present their work.

The "Quaker Hour" radio program will be broadcast over station KMED at 9:30 p.m.

Wednesday Evening Classes Announced

Classes of instruction in the Christian faith for adult inquirers, which started a few weeks ago at St. Mark's Episcopal church will continue each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. In addition they will be extended next week to Wednesday evenings as well for the convenience of those unable to attend the Sunday morning classes.

The subjects to be covered include, church history; Holy sacraments; doctrine of the church; Bible; book of common prayer; worship and practice of the church; organization of the church; and application of the Christian faith to everyday living.

The classes are open to all who care to attend, and questions and discussion are encouraged.

The Wednesday classes will commence at 8 p.m. and will be held in St. Mark's church annex. Those without present church affiliations are especially invited. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster will conduct the classes.

Those desiring further information by call telephones 2-5002 or 2-4249.

Dr. D. K. West To Speak in Portland

Dr. D. Kirkland West has been invited by the moderator of general assembly, Dr. Paul Wright, to speak Sunday at the First Presbyterian church in Portland. He also will attend a meeting Monday of the synod of Oregon National Missions committee in Portland.

Sunday evening, the Rev. Ernest Volkman of Phoenix will speak to the adult group on, "How To Know Your Bible Better." Officers of the Westminster fellowship will be installed. They are Roger Gallacci, Carol Dyke, Sandra Laing, Joyce Gregory, Nancy McKeown, Bruce West, Kay Christian, Beverly DeBorde and Jim Martolin.

Fireside will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jamison, 110 Portland ave.

WITHOUT A PLAN

men would not attempt to construct the mechanical wonders of our age. Why attempt to build your life apart from God's plan for you? Christ died to give your life purpose and meaning.
