Ducks Trim Arizona 46-27 in Wild Tilt; Morris Scores Twice

Tucson, Ariz. — (U.P.) — University of Oregon went on a four TD spree in the third period to defeat Arizona, 46 to 27, in a wild offensive battle last night in which defense was strictly a myth.

A homecoming Arizona crowd of 22,000 roared approval in the second quarter when the Wildcats took a 14-7 lead after befuddling the Webfoots with a spread formation and split line. But Oregon, a vastly improved club which routed California last week, tied the score on a 33-yard pass from LeRoy Phelps to Phil McHugh late in the second quarter. Fullback Jack Morris, the hardest man for Arizona to stop last night, scored twice on runs of 51 and four yards and end George Slender also tallied twice in the decisive third period.

Luppino Star
Halfback Art Luppino of Arizona, who retained his national rushing leadership, turned in perhaps his finest performance of the season although his team went down to defeat. Luppino carried the ball 20 times for 166 yards, scored one touchdown on a 10-yard run and set up the other three Wildcat tallies. The turning point in the third quarter came with Oregon ahead 27 to 14. With Arizona in possession of the ball on Oregon's 43, quarterback Skip Corley was badly rushed and lobbed a pass which was intercepted by Slender.

Arizona, which normally runs out of a wing T formation, started out with a variation of a spread double wing. The first time the Wildcats tried it, Halfback Dick James intercepted a Corley pass and ran 25 yards to the Arizona 20. Halfback Jim Shanley, who also bucked four yards for the final Oregon touchdown, in the fourth quarter, then scooted 20 yards on the first Webfoot play from scrimmage to score.

Cats Roar Back
The Wildcats roared back to drive to the Oregon 11. Luppino drove to the one from where Max Burnett bucked over for the touchdown. Arizona moved 70 yards midway in the second period before Corley fired one of his cannon-like passes to reserve end Ed Sine for a touchdown.

Then came the pass to Phelps to McHugh which tied the score at the half 14 to 14. James and McHugh were outstanding on defense for Oregon. Arizona was unable to cope with the speed of Morris and Shanley, who simply outran the Arizona defenders on at least two scoring plays.

Lewis and Clark Post 28-13 Win

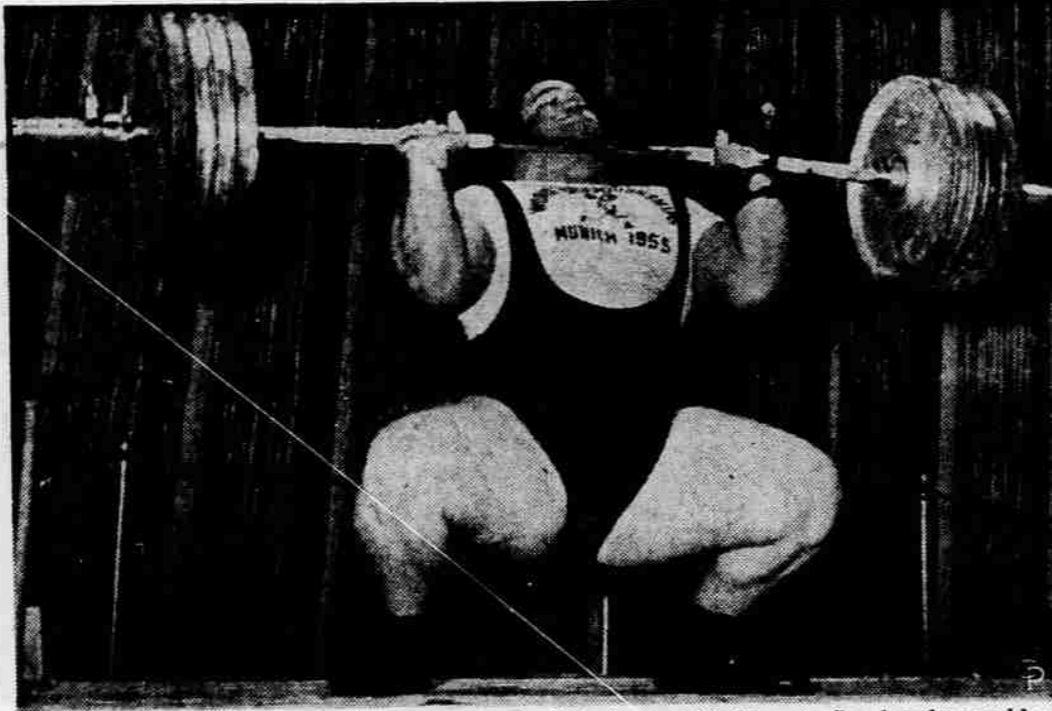

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — Lewis and Clark Pioneers won a tough homecoming contest from the Chico State Wildcats 28-13 here Saturday.

The Pioneers, leaders of the Northwest Conference, pushed the hard-fighting Wildcats down the field for a touchdown as soon as they got possession of the ball. They kept their lead by scoring seven points in each period. Long runs by Mel Gillett and plunges by Earl Engebretson were too much for the Wildcats who scored in the second period on a pass to Noble Freeman. Fullback Mickey Risberg slashed to the other Chico score in the fourth frame.

Charles-Hall Bout Postponed To Nov. 14

Providence, R. I. — (U.P.) — A 10-round boxing match between Ezzard Charles, former heavyweight champion, and Toxie Hall scheduled Oct. 31 has been postponed to Nov. 14.

Tony Tannas, co-manager of the former champ, said Charles had a mild attack of the grippe and matchmaker Manny Almeida rescheduled the bout. Hall attracted national attention last spring when he floored heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano in a sparring match. He is taking on the veteran 34-year-old slugger from Cincinnati in a bid to move up in the heavyweight standings.

Pro Bowl Game Will Be Jan. 15

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The sixth annual All Pro Bowl football game will be held in Memorial Coliseum here on Jan. 15, Paul J. Schissler, managing director of the grid classic, announced Saturday.

The game will feature the 60 best players of the National Football League. Western Conference teams hold a three-to-two victory edge over the Eastern Conference in the series to date. The game is sponsored by the Los Angeles newspaper Publishers Association and all the net proceeds are turned over to charity.

Washington, Stanford Tied, 7-7

Seattle, Wash. — (U.P.) — Washington and Stanford exchanged first period touchdowns and then battled tooth and toenail to a 7-7 tie in a Pacific coast conference football thriller before an estimated 43,500 fans Saturday.

The tie halted a three game winning streak for the Huskies in conference play and dampened their hopes for Rose Bowl competition. It was the best league effort Stanford has made this season, having dropped two in PCC competition. Goal line stands by both teams were in the order of the day and fumbles set up both touchdowns.

Washington scored three minutes and 53 seconds after the start of the game when left guard Ed Sheron recovered Stanford quarterback John Brodie's fumble on the Stanford 19. The Huskies crossed the goal line five plays later.

Credell Green bucked four times through the line to the four from where halfback Mike Monroe clutched Ve Roake's pitchout and scored. Dean Derby kicked the extra point.

Stanford came back six minutes later to score. The Indians, powered by Bill Tarr, got to Washington's 10-yard line in 10 plays only to lose the ball on downs.

But as soon as Washington took over, Roake's pitch out was fumbled and Stanford's Joe Long recovered. On the next play, Tarr twisted into the end zone. Mike Raftery kicked the extra point to tie the tally.

Prospect — Rogue River high posted its second Jackson County B League gridiron win Friday afternoon by blanking the Prospect Cougars here 21 to 0.

The Chieftains pushed across one TD in the first panel and two in the third. Gary Stinchcomb, Bill Weaver and Fred Bond toucheddown for the Rogue River club. Bilbee Lane kicked the extra points.

A Rogue River score was produced the second time the Chiefs got their hands on the ball. A sustained march paid off with most of the yardage around end. One third quarter tally came in seven plays in a drive from the Prospect 42-yard line. The other was set up on a pass interception which gave the Chiefs the ball on the Prospect 32. Seven plays again were necessary. Stand-Off Fourth

Fourth quarter action was a stand-off in the middle of the field. Threat after a RR interception in the second period was stopped by the clock and a timely tackle by Prospect's Jim Martin.

Prospect's defensive standouts were Keith Setzer, Martin, Don Vannic and Dan Burwell.

Rogue River had 12 first downs to Prospect's seven. The Chiefs tossed six passes with three completed. Prospect connected on three of 10 tries and had two interceptions.

Civil Defense Conference Set

Salem — (U.P.) — A conference of state and federal emergency welfare officers on the Pacific Coast will be held in Portland Nov. 1-2, the Oregon Civil Defense agency said here Saturday.

Topics will include reception area plans for the care of evacuees, evaluating county resources, welfare support from federal civil defense administration, role of Red Cross, mutual aid between states, care of children, infirmed and special groups, and place of emergency welfare in the national survival plan.

It would require 1,900,000 railway freight cars to transport the U.S. lumber output for one year.
