Queen Candidates Busy JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonville—Candidates for queen of a high school carnival to be held Nov. 4 in the Jacksonville High School gym went into action last week, selling carnival tickets.

The candidates for queen are, from the freshman class, Miss Clara Anderson; sophomore class, Miss Nelda Sloan; junior class, Miss Joan Fretwell, and senior class, Miss Carol Gregory. Each carnival ticket sold by the girls will be a vote in their favor and the reigning queen will be selected on the basis of which girl sells the most tickets.

There will be eight prizes, two for each class. To win a major prize it will not be necessary to be present at the carnival.

The Jacksonville school "A" band, consisting of 44 members from the upper classes, will make its first appearance this year on Saturday night, Oct. 22, at St. Mary's in Medford. The new uniforms of grey trousers and red sweaters have been ordered but have not arrived. It is hoped that this group will eventually grow into a 60-piece band. In the beginners band group there are about 25 members from the sixth and seventh grades, under the direction of Leroy Mauroni.

Members of this group, as they become more proficient, are graduated into the more advanced "A" band. Mauroni also has a small group of fourth graders playing flutephones. They are making good progress and gaining much favorable comment.

Chapman, Prospect; Noel Pence and his fiancée, Miss Ann Dacek, Medford; W. R. Andrew, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton James, Jacksonville. Refreshments were served, including a birthday cake made by Hamaker's sister Mrs. James, games and dancing were enjoyed, and gifts presented the honored guest.

Mrs. Floyd Wyatt and daughter Laurie returned last week from a two-week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Watson, Los Angeles. While there she attended a reunion birthday party given for her mother on Sept. 24 at the home of Mrs. Wyatt's brother in Sherman Oaks, Calif. Six brothers and three sisters were present for the party all living in the vicinity of Los Angeles except Mrs. Wyatt.

Kefauver May Be On Oregon Ballot

New York — (U.P.) — Sen. Estes Kefauver, asked to comment on a report that his name and that of Adlai Stevenson might be entered in Oregon's presidential primary, said there were some "wise men" out there, and "I hope they know what they're doing."

Kefauver, interviewed by CBS Newsman Walter Cronkite on the network's morning show, said he expects "to make an announcement in a short time" as to whether he is or is not a presidential candidate.

He repeated his statement that he is "not a candidate now."

"A candidate's consent is not needed in Oregon, but they do need some 'wise men' out Pacific Northwest," Kefauver said. "I hope they know what they're doing."

Transportation Halt In Portland Unlikely

Portland — (U.P.) — There is little likelihood of a bus transportation shutdown in Portland as a result of probable failure by the city council to renew Portland Traction company's franchise next Jan. 31.

City Commissioner Ormond R. Bean said that if agreement is not reached with the traction company or a new operator by the franchise's expiration date, PTC could be permitted to operate under a temporary franchise until the situation was resolved.

Bean pointed out that the traction company operated under a temporary franchise for three years before its present permit was approved.
