Delegates Report Convention News For District 4

Convention reports were given at the monthly meeting of District 4, Oregon State Nurses Association, held at Camp White October 18. Mrs. Sue Monteith, president; Mrs. Gertrude Molloy, Miss Alena Makinen, Mrs. Christine Bates and Mrs. Martha Murphy represented the local group at the state meeting held in Portland October 11 through 13. About 400 registered nurses from all over the state were in attendance. Considerable emphasis at the convention was placed on work being done to promote improved working relations between the nurses and nurse employee groups, it was reported. Dan Hayes, attorney for OSNA, reported on the work with the State Hospital association which has resulted in improved nursing standards that went into effect in July of this year.

The local group agreed to support the plan of Jackson county civil defense authorities to train local registered nurses to staff a blood program for use in the local area in case of national emergency or disaster. Jackson county has been chosen as one of three areas in Oregon for such a program to be instituted.

Plans were completed for the annual banquet which will be held at Mon Desir October 27. The next meeting will be held at Sacred Heart hospital with a special program to honor the registered nurses living in the Ashland area.

Gardener Speaks On Chrysanthemums

Phoenix — Mrs. Leona Corrigan, Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Lawrence Luy of Jacksonville Garden club were guests for the last meeting of Phoenix Garden club. It was held at the Community hall.

Hostesses for the dessert luncheon were Mrs. B. C. Richards, Mrs. William Wilkins, Mrs. Leo Thomas and Mrs. Ester Carr.

Mrs. Luy gave an informative talk on chrysanthemums and brought a number of specimens from her own garden for illustration of the kinds and sizes of flowers. Twenty-four members of the club were present to enjoy the program.

The flower arrangement for the meeting was taken by Mrs. R. E. LeVander and the prize was won by Mrs. S. E. Cox. It was announced that the next meeting of the club will be a workshop on flower arrangements.

Federation Announces Dates Second Flower Show School

Second course of the flower show school sponsored by Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, will be held October 25, 26, and 27 in Central Point Grange hall. Classes will be held from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday and Thursday will be reserved for examinations.

Instructors for the fall classes will be Mrs. Milton Winters, Portland, vice-president of the Oregon federation, and Mrs. W. G. Stellmacher, Tangent, Ore.

Mrs. Winters will discuss flower arrangement with special emphasis on line and balance and the study of the color wheel with emphasis on monochromatic color harmony. Mrs. Stellmacher will lecture on flower show practice and horticulture. Special attention will be given to practice of schedule making for shows, since this is considered most important for the success of any show. Show judges go by the schedule, and it must be made up so everyone entering competition will be able to interpret the schedule correctly. Mrs. Stellmacher will also speak on house plants and the judging of fruits, vegetables and chrysanthemums.

Those who have not pre-registered will be able to do so at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday 25 at the Grange hall. Classes will start at 10 a.m. Registration fees will be the same as last year. A hot lunch will be served at noon for a nominal fee.

Every one interested is invited to attend the classes, and it is not necessary to be a garden club member. It is possible to audit any or all the classes October 25 and 26.

For further information call Mrs. Gaston Floux, Central Point NO4-2640, show school chairman; Mrs. A. O. Floyd Medford 2-6438, Siskiyou District director; Mrs. Charles C. Stearns, Medford 3-1584, president of the Medford club; Mrs. L. R. Thomas, Medford 3-2879; Mrs. A. C. Lewis, Phoenix, 3-2822, or Mrs. W. L. Holbrook, Medford, 2-8802.

Books to study in preparation for the course are "All About House Plants" by Montague Free; Women's Home Companion "Garden Book," chapters 39 and 49; "Design in Flower Arrangements" by Arms; the chapter on design and color in Grayson and flower show practice on "Schedule" from handbook.

Indian Problems Topic of Meeting Of Church Women

Guests and members of Ruth Esther unit of Wesleyan Service guild, First Methodist church, heard of the present conditions of Indian Americans in a talk by Mrs. Charles Adamson Monday evening.

The book, "Within Two Worlds," is study book for the year for the group and through this Mrs. Adamson illustrated that the Indian people are caught now between life on the reservation which holds no interest to an Indian who has lived outside, and the competitive world of today with no real place for the Indian.

She depicted the Indian Americans as highly religious people betrayed by governmental trust and with the biggest percentage unprovided for by the churches.

She concluded the program with a group of authentic Indian songs.

Devotions, "Brotherhood Through Stewardship," were given by Mrs. Anne Gorby.

Mrs. Lionel Guy, president, conducted a brief business session.

The refreshment committee was made up of Mrs. Louise Davis, Mrs. Alberta Boardman and Mrs. Bernice Kunzman.

Guests were Mrs. Ruby Dodds, Miss Louise King, Mrs. Muriel Preston, Mrs. Georgia Casson, Mrs. T. F. Ambush, and Mrs. B. F. Simmonds. From out of town were Mrs. Ethel Ferris, San Francisco, and Mrs. H. James Jenkins, Portland.
