Jewelry Offered At Chin Up Sale

A large collection of agate jewelry and articles of interest of rock collectors will be among the many items offered for sale at the fifth annual Chin Up club hobby sale, it was announced today by Paul Olson, general chairman. The event will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 8 and 9, at the Eagles hall, 217 West Main st. A cooked food sale will be held in connection with the yearly hobby showing.

Two One-Vehicle Accidents Injure Two Over Weekend

Two one-car accidents were reported to state police here early Sunday morning.

About 1:55 a.m. Sunday, a vehicle operated by Darrell McCaslin, Glendale, went out of control on highway 99 near Gold Hill, rolled over several times and crashed into a fence. McCaslin and his brothers Robert and Gerald were not injured.

Police said the car apparently got off the pavement onto gravel before it went out of control.

Two persons were injured when the car in which they were riding went out of control on highway 99 near Bear canyon on the south side of Siskiyou pass about 2:10 a.m. Sunday.

Ernest Bradbury, route 1, box 418, Ashland, driver of the car, and John Levell, route 1, box 416, Ashland, were taken to Ashland General hospital with cuts and bruises and possible chest injuries.

Police said the car was northbound and a left tire went flat before Bradbury lost control.

Legion To Discuss Stag Party Plans

Members of Medford post 15 of the American Legion will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday to make final preparations for the membership stag party at the Central Point legion hall Saturday, Oct. 29.

The party will be sponsored by both Central Point and Medford Legion posts, and will be highlighted by initiation ceremonies for new members at which Congressman Harris Ellisworth will give the obligation.

Department officers of the state Legion department will participate in initiation ceremonies. Attorney Frank Van Dyke is chairman of a committee in charge of arrangements. Attorney William McAllister and former mayor Diamond Flynn are committeemen.

Medford post commander M. E. (Bud) Fisher urged local members to attend Tuesday's meeting so final arrangements may be made.

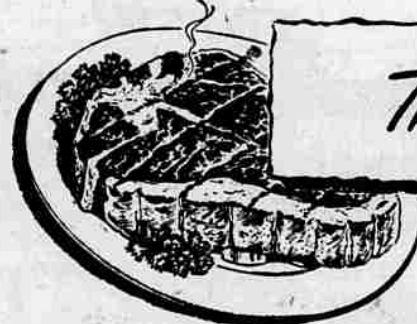

District Commander Gene Orr has announced a meeting of all post officers for district 13 at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Central Point hall. District 13 includes Cave Junction, Grants Pass, Central Point, Medford and Ashland.
