

On The Side

The recently much repeated claim that the female is by far the superior sex has been very seriously accepted by many women. It has been the cause of some females taking a very different view of certain situations. Not only that, they are expressing those views without reservation. As for example a number of women were asked: "What is your opinion of polygamy?" One of the ladies questioned answered sharply: "Never mind polygamy. Ask me what I think of polyandry." She was asked: "I think polyandry is a perfectly marvelous idea. Most women could use an extra husband. Wives are alone too much. Then husbands come home from the office too tired to devote any energy to entertaining their wives, go out dancing or to dinner parties. An extra husband could take care of that situation."

First Notice

As you know, Maurice Chevalier is now one of the most highly paid entertainers in the world. What follows is his first press notice. It is a criticism of Chevalier's debut at the Folies Bergere by the celebrated dramatic critic, Noziere, of the Paris Figaro: "Who turned this gaudy bumpkin loose on the boards of the Folies Bergere last night? Who hired this laborious and painfully unfunny comic to perform in the midst of really first rate numbers? His lack of talent is exceeded only by his vulgarity."

Dream Track

The New York group which plans to present a "dream track" is asking turf fans as to what size track they would like to have. Many racing enthusiasts think the mile and a half oval of Belmont is too big. They like a mile oval. No attention should be paid to these people. They don't have to ride the horses. A mile and a half track is a safe track for riders. A mile track, when the fields are large, is not.

Pipe Smokers

Cigar smokers are almost invariably well informed as to their smoking medium. They know how to choose a good cigar. Also how to smoke it. Most pipe smokers are woefully ignorant as to the art of pipe smoking. The great majority don't even know how to pack a pipe properly. They know little or nothing about pipe tobacco mixtures. Most men who smoke pipes do so because their sweethearts or wives have insisted upon it. Women think a pipe makes a man appear more refined and distinguished. Anyway, it is about time pipe smokers woke up and started trying to learn something about pipes. As a starter I suggest they read that classic work titled "The Pipe," by Georges Herment.

Horses and Women

The medicine cabinets of women who live alone are usually packed with a wide variety of pills and potions. It has been observed that pills and pets are the lonely woman's substitute for love. When a woman is inclined to eat too much and grows fat it is also said to be a sign of frustration. There is hardly a woman alive who lives alone and likes it. Several years ago when I made that statement, Jean Dalrymple, the brilliant theatrical producer, wired me: "I live alone and I adore it." I then bet her a box of nylons against a box of elegant Havana cigars that she would be married within a year. She lost. She is now happily wed.

Please Note

In Miami Beach, Fla., hotel maids are paid $36 a week. Waiters and waitresses receive $21 a week. The pay of dishwashers is $42 a week. Bartenders are paid $60 a week. I don't know how these wages compare with similarly occupied jobs in other cities except that in San Francisco bartenders are paid from $80 to $100 a week. In a few places in the charming city by the Golden Gate bartenders are paid as high as $125 a week.

Asking

Queries from clients. Q. You say Michael Arlen, author of "The Green Hat," was born in Bulgaria. The Readers Encyclopedia says Arlen is a "British author of Armenian birth." Who's right? A. Michael Arlen, whose real name is Dikran Kouyoumdjian, was born in Bulgaria of Armenian parents. He attended college in England and in 1922 became a naturalized British citizen.

Remembering

Here's a test for young old-timers. In a shop window I saw an enlarged photograph of the Times Square section of Broadway of the yesteryear. Photograph revealed that Charlie Chaplin in the film titled "The Circus" was playing Loew's State. At nearby theaters the film titled "The Crowd" and "Four Sons" were playing. Also evident was a sign on a building reading "Jardin Royal." Can you say in about what year the photograph was taken?

About three-fourths of the total U.S. supply of linseed oil and linseed meals comes from Minnesota.
