New York — (U.P.) — Promoter Tex Sullivan called young Ludwig Lightburn of British Honduras "the fastest lightweight in the world" today as he set Nov. 28 for his next television fight at St. Nicholas arena.

Because of unranked Lightburn's lopsided TV victory over rugged Jockine Khalfi of Algeria at St. Nick's Monday night, Sullivan said the Nov. 28th opponent must be a ranking contender, preferably Cisco Andrade or Johnny Gonsalves.

But the streamlined, 20-year-old Negro from the mahogany forests of Honduras said, "That Andrade feller won't fight me. I chased him for 11 months in California, and then had to go to Mexico to get bouts." Andrade, of Compton, Calif., is ranked fifth.

The other prospective opponent, Gonsalves of Oakland, Calif., is rated ninth. He fights Lulu Perez of Brooklyn at Madison Square garden Friday night. Amazingly fast Ludwig battered Hocene with a mixed attack of left jabs, combination hooks and straight shots that had him bleeding from the nose in the second round and gashed above and beneath his left eye in the sixth.

Brown, Crabtree Praised by Tutor

Eugene — (U.P.) — Coach Len Casanova of the University of Oregon squad praised backs Jack Crabtree and Jack Brown today for their performance in pacing the Ducks to a 47-27 rout of Arizona Saturday.

Crabtree tied up the game with a touchdown in the last minute of the second quarter, and Brown, who replaced Dick James at left half, raced 76 yards on five tries.

The Webfoots took it easy yesterday but held a full practice today in preparation for their conference clash against Idaho Saturday.

Albuquerque Softball Official Gains Honors

Albany, Ore. — (U.P.) — Max Shirley, municipal recreation director at Albuquerque, N. M., has been named Commissioner of the Year by the National Baseball Congress, NBC president Ray Dumont said today.

Shirley has served as New Mexico state commissioner for the baseball congress for the past two years. He will receive a plaque from the NBC next July at the opening of New Mexico's 1956 state tournament.

Knickerbockers Oppose College Stars Sunday

New York — (U.P.) — The New York Knickerbockers will play the College All-Stars in a day-night basketball doubleheader at Madison Square garden next Sunday.

The afternoon program was arranged because of the large demand for tickets by fans, who also are anxious to see the Harlem Globetrotters play the Washington Generals on the same bill.

BOWLING

The Tabu Dinner house men's team of Medford won both matches and a local women's quintet divided its matches Sunday in competition with Bend aggregations at Medford Bowling lanes.

Tabu rolled up games of 935, 951 and 962, winning all three, for a total pin margin of 2848 to 2592 over Ives and Bea's of the central Oregon town in the first series. In the second match, the Medfordites rolled top scores again in the three games with 937, 960 and 898. They had a total of 2795 to Bend's 2644.

In the first series George Spaulthorst paced Tabu with 213, 189 and 222 games for a 624 score. Fred Anderson with 630 and Ray Wise with 620 had top Medford scores in the other match. Sam Blucher with 611 was high for Bend in the starter and Howard Pinneo was tops for the visitors with 574 in the other. Harold Vessey and Frank Driscoll were other members of the Tabu aggregation.

Sweep One Series
Medford women's team had a 2620 to 2378 pin bulge in the first match and Bend, aided by a 66 handicap, nipped Medford 2379 to 2377 in the other. In the first series Medford won all three games but the local girls salvaged only one in the other.

Mable Clark of Medford had high game of 214 and high series of 566 in the two match competition. Other Medford scores in the opener match were Vera Cummins, 546, Vivian Knox 530, Elsie Baker 513 and Dell Christianson. Scores in the other team series were Cummings 431, Knox 542, Baker 418, Christianson 512 and Clark 473.

CLASSIC LEAGUE

Norm Hillyer of Medford Furniture store rolled high series for the evening last night in Classic Bowling league with 610. Hillyer also rolled high game of 232. Medford Furniture took high team series honors with 2717 and held on to its league lead.

Layne Captures Northwest Title

Yakima — (U.P.) — Hillis Layne, Lewiston manager, captured the 1955 hitting title in the Northwest league with a tidy 391, according to final, official league statistics released today.

Layne harvested 148 hits in 379 trips to finish ahead of Bob Duretto of Wenatchee who belted 377 and took most of the power slugging honors. Duretto led in total bases with 291, in home runs with 27, in runs batted in with 143, and in runs scored with 123.

Sanders Says PCC Has Good Chance in Bowl

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Coach Henry (Red) Sanders whose UCLA Bruins are a good bet to represent the West in the Rose bowl, says the Pacific Coast conference has its best chance of meeting the Big Ten on even terms in the next bowl game.

Sanders pointed out that PCC teams have beaten Big Ten squads in four of six inter-sectional games played so far this season.

"Our team played its best game of the year against Iowa," Sanders told the Southern California Football Writers association yesterday. The Bruins won 33-13.

Marion, Comiskey Map Plans for White Sox

Chicago — (U.P.) — Manager Marty Marion and Vice-President Charles Comiskey met today to discuss the big picture for the Chicago White Sox in 1956 and map moves to lift the club up a notch or two among American league pennant contenders.

In a pre-conference meeting Marion said the answer to the problem is trades aimed at enlisting the services of two good pitchers, one good outfielder, another good infielder and another catcher.

Michigan Maintains Only Slight Lead in Gridiron Rating Poll

New York — (U.P.) — The United Press college football ratings first place votes and season records in parenthesis:

Team	Points
1. Michigan 12 (5-0)	298
2. Maryland 10 (6-0)	292
3. Oklahoma 9 (5-0)	288
4. Navy 1 (5-0)	230
5. UCLA 1 (5-1)	201
6. Michigan State 1 (4-1)	172
7. Notre Dame (4-1)	86
8. The Auburn (4-0-1)	83
9. Southern Cal. 1 (5-1)	83
10. Texas A&M (5-1)	62

Others: 11. West Virginia, 42; 12. Georgia Tech, 40; 13. Texas Christian, 18; 14. Duke, 10; 15. Ohio State, 8; 16. The Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and Washington, 4 each.

By NORMAN MILLER
New York — (U.P.) — Michigan, which appears to play only as hard as it must to win, maintained only a slight lead over Maryland and Oklahoma today in the closest college football ratings ever voted by the United Press Board of Coaches.

Only 10 points separated the top three teams in this week's ratings. Michigan was the top choice of 12 of the 35 leading coaches who comprise the United Press rating board. Maryland received 10 first-place votes and Oklahoma nine. This week's voting was so concentrated that a total of only 18 teams were mentioned in the coaches' ballots.

Never before in the six-year history of the United Press ratings were the top three teams so closely bunched, or did so few teams receive votes that there were not even enough to comprise a "second ten."

Gained Considerable Ground
Maryland, which trounced Syracuse 34-13 for its sixth triumph of the season, and Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners, who crushed Colorado 56-21 and all but clinched a berth in the Orange bowl, thus gained considerable ground in their bid to overtake Michigan. The Wolverines' first-place margin has dwindled from a high of 66 points two weeks ago, to 26 points last week, and to its present six points as they struggled with weak Big Ten opponents.

A comparatively formful week end left the first six teams the same as the week before, with Navy, UCLA, Michigan State trailing the "big three" in that order. Texas A&M's Southwest conference leaders were the week's only new team in the top ten, jumping three places to 10th. Notre Dame also advanced three notches to No. 7 while Auburn and Southern California were tied for the eighth ranking.

First Place Votes
Besides the top three teams, Navy, UCLA, Michigan State and Southern California each received one vote for first place.

Last week end's biggest upset produced the only change in this week's top ten. Duke beaten 26-7 by Pittsburgh dropped from the seventh to 14th place, giving Texas A&M an opportunity to join the select group after a 19-7 triumph over Baylor.

West Virginia retained the No. 11 ranking for the second week in a row. Georgia Tech, Texas Christian, Duke and Ohio State

Burns, Ore. — (U.P.) — The Harney Lumberbacks defeated the Scio All-Stars 32-0 here yesterday in an independent football game played as a benefit for the Burns high school athletic fund. A return game is planned at Scio.

filled the next spots in that order, with Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and the Washington Huskies tied for 16th.

Court Refs Reminded Of Wednesday Clinic
Prospective high school basketball referees of this area were reminded today of the Oregon School Activities association clinic in Room 4 of the senior high school in Medford on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Kramer, Australia Bound In All-Out Effort to Sign Up Rosewall, Hoad
San Francisco — (U.P.) — Jack Kramer, the blond impresario of professional tennis, headed for Australia today in an all-out drive to sign reluctant amateurs Lew Hoad and Ken Rosewall to contracts.

Kramer, mainting that the Aussies Davis Cup mainstays had promised earlier to join his troupe, said before leaving that he thought they were "pressured" in changing their minds.
