Leland A. Fisher Killed in Accident

Leland A. Fisher, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. (Bud) Fisher, 503 West Clark st., Medford, was killed outright in a motorcycle-automobile accident near El Centro, Calif., on Oct. 17, his father reported today.

The young man, a truck driver, was heading east on his motorcycle from San Diego when he came upon a carload of Marines who were having automobile trouble. He assisted them, then took one of the party on his motorcycle toward El Centro to get mechanical assistance.

The accident occurred while young Fisher and his passenger were stopped, and a car skidded and crashed into them. Both Fisher and the Marine, Cpl. Melvin M. Berry, 22, Camp Pendleton, were killed. The driver of the car was hospitalized.

The young man, an Air Force veteran, was buried in El Centro Monday following funeral services there at which the local American Legion post assisted. His father is commander of Legion Post 15, Medford, and was there for the services.
