

Nelson-Barney Ceremony Held In Church Here

Mrs. Helen Farrell Barney and Herbert E. Nelson were wedded in a small ceremony October 29 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Very Rev. Nicholas Deis officiated for the 9:30 o'clock morning rites.

Mrs. Robert Beadnell was matron of honor, and Thomas H. Ness served as best man.

For her marriage the bride wore a Dior blue wool dress with mauve colored hat and gloves. Her other accessories were black and she wore a light pink cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Beadnell wore a blue gray suit with matching stole and brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink elf roses.

Arrangements of pink quill chrysanthemums decorated the altar. Bruno Pellegrini played the organ music.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple went by plane to Acapulco, Mexico, and from there will travel to Mexico City. Their itinerary also includes Guadalajara, Taxco and other points of interest.

They will return about November 11 and will live at 2649 Roberts road. The bride's three-year-old daughter, Ann Louise, will make her home with the Nelsons.

The bride has been employed as a stenographer at the California Oregon Power company and lived here at 837 Pennsylvania avenue. She has been a Medford resident for about nine years. The bridegroom came here about seven years ago and is an assistant engineer at the California Oregon Power company.

The bride attended Nebraska City high school and Compton Junior college at Compton, Cal. Mr. Nelson is a graduate of Iowa State college. He has been living at the Roberts road address.

The bride is a daughter of Leo A. Farrell of Nebraska City and the late Mrs. Farrell.

The bridegroom's parents now deceased, lived at Keokuk, Ia.

Chapter CG will meet at the home of Mrs. R. E. Mencke, 2141 East Jackson boulevard Wednesday, November 2, for a seven o'clock supper. Mrs. Stephen R. Mosher is the assisting hostess.

Benefit Follies Opens Wednesday at Craterian

Attention is focused this week on the two-night production of the Junior Service league Follies, to be given Wednesday and Thursday at the Craterian theater. Directed by a professional showman from New York City, the cast includes service league members, their husbands and a group of friends and entertainers of the valley.

Curtain time is 8:30 o'clock both evenings. Proceeds will go to support the league's kindergarten for deaf children.

A number of dinners and other parties will precede the show. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter will be hosts for a small dinner at their home, Toppides, on Old Stage road. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Kellogg, Gold Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Calloway.

Another opening night dinner will be given by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell, Country Club estates, at their home. A creole menu will be served.

The Littrell's guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Staples, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Bender, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. L. Lemery, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mische, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Olson.

All are on the patron and patroness list for the Follies.

Program numbers for the show are the gay, traditional Follies numbers with snappy songs, dance routines and humor. The show, with Mrs. Frank Hopewell as mistress of ceremonies, opens with a special number, "It Will Warm Your Heart," written by Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr., and sung by James Keeble.

The opening number will also feature The Broadway Boys, The Broadway Girls and The Follies Doodles.

Other acts and numbers in the show include "The Gladiola Girl," "The Vamps," The 23 Skidoo Boys, "A Day at the Olympics," and skits sponsored by Crater Lake Motors and Snider's dairy. One or two audience participation numbers are planned, and a fashion show number will be sponsored by Burelson's.

A highlight of the show will be "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue," an act based on the original show which starred Gene Kelly.

Among local entertainers aiding the show is Brad Curtis, actor and vocalist currently appearing at Tally Ho restaurant. Known for his clever singing of English and music hall ballads, Brad Curtis is one of the most popular of valley entertainers.

Also assisting with the show is Miss Colleen Hope, Pat Sollee and Isabel Sickels, who will appear in the "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue" number. Among others assisting the league are Ned Vilas, Mrs. Helene Donker, Ron Clark, Hal Todd, Tom Spatz and Linda Durkee. Mrs. Edward H. Collins is talent chairman.

Tickets are on sale at Barker's, Purucker's and Swen's, and all league members have tickets for sale. Mrs. Emil Mohr is ticket chairman.

State Commanders To Be Guests of DAV and Auxiliary

Mr. and Mrs. Archie L. Brewster, Salem, department commanders of the Disabled American Veterans and auxiliary, will make official visits to the local DAV chapter and auxiliary November 8.

The meeting will be held at the Central Point Grange hall to accommodate the large attendance which is anticipated, officers pointed out. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., and a social meeting of the chapter and auxiliary will be held. The commanders will speak to the group at that time.

Coffee Klatch To Be Tuesday

Lincoln Parent-Teacher association will sponsor a coffee klatch to be held Tuesday, November 1, at the home of Mrs. Joe Jones, 603 Bartlett street. The time will be from 9:30 a.m. until 11 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served and the 25 cents charge will go to aid the PTA tuition scholarship fund.

Mrs. Juanita White and Mrs. Austin Caldwell are in charge of the event. Everyone is welcome whether a member of the PTA or not. Child care will be provided.

Doctor and Wife Return from Trip

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard have returned to Medford after a trip to Missouri where Dr. Howard attended a meeting of the board of trustees of Kirksville College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons.

After the board sessions had concluded, the Howards went to Jefferson, Ia., where they visited Dr. Howard's brother, W. G. Howard.

The Howards made the trip by plane.

Family Attends Spokane Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Edwards have returned from Spokane, Wash., where they attended the wedding of their son, Darell Edwards, to Miss Marilyn Harper.

The ceremony took place October 16 at Geiger Air Force base where the bridegroom, an airman second class in the United States Air Force, is stationed.

The Edwards were accompanied by their daughters, Linda and Barbara.

The newlyweds spent part of their honeymoon here in Medford and last week end attended the wedding of Mr. Edwards' cousin, Emmett Gerald Revis, and Miss Barbara Phipps, held at Medford First Methodist church. They have now returned to Spokane and November 2 Airman Edwards is to report for duty at a base near Alberta, Canada.

Officer, Family Arriving Today

Lt. Com. W. R. Ludwig, with Mrs. Ludwig and their two daughters, Sherrie and Sandra, are to arrive in San Francisco today from Manila in the Philippine islands. Commander Ludwig has been stationed there with the United States Navy for the past two years.

The family made the sea voyage on the USNF Barrett. The Ludwigs will visit here with the officer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ludwig, and with Mrs. Ludwig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence. Commander Ludwig's new station will be on Treasure Island in the San Francisco region.

Luncheon Honors VFW Auxiliary Department Head

Rogue River—Mrs. Ted Hopkins, department president of Oregon Veterans of Foreign Wars' Auxiliary was guest of honor at a surprise luncheon October 31 in Rogue River VFW clubhouse. Post and auxiliary members from Shady Cove, Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and Rogue River were assembled at the tables when Mrs. Hopkins was escorted into the room by her husband, Col. Ted Hopkins. She was greeted with a song written especially for her by an auxiliary member and sung on the occasion of her installation as Department president last August in Ocean Lake.

The tables were decorated with fall flowers and red berries. The place cards used the motto "Let's quit wishing and go fishing," which the department president has chosen as her slogan for the year. In the absence of Mrs. Tom Lafferty, Ashland, district president, Mrs. Dan Krotz presided as master of ceremonies. Mrs. John Leyen gave the welcome address which was followed by brief talks by Mrs. Hopkins, Department Junior Vice-Commander Harry Birch; the hospital chairman, Mrs. Birch; Dan Krotz and Colonel Hopkins.

Mrs. Hopkins was presented a corsage from the Rogue River auxiliary, a traveling clock, an iron and a check from the district and gifts from the other auxiliaries represented.

Mrs. Lafferty and Mrs. Leyen were in charge of arrangements for the luncheon to which all the members of District 7 were invited. Mrs. Rufus Hoover and Mrs. Robert Wedlock had charge of decorations; Mrs. Homer Classic and Mrs. Mary Williamson, kitchen; and Mrs. Leo Orvis, place cards. A birthday cake, made by Mrs. Clint Hawkins, was also presented to Mrs. Hopkins and served to the 57 guests for dessert.
