As We Live

By ELIZABETH HURLOCK, PH.D.

Adult Wife and Mother Is Still Immature Girl

Some people are mature even when very young in that they accept responsibilities and can be counted on. Others, by contrast, show little maturity of behavior even when they are legally of age and have the rights, privileges, and duties of an adult.

(Q)—"My wife is 25 years old. We have been married for seven years and have two young children. Everyone says she is immature. She leaves the house, telling me she is going to the movies, and then does not return for several days. She goes to her folks' home and leaves me in charge of the children. Fortunately my mother is a widow and is always willing to come help out. Now my wife has gone to visit a friend in another city, and says she thinks she will stay because she can get a job that pays good money. She has written and asked me to send her a two-way ticket so she can come home and get her clothes. Should I do this or insist that she resume her responsibilities?"—M.R.

(A)—Insisting that your wife stay home and assume her responsibilities may not do much good. She is an irresponsible, selfish person and does not feel the sense of duty normally expected in a person of her age. Just because your wife is 25 years old, and the mother of two children does not make her a mature person. As people have pointed out to you, she is immature in her behavior. Whether you can point out that it is time for her to grow up and act her age will depend upon how much she wants to grow up. That her parents allowed her to stay with them, knowing she had left you and the children, would suggest that she has been encouraged to be irresponsible. Having found life easier and pleasanter under such conditions, it is questionable whether anything you have to say will make her want to change now.

Newberg Youth, 14, Killed by Shotgun

Nedberg, Ore. — (U.P.) — A 14-year-old boy accidentally shot himself to death with a shotgun late yesterday as he hunted birds with his father about three miles west of here.

The victim was Leland Kuhn, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Kuhn, Newberg. He was Yamhill county's first hunting fatality of the season.

Yamhill county coroner Don Hodson said the boy apparently caused the weapon to discharge as he dragged it through a barbed wire fence after him, catching the hammer on one of the bars.

The accident occurred about 5 p.m. The boy died almost instantly.

It was Oregon's seventh shooting fatality of the deer and bird hunting seasons.

Klamath Youngster Nearly Suffocated

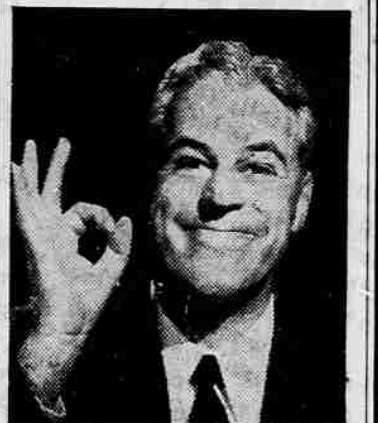

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — Ten-month-old George Leonard Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Callahan, was rescued from his smoke-filled home here today by a neighbor.

The child was revived with fire department equipment and hospital attendants said his condition was good.

Fire Chief Roy Rowe said the fire was caused when a kettle on the stove boiled dry while Mrs. Callahan was out of the house.

Mrs. Melba Snyder saw the smoke and broke a bedroom window to rescue the baby. She was treated for cuts on her arm.

"My Sal knows her stuff!"

► I have to hand it to my Sal. She's just a whizz at taking the work out of housework. For instance, most gals practically kill themselves scrubbing and waxing wood floors. But not my Sal! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. The job's done in half the time and with a lot less work. And you should hear all the swell compliments about our beautiful wood floors! My Sal and her Bruce Cleaning Wax sure make simple work of a tough chore. And they make me mighty proud too!

► P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Sal uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

Your own kitchen test will prove:

MORE GOOD-EATING MEAT IN SAFEWAY'S GROUND BEEF!

Low fat content of Safeway's ground beef means less shrinkage in cooking ... more good-eating meat!

As you know, it's the amount of meat you wind up with after cooking that reveals the value of the ground beef you buy. A comparison of Safeway Ground Beef, with ordinary ground, in your own kitchen test, will prove the greater value of the meat you buy at Safeway. It's uniformly low fat content ... holds its volume well in cooking with less shrinkage. Ground fresh daily ... from lean tender chunks of Beef.
