Baseball World Pays Respects To Clark Griffith

Washington—(U.P.)—The baseball world—bleacher fans, front office executives and outstanding players—said its last respects today to Clark Griffith, American League pioneer who devoted more than a half century to the game.

The "Old Fox," as Griffith was affectionately referred to by associates and ardent baseball fans, died last Thursday after a five-day battle with a massive stomach hemorrhage and complications.

Scores of his former associates, friends and admirers gathered at Hamline Methodist Church where funeral services were held for the public. Private rites for the family were held a half-hour earlier.

A Masonic graveside ceremony at the Fort Lincoln Cemetery followed the church services. Active pallbearers for Griffith, co-founder of the American League and owner-president of the Washington Senators, included Masons who are either in baseball now or were in former years.

Honorary pallbearers included President Eisenhower and former Presidents Hoover and Truman, Korean President Syngman Rhee, Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, former Vice-President John Nance Garner, baseball officials, members of the Washington club, and of the press, radio and television.

Browns, Bears Torrid In Pro Football Race

By UNITED PRESS

The Cleveland Browns and Chicago Bears—professional football's most successful teams—were the National Football League's "hottest" clubs today as the huskies hit the halfway mark in their seasons amid a swirl of player brawls.

The Browns (5-1) took the undisputed Eastern division lead Sunday, snapping a tie with the Pittsburgh Steelers (4-2) by defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 26-20. The Philadelphia Eagles gave the Browns a big assist by shutting out Pittsburgh, 24-0.

The Bears' third straight victory was a key triumph that helped the Baltimore Colts deadlock the Los Angeles Rams for the Western division lead. The Bears mauled the Rams, 31-20, at Los Angeles after the Colts scored a 14-10 Saturday night decision over the Green Bay Packers.

In the other Sunday games, the San Francisco Forty-Niners handed the Detroit Lions their sixth straight defeat, 38-21; and the New York Giants defeated the Washington Redskins, 35-7.

The Rams and Colts have 4-2 records and the Bears, Packers and Forty-Niners are only a game behind with 3-3 marks while the Lions (0-6) are last. In the East, the Redskins (3-3) Cardinals and Eagles (each 2-3-1) and the Giants (2-4) are strung out behind the Browns and Steelers.

Don Paul scored on a 60-yard punt return and set up what proved the winning touchdown—Otto Graham's four-yard pass to Ray Renfro—but the Browns had trouble subduing the aroused Cardinals in the rain at Chicago.

Ollie Matson and Harry Thompson of the Cardinals plus Cleveland's Herschel Forester and Bob Gain were thrown out for fighting.

The Bears rolled over the Rams as they earned their decisive upset win by outpacing, outrunning and outmaneuvering the home club. They celebrated by carrying Coach George Halas

District Football Championships To Be Settled on Jackson Fields

High school football district championships will be decided on Jackson county gridirons this week end—two for sure and one perhaps.

Phoenix will be host to Co-Quille in the play-off of District 6 A-2 division winners. The game is tentatively set for Friday night with final arrangements to be completed today possibly resulting in a change. Final decision is up to the district committee.

St. Mary's will entertain Malin at 8 p.m. on Saturday at the Medford high field in the tussle for the District 5B pennant. The Medford parochial eleven won the Jackson county loop toga and Malin is Klamath county titlist.

A Klamath Falls protest, which may be settled today, put a cloud on the full significance of the Grants Pass-Medford high District 6 A-1 encounter.

Jayvees Vie At Ashland

Medford high school junior varsity gridders play at Ashland tonight in a contest set for 7 p.m. The Junior Tornado, unbeaten, will be after its third victory and will have the favored role. Medford has a 12 to 12 tie on record with the Crater high reserves who walloped Ashland 51 to 0 last week.

HOCKEY

By UNITED PRESS

The Montreal Canadiens "got well" during a weekend home-and-home series with the Detroit Red Wings to re-open a four-point lead in the National Hockey League.

After winning only one of their last five games, the Flying Frenchmen skated to a 2-1 triumph over Detroit at Montreal Saturday night and then rallied for a 2-2 tie against the Red Wings at Detroit in Sunday night's lone action.

The Providence Reds opened a three-goal lead over second-place Pittsburgh in the American Hockey league race as the result of an aggressive 5-4 victory over the Hershey Bears.

In the only other game played Sunday night, Pittsburgh lost ground by playing a 2-2 tie with the Buffalo Bisons.

Lewis and Clark Keeps NW Loop Slate Unmarred

By UNITED PRESS

Northwest and Oregon Collegiate conference teams got a five-game workout over the weekend with the powerful Lewis and Clark Pioneers keeping their NWC record spotless with a 34-6 victory over Willamette in Salem.

It was the third straight conference victory for the Pioneers who are fielding their strongest team in history this season. Frosh Mel Gillett started the ball rolling with a 76-yard romp for the Pioneers' first TD.

The victory spoiled Willamette's homecoming but the same thing happened to the Pacific homecoming in Forest Grove as the College of Idaho Coyotes posted a 20-12 win. Idaho's Gary Collins tallied twice in the first half and went on to win despite a third period Pacific rally.

Another NW clash in McMinnville saw Whitman reverse a 12-0 deficit to win over Linfield, 21-12. The Wildcats showed a lot of fire in the first half, but Whitman bounced back to take the lead and settle the issue with George Sullivan's 66-yard run late in the game.

Oregon Collegiate conference action saw Southern Oregon roll over Oregon Tech 33-0 in Klamath Falls with a brilliant passing attack. Quarterback Bill Seymour hit 15 out of 25 attempts for 253 yards.

In La Grande, Eastern Oregon was engineered to a 26-20 victory over Portland State by freshman quarterback Bob Brown. He connected for two touchdown passes despite a rain-soaked field.

Dan Giovanelli Takes On Melis

New York—(U.P.)—Danny Giovanelli of Brooklyn, a boxer-puncher, will meet mauler Paulo Melis of Montreal, ex-welterweight champion of Italy, tonight in a TV 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

Odds-makers quoted "even money" on the outcome. Giovanelli, 23, comes back to the welterweight division in this bout. He attempted to invade the middleweight ranks in his last scrap on Aug. 24, but was soundly trounced by Ray Drake at Madison Square garden. Danny was too slow at 153 3/4 pounds.

Melis, 26, is a slam-bang mauler who throws much leather but is only a fair puncher. His 33-8-2 list includes only six kayoes.

Webfoots-Prep For WSC Clash

Eugene—(U.P.)—Oregon, with its third win in a row tucked neatly in its pocket, began preparing today for Saturday's game with Washington State at Pullman.

The Webfoots, 25-0 victors over Idaho here Saturday, will be favored over WSC but the Cougars have always been rough for the Ducks at Pullman.

Coach Len Casanova praised End Phil McHugh, Center Norm Chapman and Halfback Jack Brown for their play against the Vandals. Otherwise he termed the game "a pretty sloppy performance, in which we were fortunate not to have suffered more by our mistakes."

STARS, PROS SPLIT New York—(U.P.)—The college basketball All-Stars split a day-night doubleheader with the professional New York Knickerbockers Sunday at Madison Square Garden. The Knicks took the night game, 102-74, after dropping the matinee contest, 101-88.

Durocher Might Replace Grimm At Milwaukee Helm Next Spring

By MILTON RICHMAN

New York—(U.P.)—Leo Durocher will replace Charlie Grimm as manager of the Milwaukee Braves by next June 15 "if the club doesn't show substantial improvement by that time," it was learned Sunday night.

Milwaukee officials feeling that the Braves were lackadaisical the past season and needed "more fire" in 1956, considered hiring Durocher after he left the Giants last month but decided to "go along with Grimm a little longer," according to a high-placed National league source.

So instead of letting Grimm go the Braves reshuffled their coaching staff, releasing Johnny Cooney and Bucky Walters and bringing in a pair of "fiery individuals"—Fred Haney and Charlie Root—in their place, Braves Deal Expected.

The Braves undoubtedly will deny that Grimm has to make an improved showing by mid-June to keep his job but Milwaukee owner Lou Perini certainly will not deny he personally told this writer that he was "never more confident we would win" than he was at the start of the 1954 season.

Perini also felt the 1955 Braves were strong enough to beat any club in baseball, "including the Yankees in the World Series."

Under Grimm, however, Milwaukee finished third in 1954 and second, 13 1/2 games behind the pennant-winning Dodgers,

Wes Santee Suspended By AAU Men

Kansas City, Mo.—(U.P.)—Wes Santee, America's top miler whose expense accounts led to his suspension by the Missouri Valley AAU registration committee, couldn't be reached for comment today.

There was some question of whether he will be available for the Olympic Games to be held in Australia in 1956. But a committee member, who declined the use of his name, was hopeful.

"Santee is a good boy and is not guilty of running for money," the committee member said. "He is a good American representative for the Olympics. I think it can all be worked out."

Efforts to reach Santee at Quantico, Va., where he is stationed with the Marine Corps were unavailing. A Marine Corps spokesman said Santee "is away on a running trip." He wouldn't elaborate.

In New York, Dan Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the National AAU, said he did not know how the Missouri Valley's action would affect Santee as far as the 1956 Olympics are concerned.

May Be Barred "We shall have to wait until we get the official report," Ferris said. "However, if the suspension is for one year—the usual in such cases—Santee would be barred from participating in the Olympic tryouts."

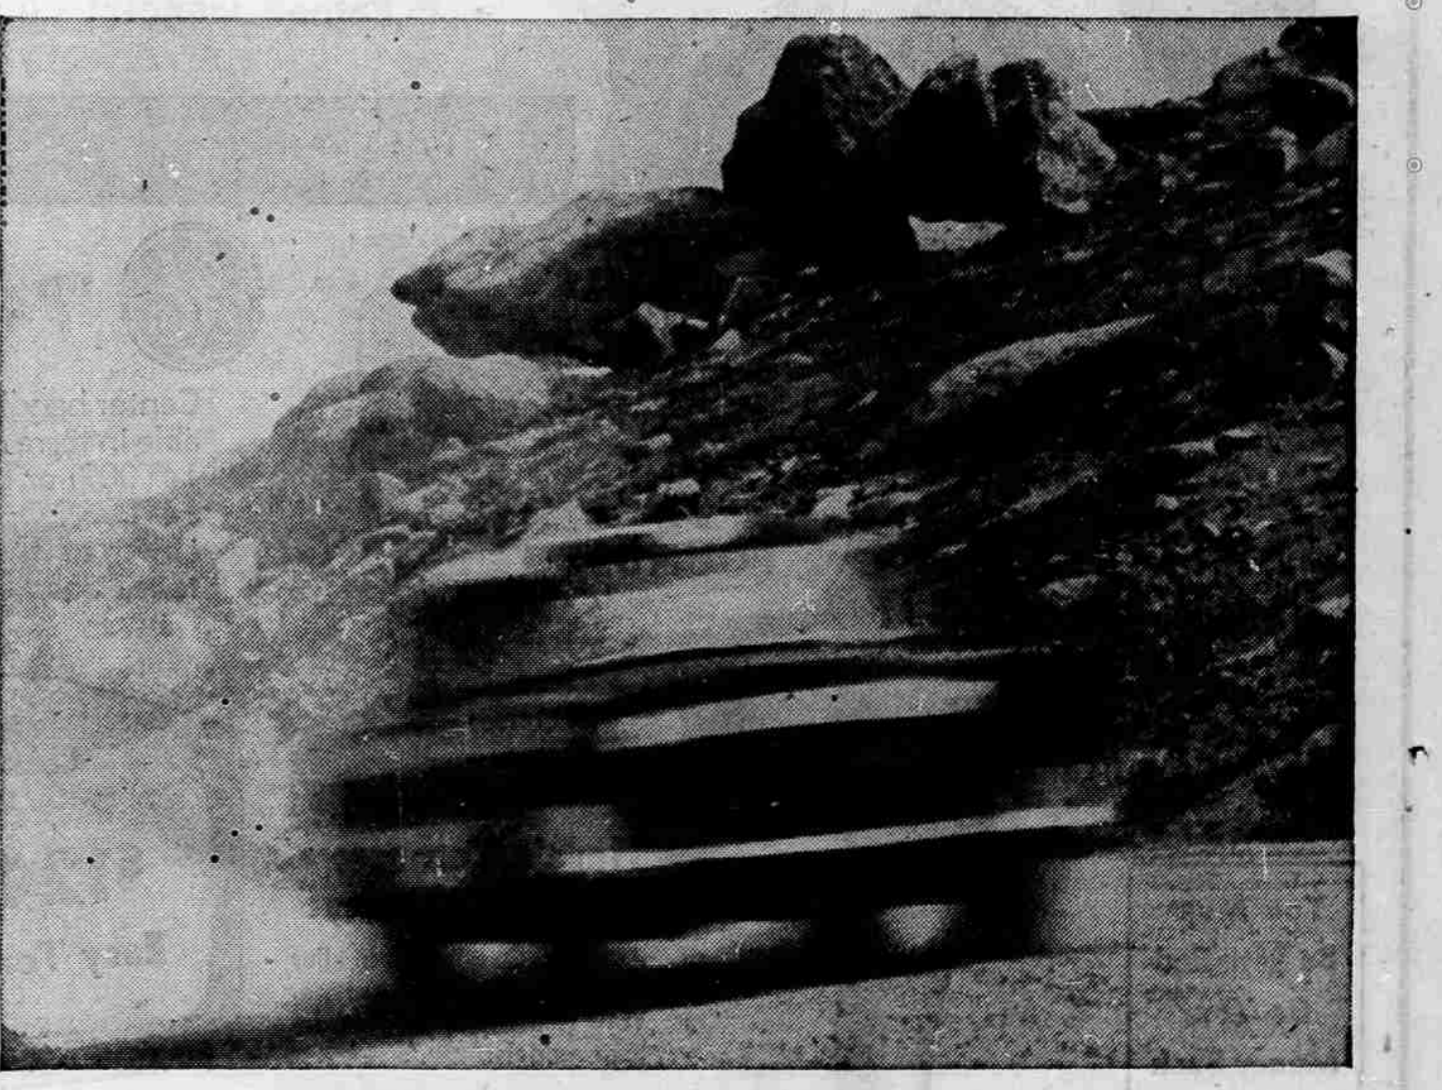

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.
