New York — (U.P.) — Fraley's Follies and the week end football "winners" — on a form week end where any upset will have to be a big one.

Game of the Week
Michigan over Illinois — The Illinois have scored several amazing upsets over Michigan through the years. But this Michigan team, tops in the nation and Rose Bowl bound, has great heart and much poise and figures to spring its usual second half hurricane.

The East
Navy over Duke — The bigger bounce.

Army over Yale — Really rolling now.

Notre Dame over Penn — The Penn relays arrive early.

Syracuse over Penn State — The blueplate special.

Also: Cornell over Brown, Columbia over Dartmouth, Pitt over Virginia, Colgate over Bucknell, Holy Cross over Dayton, North Carolina State over Boston University, West Virginia over George Washington, Lafayette over Rutgers, Albright over Lebanon Valley and Lehigh over VMI.

The Midwest
Iowa over Minnesota — Sum-pin's gotta give.

Michigan State over Purdue — No joy ride.

Ohio State over Indiana — Those pore lil' boys.

Wisconsin over Northwest — Breezing.

Also: Oklahoma over Missouri, Nebraska over Iowa State, Kansas over Kansas State, Marquette over Detroit, Wichita over Cincinnati.

The West
UCLA over COP — A tough alleged breather.

USC over Stanford — If they've thawed out.

Washington over California — What happened?

Oregon over Washington State — A country center.

Also: Oregon State over Idaho, Colorado over Utah, Utah State over Brigham Young and Denver over Colorado college.

The South
Tulane over Alabama — Real low tide.

Maryland over LSU — How to

Boxing Arena Opens at SF Next Month

By HAL WOOD

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Television, which has changed the entertainment habits of the world, will get credit for the new home of boxing in this area when fight promoter Bennie Ford opens his San Francisco garden next month.

The $175,000 edifice, possibly the first building constructed in the U.S. specifically for fights since the end of World War II, will be the home of regular Monday night cards — plus possible national TV shows on Wednesdays and Fridays.

"This is going to be a cozy little place," says Ford with pardonable pride. "We have built it to seat about 2200 fans — with every seat a ringside seat. We have kept in mind that in this age of television that big crowds at ringside are a thing of the past in the fight game except for big-name battles — usually ones involving only a champion."

Up-To-Date
It is Ford's belief that this will be one of the finest little fight clubs in America — and definitely the most up-to-date.

"In most fight clubs the television cameras are placed on scaffolds on a temporary basis; and the smoke is so thick that the cameras have trouble picking up the action," Ford points out.

"But here we have taken care of that. We have built a special television booth. And we have installed an $11,000 ventilating system that keeps the arena completely empty of foul air and smoke."

Brennan Chosen Coach of Week
By United Press

South Bend, Ind. — (U.P.) — The old man was there all right.

Just as certainly as in the days when the Four Horsemen were the scourge of collegiate grid-irons, you could feel the presence of the bald Norwegian.

But on this occasion on the Knute Rockne memorial football game, the credit belonged to another — and nobody would have been prouder than the legendary Rockne himself.

Irish Lad
He's the United Press coach of the week, that brother of an Irish lad, Terry Brennan of Notre Dame.

When Notre Dame's new stadium was dedicated in the fall of 1930, Navy's Middies were the opponents and Notre Dame won spectacularly, 26-2.

That was when Rockne's second great set of four horsemen, Joe Savoldi, Frank Carideo, Marchmont Schwartz, and Marty Brill, were running wild.

Saturday the names were Paul Hornung, Dean Studer, Don Schaefer, and Jimmy Morse. Remember them well. These backs of Brennan's are destined for a measure of fame on their own.

Fullbacks Work At Oregon State
Corvallis — (U.P.) — Coach Johnny Prothro of the Oregon State Beavers tested new fullback material today to replace the gap left by first stringer Arlo Wenstrand, who is out of action indefinitely with a wrenched knee.

FIGHTER QUILTS
Toronto — (U.P.) — Earl Walls, Canadian heavyweight champion who currently is ranked eighth in the Ring Magazine ratings, announced his retirement Tuesday night.

Oregon Heads Conference In Total Offense, Rushing; Arnett Individual Leader

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Half-back Jon Arnett of Southern California dominated Pacific Coast conference statistics today for the second week in a row.

The Trojan junior tops PCC players in total offense, scoring, kickoff returns and punt returns. Arnett is second to fullback Bill Tarr of Stanford in rushing.

In team statistics, Oregon moved into the total offense lead while Washington retained its leadership in total defense.

Arnett has 634 yards in total offense. Close behind him are Sam Brown of UCLA with 619 yards and Joe Francis of Oregon State with 606. The rushing battle is a tight race among Tarr who has 520 yards net, Arnett, 502, and Brown, 496.

Stanford quarterback John Brodie is the top passer with 36 completions in 70 attempts for 490 yards and one touchdown. Bob Iverson of Washington State has 32 completions for 405 yards while Ronnie Knox of UCLA has connected on 30 of 51 passes for 426 yards.

Arnett has scored 77 points on 11 touchdowns and 11 conversions. Brown has 52 points and Jack Morris of Oregon has 47.

Wesley Top Interceptor
Other individual leaders are: Interceptions: Sam Wesley, Oregon State, six for 61 yards; receptions: Roger Ramseier, California, 17 for 209 yards and Arnie Pelluer, Washington State, 16 for 211 yards; Punting: Ray Westfall, Oregon State, 17 for a 40.2 average; Punt returns: Arnett, 13 for a 20.4-yard average, and kickoff returns: Arnett, 9 for a 32.2-yard average.

Oregon has a total offense game average of 323.3 yards compared to 323.1 for UCLA and 319.3 for Stanford. In total defense, Washington has 212.1-yard average, UCLA 218.3 and Southern California 248.1.

Oregon is the rushing leader with a 243.7-yard game average, followed by Southern California 215.4 and UCLA 199.7. Stanford leads in passing with an average of 135.6 yards. UCLA is second with 123.4 and Idaho third with 119.

UCLA is the rushing defense leader, yielding only 142 yards per game on the ground. Washington has a 144.6-yard average and SC 150.3. In pass defense, Oregon State is the leader with a 66.3-yard game average. Washington follows with a 67.8-yard mark and UCLA 76.3.

Other team leaders are: Interceptions: Oregon 13 for 214 yards and Oregon State 13 for 189 yards; punting: California, 40 for a 38.2 yard average; punt returns: SC, 28 for a 17.9-yard average; and kickoff returns: SC, 21, for a 29-yard average.

Ronnie Pleases Mentor, Father
Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Harvey Knox turned out to watch his stepson, Ronnie, and the UCLA Bruins practice yesterday. Ronnie didn't disappoint the elder Knox.

The UCLA second-string tailback completed nine out of 10 passes in an aerial drill under pressure. Coach Henry (Red) Sanders nodded approval. Harvey Knox nodded his approval, too.

The Bruins also worked on an offensive ground plays in a dummy drill for their game Saturday with College of Pacific.

SPINKS REINSTATED
Green Bay, Wis. — (U.P.) — Guard Jack Spinks, a veteran National Football League player who was released by the Green Bay Packers before the start of the present season, has been reinstated. Spinks replaces line-backer and center George Timberlake who has been placed on the military reserve list. Tom Bettis will take over Timberlake's duties behind center Jim Ringo.

COUGARS RETURN
Pullman, Wash. — (U.P.) — Two injured Washington State grid-ers returned to the Cougar ranks yesterday and are expected to see action against the University of Oregon Ducks Saturday.

Coach Al Kircher welcomed back center John Clark, who has been out since the first game of the season with a broken ankle, and starting end Russ Quackenbush, who was injured in the Idaho game.

VANDALS LOSE RESA
Moscow, Idaho — (U.P.) — Senior starting guard Eivand Resa of the University of Idaho Vandals has been lost to the team permanently because of a concussion he suffered against Oregon last Saturday, according to Coach Skip Stahley.

BEAR PLAYER OUT
Berkeley, Calif. — (U.P.) — The University of California Golden Bears, plagued with one of their worst seasons in years, will go against the University of Washington Huskies Saturday at only part strength. Coach Lynn Waldorf said end Ed Brant would definitely be out of action, and tackle Dick King and halfback John Cherry were on the doubtful list.

INDIANS ILL
Stanford, Calif. — (U.P.) — Coach Chuck Taylor kept an eye on his fluctuating sick list today as his Stanford Indians drilled for Saturday's test against the Trojans of Southern California. Chris Marshall returned to duty yesterday after one day on the sidelines, but Don Carswell came down with flu. The usually optimistic Taylor had no prediction as to the outcome of Saturday's battle.

EYES PASS DEFENSE
Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Coach Jess Hill of Southern California looked for new ways today to stop the Stanford Indians' passing attack, which is tops in the Pacific Coast conference.

Ducks Drill Hard For Cougar Fray
Eugene — (U.P.) — A determined University of Oregon football team was hard at work today preparing for Saturday's game against Washington State at Pullman — where the Ducks haven't been able to win a game since 1949.

Coach Len Casanova held a long chalk talk yesterday, designed to eliminate the "many mistakes" the Ducks made last week in defeating the University of Idaho Vandals, 25-0.

St. Mary's Girding for Malin Crew

St. Mary's of Medford heightened drills this week as it prepared for its District 5B title tussle her on Saturday night with the Malin high Mustangs.

The Crusaders didn't have a game last week but they continued right along with workouts to get set for the heftier Klamath county eleven.

The Medford crew had two main casualties after its final Jackson County B League mix with Jacksonville. Halfback Laval Meunier suffered a dislocated elbow and End Jerry Flakus a concussion.

Lots of Power
It was still doubtful today that Meunier will see action. However the scabcat resumed conditioning workouts Monday. He'll probably be in uniform for the game.

Against Malin, St. Mary's will oppose a club with lots of power. The Mustangs use a single wing offense. They have the size and ruggedness to go with it. But to keep the opposition guessing, they also throw in a few T plays.

The Crusaders use both the T and double wing and play a spectacular brand of football which relies much on speed.

St. Mary's is defending district champion and won its second Jackson county toga. Malin is successor to Chilouquin in Klamath county.

Junior High Frays Slated
Intracity competition this week ends the football year for McLoughlin and Hedrick junior high, eighth and ninth grade teams.

Eighth graders of the two schools clash on Thursday. Ninth grade teams mix on Friday. Games both days will be at 3:30 p.m. on the McLoughlin turf.

Among the seventh graders, McLoughlin Whites and Black are to mix sometime this week end for the intramural crown. Hedrick Reds and Blues meet in a finale fray next week.

Hedrick and McLoughlin eighth graders tied 6 to 6 in their first game of the season. Ninth graders of the two schools have met only in a practice scrimmage with McLoughlin coming out ahead 13 to 0.

SOCHAK MOST IMPROVED
Evanston, Ill. — (U.P.) — Mike Souchak, former Duke University football star from Durham, N. C., has been named as the "most improved golfer of 1955" in a vote conducted by members of the Professional Golfers Association. His record shows a rise from 36th to fifth place on the money winning list.
