

St. Mary's Peps Up as 5B Tussle With Malin Nears

St. Mary's high gridders are "beginning to pep up" for the District 5B title encounter here with Malin, Coach Millard Webb stated today. The scramble between the Jackson and Klamath county champions is set for 8 p.m. Saturday on the Medford high school field.

"I think they're going to be up," Webb reported. "They're working hard." The club has scrimmaged twice this week and Webb indicated that the Crusaders "looked pretty good."

The St. Mary's gang is still getting lots of fundamental work in blocking, tackling and passing. Webb indicated that the club is polishing its old plays rather than adding much that's new.

Flakus Out

The mentor stated that his squad is still somewhat "beat up" but said that for the most part injuries are not serious. End Jerry Flakus is definitely out because of a concussion suffered in the Jacksonville game. Halfback Laval Meunier, who suffered a dislocated elbow in the same scrap, is a highly doubtful participant, although Webb said, "There's a chance on him."

One of the battles on the club now is for a starting tackle spot. It's between Dave Crevier and Eddie Fogal. Crevier, hurt in the opener with Illinois Valley is just now hitting stride and has looked excellent in the last couple of drills. It appears a tussle, too, between Rodney

Read and Dennis Dibble for an end assignment. Dibble is coming along and showing good defensively. Tony Miksche is another wingman rated as "coming along." Dave Hartley is catching stride as a linebacker.

Paup Hurts Ankle

Halfback Dick Paup hurt an ankle in practice Tuesday but the injury is not thought serious.

Facing Malin the Crusaders will meet a big tough single wing club led by Ray Johnson, 160-pound left half. He runs as well as passes. Power is provided by Norm Oliva, 190-pound right half, who's also good at catching passes. Glen Steyskal at fullback is another vet.

At ends, Roger Dokken is a good offensive lad while Wes Drasil is a tough defensive player. Allen Meyers, Roy Ingram, Grant Saunders and John Pierce are about even in their line play. Malin, like St. Mary's has six victories for the year. The Mustangs also tied Henley.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE

At the end of the 11th week, the Commercial League ends up with "position night," meaning the title for the round. Mail Tribune had a rough time with Dad's Hideaway, and only managed to stay tied for first with a close third game. Quality Market took advantage with a 4-0 series from Valentine Cafe for the other part of top spot.

Olsen's bowled a 4-0 victory over Alexander and Brown and slipped passed Crater Lake Motors with fourth. Crater Lake fell to the Table Rock Lumbermen 3-1 when Hal Schroeder put together a 675 series on 248, 208, 219 games. Morning Fresh Bakery went ahead of Bates Candy with a 3-1 series.

White City Sales-Courtesy Chevrolet series will be made up on Sunday afternoon, 3 p.m.
