

Central Point Firm Gets Bridge Contract

Portland —(U.P.)— A Southern Oregon firm has received a $38,705 contract from the Bureau of Public Roads to build a 120-foot reinforced concrete bridge in Lane county. R&M Construction Co., Central Point, will build the bridge seven miles northeast of Oakridge on Squaw Butte road.

Exploding Capsule Costs Boy Sight of Eye

Portland —(U.P.)— Darrel Turner, 12, lost the sight of his left eye when a gas-filled capsule used to inflate emergency life rafts exploded in his hands when he held it over a flaming match. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner, said they had no idea of where their son had gotten the capsule.

Prices Paid Oregon Farmers Decreases

Portland —(U.P.)— The Federal Crop Reporting service said today average prices received by Oregon farmers dropped one per cent between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15. The all-crops price index dropped three per cent because of lower prices for apples, pears and seed crops. Higher price for dairy products partly offset declines on meat animals, eggs and wool.

Surprised US Soldier Finds Self Tenant Of English Castle

London —(U.P.)—The Earl of Lucan invited a surprised U. S. Air Force captain to the House of Lords yesterday to celebrate the fact the Lucan's family castle is becoming the captain's family home. The guest, Capt. Robert L. Foster of Elsinore, Calif., wandered into Lord Lucan's estate in Essex looking for an apartment for himself, his wife and their seven children. Lord Lucan offered him the whole place. Thought Butler Owner Foster, of U.S. Third Air Force Headquarters, had just been transferred from London to Wetherfield in Essex and saw the big Lucan home on a house-hunting drive. "I thought, well, they might be able to rent me some of it," he explained. "A butler opened the door. I thought at first he was the guy who owned the place but he was not."

Lord Lucan, who is Socialist whip (floor leader) of the House of Lords, was not at home then but Foster left his name and the peer invited him back later. Foster said after he looked over the inlaid floors, the original Chippendale chairs, crown derby China and Persian rugs he told the Earl at their first meeting it might not be a good idea for him to move in after all with his children. Has 14 Rooms "But the earl and his wife took a walk on the tennis court and then came back and said he would have the whole place," Foster said. "Was I surprised." So Foster is now tenant of "Wake's Coine Place," a manor of 14 rooms, three bathrooms and two acres of land including private tennis courts. "With my seven children the space will be well used," Foster said. He said the rent for their 18-month lease is "amazingly reasonable."

Physicians Reveal Wife's Hiding Place Piedimonte Dalife, Italy —(U.P.)— Physicians opened up the stomach of Addolorata Carbonelli, 42, a farmer's wife, here last night and removed a bundle of keys. The woman said she swallowed the keys to the drawer where the family savings are kept to prevent her husband from squandering the money.
