

Marshfield, Medford Vale in Magic Circle

By UNITED PRESS
Marshfield, Medford, Vale and Tillamook moved into the magic circle in state high school football action last night leaving only three class A-1 and A-2 titles undecided throughout Oregon.

Marshfield, the state's top-ranked team in the coaches' poll, won its annual "civil war" tussle with North Bend by a handy 32-0 count to nail down the district 5 crown.

Medford came through in another backyard battle to defeat Grants Pass 14-7 for the district title.

The only undecided playoff spot in the class A-1 is in district 8. Albany downed Corvallis 19-7 and South Salem defeated North Salem 21-7 to throw the race into a three-way tie to be decided by a vote. Albany, Corvallis and South Salem now have 5-1 district records.

The big battle in A-2 ranks last night was in eastern Oregon where Vale and Ontario collided. The two teams were unbeaten going into the fray and Vale came out on top by the odd score of 9-8 to capture the district 7 A-2 title.

Tillamook edged St. Helens 12-7 for the district 1 A-2 crown. Dallas Victor.

Undecided playoff spots in A-2 competition are in district 2 where Newport, 13-0 winner over Siuslaw Friday night, and Reedsport, 50-0 victor over Taft, are tied. Coquille and Phoenix

Hoop Drills Will Start For Tornado

Varsity basketball practice will get underway Monday at Medford high school.

Coach Frank Roelandt said that the first week of workouts likely will be limited to juniors and seniors wishing to try out for the team. Sophomore prospects may be called out the following week.

Five lettermen return from last season's crew which won second place honors in the state tournament. But, with such regulars as Larry Copple, Glenn Rector, Everett Kastner, Glenn Peterson and Jerry Kalapus graduated, Roelandt faces a considerable rebuilding job.

Football Delays
Of the lettermen only three are expected to report for the first drills, John Foust, Lloyd Cearley and Bob Tisdell. Dick McLoughlin is still playing football and Ed Reinking, who suffered a broken ankle in grid practice, still has the ankle in a cast.

Several other top cage prospects are still with the football club and will not report to Roelandt for the hoop sport until the grid season is over.

The mentor said that, despite the fact these players will be delayed in their maplecourt turnout, he hopes that the Black Tornado "goes all the way in football." He pointed out that success in the grid game builds up the school's athletic morale for the rest of the year. Roelandt's main aim is to be ready by January 6 for defense of the Southern Oregon Conference crown.

Knox Leads UCLA To Win Over Pacific

Stockton, Calif. —(U.P.)—Controversial Ronnie Knox Saturday engineered UCLA to a 34-0 victory over College of Pacific club.

Knox scored one touchdown, passed for another and set up a third with a sensational 87-yard kick. Some 26,000 fans sat in warm, almost summer-like, weather as UCLA rolled up a 20-0 halftime lead and watched a hard-fighting COP team fall apart.

Despite the 20-0 halftime score, COP was in the ball game for the first 30 minutes. Both UCLA and COP had seven first downs in the first half, while COP had a net yardage of 96 to UCLA's 97.

The bad breaks which upset the COP club came in the second quarter. The big one was a blunder by Referee Joe Zigna. Zigna lost the ball on the tricky ball-handling of COP Quarterback Junior Reynosa, and whistled the ball dead at the line of scrimmage while Reynosa was completing a 30-yard pass to the UCLA 36. One the next play, a much-ired COP team lost its running spark when ground-eating Halfback Ken Swearingen went out of the game for the day with a leg injury.

Services For Cy Young

By HASKELL SHORT
United Press Sports Writer
Peoli, Ohio —(U.P.)—Denton (Cy) Young, regarded by many as the greatest baseball pitcher who ever lived, will be buried beside his wife Monday in a little church cemetery he was able to see from his nearby farmhouse window.

Masonic services for Young, who died here at the age of 88 Friday, will be held at 7 p.m. (EST) Sunday while the Elks will also hold services for the baseball Hall of Fame one hour later. Regular funeral services are scheduled for Monday afternoon in Newcomerstown, Ohio, and later at the Peoli Methodist Church.

Young, who won 511 games and lost 315 while appearing in 906 major league games from 1890 through 1911, died suddenly Friday while sitting in his favorite rocking chair. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Born in nearby Gilmore, Ohio, Young, whose nickname was a contraction of "Cyclone," spent most of his major league career with the Cleveland Nationals. He pitched for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1899 and 1900, then with the Boston Red Sox until 1908. He returned to Cleveland in 1909 and was traded to the Boston Braves during 1911, quitting at the end of that season to retire to his farm here.

JAPANESE ENTHUSIAST
Honolulu, T. H. —(U.P.)—Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees claims that "Japan has the most enthusiastic baseball fans in the world." Webb, who accompanied the Yankees on their tour of Japan, says the tour was "one of the best things I have ever seen for cementing international relations."

Pro League Heads Toward Fourth Attendance Season

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer

The National Football league, rolling toward its fourth straight record season attendance, began the second half of its 1955 campaign last night with the Detroit Lions playing host to the Baltimore Colts and the Pittsburgh Steelers visiting the Chicago Cardinals.

The other clubs play today. The San Francisco Forty-Niners (3-3) are 1½ point choices against the Rams (4-2) at Los Angeles; the Bears (3-3) are 10-point favorites to whip the Green Bay Packers (3-3) at Chicago; the Browns (5-1) are favored over the New York Giants (2-4) by 10 points at Cleveland; and the Philadelphia Eagles (2-3-1) are seven-point choices against the Redskins (3-3) at Washington.

Charlie Trippi, the veteran back who suffered severe head injuries in an exhibition game with San Francisco, may make his first appearance of the season for the Cardinals. He has been fitted with a special protective mask.

Pittsburgh is in pretty good physical condition and has strengthened its kicking department by signing Little Tad Weed, place-picking specialist from Ohio State who sparked the College All-Stars to their upset win over the Cleveland Browns last August.

Rams Hit by Injuries
The Rams will be minus full-back Dan Towler and end Bob Boyd but Skeet Quinlan, an offensive back who has been out with a knee injury, may be ready to go against the Forty-Niners.

The champion Browns will play New York with safetyman Tommy James and rookie line-backer Sam Palumbo on the sidelines. The Giants are in good shape. Cleveland has the longest current winning streak in the league, capturing five straight since dropping its opener to Washington.

The Bears also are hot. They dropped their first three games but defeated Baltimore, San Francisco and Los Angeles in their last three starts. The Packers defeated the Bears last month 24-3, but figure the Chicago bruisers will be as tough as usual on their home field.

Philadelphia will be out to avenge a 31-30 loss to Washington last month.

GRIZZLIES WIN
Bozeman, Mont. —(U.P.)—The Montana Grizzlies defeated cross-state rival Montana State 19-0 Saturday behind the effective passing arm of Sophomore Halfback Norman Kampshorr. The 180-pound back from Glendive, Mont., figured in every scoring play and threw two other end zone passes that didn't count.

BEAR VS. CAR
Strawberry Valley, Calif. —(U.P.)—Mrs. Ray Tretzel was driving along a road in Plumas county when a bear, apparently frightened by a nearby blasting, ran blindly at full speed into the side of her car. The bear was momentarily stunned by the impact, but shook itself and ambled off into the woods. The side and door of the auto were wrecked.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

Frank Rector Top Prospect At Portland

Portland — Frank Rector, all-state second team performer from Medford's high school basketball team last season, is a leading candidate among 15 freshmen prospects who initiated basketball practice this week at the University of Portland.

Rector, 5-foot 11-inch guard hopeful shows promise according to Al Negratti, new Portland coach.

Because members of this season's 15-man squad have individually compiled glittering prep records, Negratti hopes for the strongest first year team in Pilot history. However, the coach frequently stated in pre-season talks that high school press clippings won't win games, so he's anxious to see the team operate under actual playing conditions.

Other candidates from Oregon towns with the Pilot frosh are: Elmen Bloedel of Milwaukie, Larry Walsh of Eugene and Johnnie Westermann of McMinnville. Portland city students turning out are: Dick Jolley and Harvey Jones.

Out-of-staters at the Portland campus are Jim Armstrong, Abe Brooker and Wally Panel, Chicago; Art Bull, Vancouver, B. C.; Jerry Hummel, Billings, Mont.; and Frank Weber, Jersey City, N.J.

Post Season Game Is Called Off At Bend

La Grande —(U.P.)—Plans for a post-season benefit football game at Bend between Willamette and Eastern Oregon College have been called off, it was announced Saturday by Frank Bennett, president of EOCE.

The game was called off by mutual agreement between the two schools. It was found that NCAA regulations prevented such a contest. Willamette is an NCAA member.

Bennett said it is hoped "that such a game may be possible next year—earlier in the season."

UTAH STATE VICTOR
Provo, Utah —(U.P.)—Utah State, refusing to yield to a fired up Brigham Young eleven, parlayed a staunch defense with a versatile scoring punch to hand the undermanned Cougars a 47-21 Homecoming loss yesterday before 12,000 fans in BYU stadium.

McLoughlin Ninth Beats Hornet Club

McLoughlin ran away from a tiring Hedrick football team in the fourth quarter to pile up a 34 to 0 victory Friday as ninth graders of Medford's two junior high schools wound up their seasons.

The Bulldogs found it tougher going against the outmanned Hedrick eleven for most of three quarters. Halftime score was 8 to 0 and after three periods the margin was 15 to 0.

McLoughlin turned breaks into three of its touchdowns. The others came on a long run and drives.

Gerry Lyons ran 30 yards for the opening score after a drive had moved the ball from midfield.

The Bulldogs worked down to the Hedrick three yard line at the end of the third quarter. They were penalized back to the eight and lost the ball on a fumble on the 12 at the start of the second period. But the Hornets fumbled, too, and Lyons recovery gave McLoughlin the ball again on the eight. Hedrick stopped McLoughlin on downs on the one but two plays later the Hornets Bill Maurer was caught in the end zone for a safety.

Lyons Goes 11
Hedrick lost the ball on downs on its own 29 in the third quarter. In four plays Lyons crossed the final line from 11 yards out. Mike Murray booted the conversion.

In the fourth quarter Lyons intercepted a Maurer pass and ran the ball back about 23 yards to the Hedrick three. Fred Funston cracked over from there to make the score 21 to 0. Then McLoughlin got the ball on Hedrick's 47 and went in six plays to the end zone with Ron Reich shoving the last two. When Murray ran the bonus, the score was 28 to 0.

For the final touchdown Lyons grabbed a Pete Rasmusen fumble on the bounce and ran 25 yards.

McLoughlin tipped Hedrick 13 to 0 in a practice scrimmage at the start of the season.
