Many Medford Students in School News; Three Play in College Bands, Orchestra

A number of Medford college students were in the news last week.

Jerry D. Lambo and Clinton M. Peterson, Medford students at Oregon State college, are two of 77 student musicians picked for the OSC football band.

The band performs at each of the home games and in addition presents special entertainment at all student events. The band, directed by Ted Mesang, is rated one of the top marching units on the west coast.

Young Lambo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lambo of 1389 South Peach street, is a junior in chemical engineering at OSC and young Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Peterson of 540 Ross lane, is a sophomore in forestry.

Kenneth Piland, freshman at Lewis and Clark college, has accepted an invitation to play with the Portland Junior Symphony orchestra. The student, a tuba player, was a member of Medford High school band until his graduation last June.

Young Piland is a member of the first choir of Lewis and Clark college, plays in the college orchestra, is first chair bass player for the college concert band, and also plays in the pep band. He was elected freshman representative for men on the Lewis and Clark student council. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Piland, 401 West Second street.

Justin M. Smith, Medford, has been selected as a distinguished Air Force ROTC cadet and is eligible to apply for a regular Air Force commission. University of Oregon, AFROTC has announced.

Selection was based on academic standing, moral character, leadership qualities, and aptitudes for service in the Air Force. There were ten students selected for the award and commissions will be awarded to the

Sacred Heart Church Scene Of Ferrarelli-Gosch Rites

Sacred Heart Catholic church was the scene of the wedding Saturday, October 22, of Miss Joyce Collette Gosch to Frank John Ferrarelli, Prineville. The Rev. Robert Tommiser read the nuptial mass at 10 o'clock in the morning in the presence of about 100 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gosch, 243 North Ivy street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferrarelli, San Jose, Calif. Mr. Ferrarelli and his bride are living at 176 North Holly street in Prineville.

For the ceremony and the reception which followed the bride wore a gown of eggshell nylon tulle. It was ankle length and designed with fitted bodice, long sleeves and skirt which ended in a pleated nylon tulle flounce set on with lace applique. Her eggshell colored veil matched the dress and was held by a pleated nylon tulle headband. The bride carried a white orchid with Stephanotis on a white lace-covered prayer book.

Miss Edith Ebe, Custer, Wash., a classmate of the bride, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Gregerson, Portland, and Miss Patricia Gosch, sister of the bride. Miss Ebe wore a frock of powder blue polished cotton with long-waisted bodice and full skirt over hoops. Her headpiece was of pleated net and she carried white spider chrysanthemums.

Miss Gregerson and Miss Gosch wore gowns of delft blue tulle to match that worn by the honor attendant, headpieces of pleated net and carried white spider chrysanthemums. Mr. Gosch gave his daughter in marriage and Martin Garcia, San Jose, Calif., was best man for his brother-in-law.

Calvin Wiessenfluh, Paul Frankenstein and James Torrence, all of Prineville, and William Driscoll Jr., Medford, were the groomsmen.

Mrs. Howard Richman, Medford, and Miss Mary Lou Versingel, Portland, a classmate of the bride, sang, and Bruno Pellegrini was at the organ. Altar boys were Ronald Pruitt and Paul Newcomb. The altar bouquets were of white chrysanthemums, and baskets of ferns decorated the sanctuary.

The reception was held in the Medford hotel. Mrs. C. A. Meunier and Mrs. Robert Messer cut the wedding cake and punch was served by Mrs. William Driscoll Jr., sister of the bride, and Mrs. William Neely. Miss Nanette Furry, Phoenix, classmate of the bride, took charge of the guest book and Mrs. Ray Bostwick the gifts.

The bride's mother wore a slate grey taffeta gown with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a slate gray taffeta worn with blue accessories and white carnation corsage.

Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and his sister Misses Joan and Dorothy Ferrarelli and Mrs. Martin Garcia, all of San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chiodo and granddaughter, Weed, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. William Silva and daughter, Judy, Arcata; Mrs. Nicholas Chiodo, Cottonwood, Calif.; and George Lavall, Klamath.

Calif.; Mrs. Calvin Wiessenfluh, Prineville; Misses Charlotte Moreland, Mary Hovl, Pat Mohr and Lynn Silva, Portland, and Dr. Stanley Brown, Gold Hill.

The bride's parents were hosts for a dinner the evening before the wedding, with 20 guests being served at Mary's casa. A pre-nuptial shower was given for the bride by Mrs. Meunier and her daughters, Mrs. Lee Pendergast and Mrs. Robert Messer at the Messer home, 1894 Archer drive, with friends and classmates attending. In Portland members of her class at the University of Portland college of nursing showered her with gifts, hostesses for this party being Miss Ebe, Miss Mohr and Miss Sue Reuter.

In Prineville United States Forest service employees and their wives gave a party for the bride, the hostesses being Miss Eudora Houston, Miss Rose Marie Bruce and Mrs. Calvin Wiessenfluh. The party was at the latter's home.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's grade and high school and University of Portland College of Nursing. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Connecticut.

State President University Women To Be Guest Here

Mrs. Willard Duncan, Oregon State President of American Association of University Women, will be guest speaker at a luncheon and joint meeting of three southern Oregon branches, Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford, this week. The event will be held Saturday, November 12 at Tally Ho restaurant on South Pacific highway at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Emerson Anderson, president of the Medford branch, announces that this meeting will take the place of the regular November meeting listed for November 16 but canceled in order to afford the opportunity of hearing the state president. The Ashland branch is sponsoring the joint meeting and is in charge of all arrangements.

Reservations for the luncheon must be made by November 7th. Those desiring transportation or not reached by the telephone committee can make arrangements by calling Mrs. W. F. Roemer, chairman of the telephone committee, 2-8611, or Mrs. Anderson, telephone 2-2134.

Hons Celebrate 50th Anniversary At Home Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hon, 213 Crater Lake avenue, observed their 50th wedding anniversary, Saturday, November 5 when friends of the couple called on them at their home. Mrs. Earl Wymore, Portland, the Hon's only child, arrived on a surprise visit to be with her parents on their anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hon were married November 5, 1903 at Bedford, Ind. They lived in Indianapolis for a time and moved to Duluth, Minn., where they lived for 16 years. After returning to Indianapolis they moved to Medford in 1926.

Mr. Hon was associated for many years with the Medford Furniture company. He is now retired.

They are members of the First Christian church and have been active in church events. Many of those who called on them Saturday were fellow church members.

They have two grandchildren, Dorothy and Richard Wymore, also of Portland.

Dinner Honors Medford Couple On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Collins were honored at a dinner last Sunday which observed their 49th wedding anniversary. The dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter at their home, Topsides, on Old Stage road.

The dinner was a family event, guests being the Collins' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Collins, Medford, their daughter, Mrs. Sam Maddux, Mather field, California, and another son, Robertson Collins, also Medford. The arrival in the city of Mrs. Maddux and Robertson Collins, who had been away from the city for several weeks, for the anniversary dinner was a surprise to the honored couple. Also attending the dinner was W. Garland Jones, Ukiah, Calif., who was a week end guest of the Carpenters.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins, who were married in Keokuk, Ia., came to Medford from Riverside, Calif., about two years ago and live at 164 Black Oak drive. Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Collins knew one another as girls, and then renewed their friendship when the Collins came to Medford to make their home.

Hornbeck-Thomas Ceremony Held In Medford Church

Miss Georgia Ann Thomas became the bride of George W. Hornbeck October 23 at 4 o'clock afternoon rites at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thomas, 513 South Newtown street. The bridegroom, an airman second class in the Air Force, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harris, Inglewood, Calif., former Medford residents.

The couple left for their wedding trip by the coast route, traveled to West Palm Beach, Fla., where the bridegroom is stationed. They planned to arrive there November 5.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a navy blue suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

Miss Irene Thomas, a sister of the bride, was the only attendant. Her gray suit was worn with red accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Mrs. Ernest Contad furnished the organ music.

The bride was graduated last spring from Medford Senior High school. The bridegroom also attended the same school and was graduated in 1954 from Inglewood high school.

Students Attend Klamath Wedding

Miss Pat Newland, Oregon State college student, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Newland, 1134 Morrow road, this week end. Miss Newland and Miss Sara Hart, daughter of Mrs. Robert Hart, were in Klamath Falls Saturday to take part in a wedding and reception for a former classmate of both at Corvallis. Miss Hart is now attending Southern Oregon college.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Smith, former residents, left Friday for their home in Redlands, Calif., after visiting Mr. and Mrs. John L. Mansfield, 1615 Crater Lake avenue, and Mrs. Smith's brother, Clay John, at Jacksonville. They had been here since last Sunday.

To Report

Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew will give a report on a recent supreme convention of the PEO Sisterhood when Chapter AA members meet Wednesday, November 9, at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Fred C. Lorish, 830 Minnesota avenue, will be the hostess.
