

Medford Altrusans Plan Guest Night; Grant Announced

Medford Altrusa club will hold a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Maisie Daly, Hillcrest orchards, Thursday evening, November 10, at 7:30 p.m.

The program for the evening will be in charge of Mrs. Bertha Haskins, Altrusa information chairman. Mrs. Maude Coddling, president, has designated this evening as guest night and the hostesses will be Mrs. Frances Grant and Mrs. Daly.

The vocational project committee in charge of the vocational training grant of $250 recently announced by the club will meet at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Enid Rankin Tuesday evening, November 8, to discuss plans for its disbursement. Members of the committee are Mrs. Bertha Hopkins, Mrs. Helen Rutter, Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, Mrs. Francis Grant, Mrs. Maisie Daly, Mrs. Betty Flannery, Mrs. Judie Stoll, Miss Lotus Eaton and Miss Grace Smith.

Women who wish to apply for this grant may contact any of the committee for further information. The purpose of giving the grant is to aid older women who find they must earn their living after several years of absence from the labor market, and who need financial help in securing the schooling necessary to fit themselves for employment. According to statistics from the United States Labor bureau, women at the early age of 35 find employment barriers existing in many fields of work. To overcome these women must show complete and recent training to employers who have prejudices when experience has been found to be not recent enough.

Applications for this grant are already being received by the committee, and members urge everyone to pass on the information to those they think might benefit from such a grant. All applications will be handled confidentially. The decisions will not be made by the committee until after December 1, deadline for applications. Requests for applications can be given to Mrs. Enid Rankin, 18 Richmond avenue, telephone 2-8448, to Mrs. Maude Coddling, 1015 Queen Anne avenue, or to any member of the committee or the Altrusa club.

Officer and Wife Visitors in France

News received this week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Applegate, 615 South Oakdale avenue, from their son, Capt. John Applegate, stated that he and Mrs. Applegate will be vacationing this week in Paris, France.

Captain Applegate is stationed with the Air Force at Suffolk, England. He formerly was manager of the Medford Municipal airport.

Church Ceremony Weds Miss Ingram, Ronald Bean

A 7 o'clock evening ceremony October 27 wedded Miss Mary Elizabeth Ingram and Ronald J. Bean. The double ring rites were read at the First Presbyterian church by Dr. D. Kirkland West.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ingram, 1513 Terrace drive, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bean, 2194 Houston road.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of lace over satin. The gown was designed with a Queen Anne collar and her ankle length veil was held by a headress of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Miss Dorothy Bean, a sister of the bridegroom was maid of honor, and Mrs. William Swofford, Arcata, Calif., was matron of honor. Mrs. Larry Edwards, Ashland, was bridesmatron.

The maid of honor and Mrs. Swofford wore gowns of lavender net over taffeta and their bouquets and headresses were of gold colored chrysanthemums. Mrs. Edwards' gown was of aqua blue lace over taffeta and she also had gold colored chrysanthemums for her bouquet and headpiece.

Marlene Bean, another sister of the bridegroom was flower girl. She wore a white dress figured with pink and blue flowers. She carried a basket of pink and white chrysanthemums and wore matching flowers in her hair.

Larry Edwards was best man and ushers were Gordon Corrigan, Central Point, and Roy Madden, Phoenix.

White chrysanthemums decorated the church. Songs were furnished by Harvey Fields, Mrs. Eva Marsh was accompanist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ingram wore a blue lace knit dress with blue hat and accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue-grey suit with white hat. Their corsages were pink carnations.

The candlelighters were Miss Shirley Riggs and Miss Jeannie Harmon. Miss Riggs' gown was of aqua blue net and lace and Miss Harmon wore blue lace and net. Their headpieces were of gold colored chrysanthemums.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. About 100 persons attended the wedding and about 70 were at the reception.

The couple made a wedding trip to Reno, Nev. The bridegroom is stationed with the Army at Ft. Bliss, Tex. Both he and the bride attended Phoenix high school. She has been employed as a telephone operator and will remain here to continue her work, while the bridegroom will return to his station.

Mrs. Rhoda Eichert, Los Angeles, aunt of the bridegroom, was in Medford for the wedding.

Group in Klamath For Dedication of County Museum

Several valley residents were in Klamath Falls last Sunday to attend dedication ceremonies of the new Klamath County Museum.

From Medford were Frank Applegate, descendant of the pioneer Applegate family which played an important part in Klamath and Jackson county history; and Mrs. Thomas J. Gifford, Southern Oregon Historical society officer.

From Jacksonville were Miss Mary Hanley, curator of the Jacksonville Museum, and Miss Claire Hanley, of the Southern Oregon society.

A cousin of Mr. Applegate, Mrs. Alice Applegate Peil, Ashland, also attended the ceremonies.

Numerous items which had belonged to the Applegate family are exhibited at the new Klamath county institution.

Included also in the exhibits are many Indian relics. During the opening last Sunday, Indian women demonstrated basket weaving. They also showed visitors the art of grinding seeds of the woras swamp lily which the Indians use for food and which also was used by the white man in early days.
