Program on Safety Given For Washington PTA Unit

John W. Childers, principal of Roosevelt school, spoke on safety at the first meeting of Washington Parent-Teacher association held in the school gymnasium. He was introduced by Mrs. Russell Johnson, program chairman.

Mr. Childers outlined the methods used to prevent accidents on the playground, in the school, crossing streets and in the home. Preventive measures mentioned by Mr. Childers were marking of danger areas on the playground, supervision of children at playtime by a teacher, safety posters, the important work of school patrols, safety movies, instruction by the teacher in safety, and the all-important fire drills.

He closed by saying that much time and thought is given to the protection of the children at all times, and to teach them to act and think in terms of safety.

James Akerill enlarged on the subject by telling of the safety program carried on at Washington school and giving its safety record. Mr. Akerill has been a teacher at Washington school for about six years and is in charge of the school patrol there. He said this year's enrollment is 595 pupils and that only one accident has occurred in the first six weeks period. He also stated that Washington school could be proud of its safety patrol composed of dependable members of the sixth grade.

Mrs. Ray Alder, president, conducted a business meeting. It was announced that Mrs. Kenneth Howe had replaced Mrs. R. S. Hinman as delegate, since Mrs. Hinman is now in the Jefferson district. Mrs. H. J. McCary, membership chairman, announced this year's PTA enrollment as 396. Mrs. Paul Fuller read the budget for the year and it was accepted.

Mrs. Ruby Dodd's first grade room won the room count.

Mrs. John Hartsook, vice-president, introduced Robert Sage principal, who in turn introduced the school's 22 teachers.

Members of the executive committee were introduced. They are Mrs. Russell Johnson, program; Mrs. James Minnis, hospitality; Mrs. Kenneth Howe, room representative; Mrs. Charles Cox, magazine; Mrs. H. J. McCary, membership; Mrs. Robert Wright, publicity; Mrs.

Victor Taylor, ways and means; Mrs. Albert Piche, health; Mrs. Sage, legislation; Mrs. Vard Griffith, safety; Mrs. Guy Payne, historian; Mrs. Douglas Dawson, youth representative; Mrs. Clayton Ruhl, family life; Mrs. Fuller, budget; Mrs. Clayton George, child welfare; Mrs. Myrtle Patterson, parliamentary; Mrs. Al Bradford, devotional chairman; Mrs. Wendall Mattson, Christmas treats; Miss Laura York and Mrs. Kathryn Larson, music; Mr. Akerill, room count; Mr. Sage, advisor.

Mrs. Gerald Latham's Girl Scouts were thanked for providing child care.

Refreshments were served by mothers of pupils in the first grade.

Adarel Social Club To Meet Thursday At Brewold Home

Jacksonville — Adarel Social club, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet Thursday, November 10 at 12:15 p.m., for dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Earl Brewold, 2668 Jacksonville highway.

Mrs. William I. Childreth and Mrs. Lee Stone will be assisting hostesses.

PTA Council Announces Teachers' Day

A proclamation setting aside Wednesday, November 9 as "Teachers' Day" was unanimously passed at a meeting Thursday of Medford Council of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. Roland Holmes presided over the afternoon session at the YMCA.

Noting that the period of November 6 to 13 has been designated as American Education week the council resolved that Wednesday be named to honor and give special tribute to teachers.

Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford city schools, addressed the group on "the proper relationship between the PTA council and the school administration." He pointed out that the objectives of the two groups are similar, and that co-operation is necessary to achieve results.

Education is a group responsibility of school, home, church and community, Mr. Mayfield said, and opportunity for parents and teachers to exchange ideas is afforded by the PTA organization. He added that referral of questions and complete discussion must occur before making decisions, and that the local PTA leaders and school administrators are efficiently carrying out this program.

Mrs. Holmes announced that a legislative workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Clyde Gideon, state PTA legislative chairman, at the YMCA November 16 from 2 to 4 p.m.

The group voted to dispense with the December meeting.

Back to School Night Announced By Gold Hill PTA

Gold Hill—A "back to school" night for parents of students at Gold Hill school will be held November 10 sponsored by the Gold Hill Parent Teacher association. Parents are invited to attend the event which will be held at the school and to participate in viewing work done by the students. They also are invited to speak to the teachers of their children regarding their work.

At a recent "coffee" given by the PTA at the Paul Malloy home $50 was raised for work of the group.

October 28 Halloween parties were held in the various rooms, and children were costumed for a parade in the gymnasium. A number of parents attended and refreshments were furnished by mothers of students.

Before washing a blouse or dress with shoulder pads, run several lines of basting stitches through them. This will prevent lumps forming during laundering.

Lodge Sets Date Of Homecoming; Initiation Held

Medford Odd Fellow lodge has announced the annual homecoming dinner for November 22 at the lodge hall at 6 p.m. The planning committee states that the dinner will be of roast turkey, and that a social hour will precede dinner.

Marcus L. McKenzie received the second degree at the meeting November 1, and the third degree will be conferred November 8.

Coming events of the lodge will include the annual Christmas party.

Legion Auxiliary To Meet Monday

The November business meeting of Medford unit of the American Legion auxiliary will be held at the Legion home November 8 at 8:00. An important business matter will be discussed, the president states, and it is necessary that as many members as possible attend.

Make raisins extra plump and juicy for use in salads or fruit cup by letting them stand in fruit juice for about 30 minutes before combining with the other ingredients.

Regent Announces Conference Dates

Mrs. Albert H. Powers, Coos Bay, regent of the Oregon society of Daughters of the American Revolution, announced last week that the 1956 conference of the society will be held March 22, 23 and 24 at Albany.

Mrs. S. V. Taylor, regent of Linn chapter at Albany, will be general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Lester Horton and Mrs. Wayne Dawson, vice-chairmen. Sessions will be held in the historic First Presbyterian church.

An important part of the conference will be revision of the state constitution and by-laws to conform to revisions made in those of the national society. Mrs. A. R. Quackenbush, Eugene, is in charge of the state revisions committee and her assistants are Mrs. Sidney Caldwell, Miss Ethel May Handy, Mrs. F. Louise Stoeckle, Portland; Mrs. Harvard Moore and Mrs. Lee Heffron, Eugene.

Miss Viola Dietrich, Hostess for Meeting

Miss Viola Dietrich was hostess for a meeting of the Past Presidents club of the Degree of Honor Protective association Tuesday evening at her home. Plans were made for an annual Christmas party. Refreshments were served.

Parents Invited To Visit School

Parents of children in Howard school are invited to visit the school any day this week in observance of National Education week. Teachers will be honored at special observances Wednesday.

ent-Teacher association stated "We are pleased to pay special tribute this week to the schools, teachers and children of our community. Good schools are an investment in America. Share in that investment."
