Danny Giovanelli Choice in Bout

New York — (U.P.) — Welter-weight Danny Giovanelli goes in as a substitute with only a week's rest tonight against Danny Jo Perez but he is favored at 9-5 to win their television 10-rounder in St. Nicholas arena.

It's a return bout. Giovanelli of Brooklyn stopped Perez of New York in the sixth round because of a gashed brow on March 2, 1953. That's the only kayo against Danny Jo in his 22 fights. Each is 23 years old.

Last Monday, Giovanelli won a unanimous decision over Paolo Melis of Montreal at St. Nick's. He suffered no cuts and was able to accept the invitation to substitute for Chico Vejar against Perez. Vejar suffered a split lip in training.

Malin Raps Crusaders For District Mantle

A bigger Malin high football team, which had the power in the line, punched out a 27 to 12 decision over St. Mary's high Crusaders here Saturday night to garner the District 5B football championship.

It was the first loss this season for the Medford club which was fighting to the end and passed well but couldn't capitalize on it. The Mustangs tallied on a 45-yard run by Jim Johnson and on a 99-yard drive with Norm Oliva going over to take a 14 to 0 lead in the first quarter.

St. Mary's came through with two touchdowns in the second quarter for a 14 to 12 standing. Dave Hartley recovered a Malin fumble on the 20 and a clipping penalty put the ball on the five. Laval Meunier went over from there. Another fumble recovery set up the other TD. Passes, Jim Jones to Gerald Darland for 25 yards and Jones to Bill Carey for 10 helped the assault and Jones went over from the one-foot line.

Possible turning point in the game resulted from a bad center snap by St. Mary's. The ball rolled to the SM 12. Malin got a score with Oliva going from the 14. Ray Johnson kicked his third extra for a 21 to 0 count.

Rams Upset Forty-Niner Eleven 27-14

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Confident Sid Gillman, his Los Angeles Rams on top of the National Football League's Western division, said today the Rams "can beat anybody anytime and we are going after the Chicago Bears."

The Rams upset the San Francisco Forty Niners, 27-14, yesterday before a Memorial coliseum crowd of 85,302, largest of the season. Chicago soundly whipped Los Angeles a week ago. The two teams meet again Sunday in Chicago and a victory by the Bears will put them in a tie with Los Angeles for the Western division lead.

Les Richter's 34-yard field goal provided the Rams with their only points in the first half.

Soccer Fracas Results in Riot

Naples, Italy — (U.P.) — Heavily armed police patrolled Naples streets today to prevent new riots by hot-blooded football fans, still angry at police who opened fire to quell a riot in Naples Stadium Sunday.

An estimated 200 persons were injured in the riots, two of them seriously, and police feared new outbreaks. The referee whose decision touched off the rioting was in hiding, his face swollen and his body covered with bruises.

The riot broke out during the Bologna-Naples soccer game and police were forced to use tear gas to quell the crowds. The police also fired carbines and two men were hit.

Norm Van Brocklin, still nursing a bruised hand, completed 10 of 30 passes for 138 yards. He was awarded the game ball by his teammates for what co-captain Tom Fears described as "a terrific job of holding onto that ball in the second half." The Rams had 82 plays from scrimmage to the Forty Niners' 47.

Coquille, Phoenix Tie; Red Devils Get Berth

Phoenix — Phoenix high's fighting Pirates battled back in the final quarter here Saturday night to deadlock with the Coquille Red Devils and gain a share of District 6 A-2 gridiron championship but the rugged, hard charging Red Devils from the Oregon coast will move on into the state prep quarter-finals on the basis of more yardage and first downs.

The Pirates missed victory by just a whisker. Spurred by the all-around playing of Delmar Brood, they tied up the game at 20 to 20 — the final standing — with two touchdowns in the closing quarter. The second of the two came with less than two minutes to play.

With triumph or tie hanging in the balance, Brood went back to boot the conversion. His kick was a high one and many, many Pirate followers swore he'd scored the vital point. But the boot was ruled barely wide to the right and the upset chance was gone.

Vet Driver Dies in Race At Phoenix

Phoenix, Ariz. — (U.P.) — Veteran racing driver Jack McGrath making what he announced would be his last appearance on a dirt track, was killed Sunday when his car flipped three times near the end of the Bobby Ball Memorial 100-mile event.

Death ended the 35-year-old Los Angeles driver's career on the 87th lap of the race. McGrath, who finished third in two Indianapolis 500-mile big car races, was killed instantly when his canary yellow auto flipped as he was about a mile behind Jimmy Bryan, the winner of the Ball race.

Last Under AAA
It was the last race held under the sanction of the American Automobile association which announced earlier this year that it was withdrawing completely from racing. J. Gordon Betz, chief steward for the AAA, said a special investigator had been assigned to seek the cause of the fatal accident.

It was believed that McGrath's Hinkel special had struck a rough spot on the track just before the accident. But witnesses also said they thought the right front wheel had folded under the car as it went into its flip. A sheriff's investigator who was present said he thought a broken axle resulted in the accident.

Browns, Rams Lead Pros; Bears Ripping

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer
The Cleveland Browns and Los Angeles Rams are out in front in the National Football League's division races today but the Chicago Bears are ripping through the pro circuit like an enraged grizzly.

Cleveland cashed a dividend on its quarterback "insurance" Sunday by using substitute George Ratterman to whip the New York Giants, 24-14, and take a two-game lead in the Eastern Division. Ratterman threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score to wipe out a 14-3 Cleveland deficit after the Giants sent Otto Graham to the sidelines with a concussion.

Los Angeles also trailed at the half, 14-3, but took the undisputed Western Division lead by rallying to defeat the San Francisco Forty-Niners, 27-14.

But the Bears produced the campaign's biggest touchdown explosion at Chicago. Looking more each week like the Bears of old, they ran up a 45-3 lead and defeated the Green Bay Packers, 52-31.

The Bears' fourth straight triumph set the stage for the game which may decide the Western Division champion — next Sunday's Rams-Bears game at Chicago.

Los Angeles (5-2) now leads the Bears and Baltimore Colts each (4-3) by one game. The Detroit Lions won their first 1955 game Saturday night, defeating Baltimore, 24-14, when halfback Doak Walker scored twice in the last four minutes.

The Chicago Cardinals (3-3-1) gave Cleveland an assist by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers in the other Saturday night contest, 27-13. The Washington Redskins converted five of six recovered fumbles into scores to defeat the Philadelphia Eagles (2-4-1) in the other Sunday tilt, 34-21.

Washington and Pittsburgh each (4-3) are second in the Eastern Division. All teams have five more games.

New York held a 14-3 edge on touchdowns by Frank Gifford and Kyle Rote when Graham was knocked groggy with five minutes to go in the first half. Ratterman, the league's highest-paid bench-warmer, replaced Graham. He shot a 30-yard TD pass to Ray Renfro in the third quarter and a 14-yarder to Pete Brewster early in the final period to give Cleveland a 17-14 lead.

Then Ratterman guided the Browns 80 yards and clinched the victory by hiding the ball and skipping four yards around end to score with 71 seconds remaining.

Rookie Bobby Watkins scored twice and Rick Casares, Chick Hagade, Ron Drzewicki, Harlon Hill and Bill McColl each scored once as the Bears buried the Packers under seven touchdowns.

Roy Barni, Ralph Guglielmi, Jim Monachino and Bert Zagers scored for Washington. Bobby Thomson threw TD passes to Pete Pihos, Bobby Walston and Bill Stripling for the Eagles.

Gern Nagler and Dave Mann scored TDs after the Cardinals recovered Steeler fumbles and Pat Summerall scored the other Card touchdown on a 26-yard dash after intercepting a Jim Finks pass.
